Ten Other Literary Papers in America.

The profits on this unparalleled circulation enable the proprietors of THE LEDGER to expend sums upon it which would seem fabulous in any ordinary publication.

No expenses will be spared to secure others whose pens shall be considered competent to add to THE LEDGER'S attractions and usefulness

NEW DEMOCRATIC PAPER,
AT WASHINGTON, D C

DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY AND WEEKLY

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL COMmence the publication on Independence Day, in the city of Washington, of a Democratic Newspaper, to be called

THE STATES

It will represent the principles and policy of the Democratic party, as they have been established by the precedents of the Government during the administrations of Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Van Buren, Polk, Pierce and Buchanan, and will endeavor to maintain the Constitution as it is, and the Union as it was.

In addition to the usual session of Congress, the approaching session of the Legislature of Virginia will be reported, and the proceedings of the Democratic State Convention, which will assemble at Richmond on the 4th of July, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, will be published in full.

In becoming a competitor of the above-named Congress Journals, I propose to say that the Globe would not be a partisan paper. This pledge would be but a repetition of a resolution to which I have adhered for the period of thirty-one years, during which time I have been connected with the Globe. I refer to the character of the work which I published during the period, together with the Congressional Globe and Appendix, as evidence that I have been faithful to the pledge. I refer to the Messages of the Presidents, to the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, to the Laws passed, to the Treaties and Documents ordered to be printed by Congress, and to the Congressional Globe and Appendix, which contain the Reports of the Debates in Congress, as taken down by the Reporters employed by me, and published in the Globe, as evidence that I have been faithful to the pledge. The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of the Debates in Congress, as taken down by Reporters employed by me, and published in the Globe, with the Messages of the Presidents, the Laws, the Treaties, and the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed, the Executive and Diplomatic Documents ordered to be printed by Congress, and a copious Index to the whole. The Congressional Globe will make about two large octavo volumes of 800 pages each, and the Appendix will make about the same number. The whole will make as much matter as fifteen octavo volumes of 800 pages each, and will contain as much matter as fifteen octavo volumes of the size of the Congressional Globe and Appendix.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will contain a report of the Debates in Congress as taken down by Reporters employed by me, and published in the Globe, with the Messages of the Presidents, the Laws, the Treaties, and the Annual Reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments, the Laws passed, the Executive and Diplomatic Documents ordered to be printed by Congress, and a copious Index to the whole. The Congressional Globe and Appendix will make about two large octavo volumes of 800 pages each, and will contain as much matter as fifteen octavo volumes of the size of the Congressional Globe and Appendix.

TERMS Daily $1 during the session of Congress, or Daily $7, the Tri Weekly commencing with the first regular session after the 4th of March next, during the same period, and $6 per annum, and $3 per session.

The weekly STATES, the cheapest paper in the South, will be issued on the day of the first mail from Europe after the 4th of March next, and will be published every week during the session of Congress, and thereafter once a month. Price may be changed if the paper exceeds the size of sixteen pages. Terms Cash in advance

The Weekly will contain all the important matter published during the week in the Daily.

The undersigned was connected with the editorial conduct of the Washington Union, and has had a newspaper experience before and since the establishment of that paper, justifies him in promising the public a paper well worthy of their patronage. The STATES will not be the organ of any section or faction, and will be open to parties to discuss the topics which will address itself to the honest judgment of the people and to appeal solely upon the justice of their cause.
