

nessee, between the Hon. Cave Johnson and

Major Gustavus A. Henry. As the story

S. S. SEELY & J. S. BARNHART

Termit of Publication.

TERMS -$1,50 ots if paid within three months $2,00 if dlayed six months, and $2,50 if not paid ithin the year. These terms will be rigidly ad-ad at the usual rates, and every de JOB PRINTING SUB PRIMITIVE EXECUTED in the nearest manner, at the l prices, and with the utmost despatch. Hi burchesed a large collection of type, we have prices, and with the utmost despatch. Havin purchased a large collection of type, we have pro-pured to satisfy the orders of our friends (

Geiginal Poetry.

[For the Demodratic Witchman] Lines

Written on the death of W BARION BOY, by KATE REENE, and, respectfully inserthed to the jury iving members of the family

Again the "grim monster has entered thy hemp. And from its small circle a loved one s been borne to the low narrow grave where his body now Meeps, And o'er his odd clay the wind mournfully

But the past that simmortal did glorioualy rise, In the heaven of rest far up in the skier Friends tenefully chanted a dirge for his death , While angels erfed loudly for joy in each breath

They bare him where flowers do constantly bloom And sweeter than nestar the sid they performe. Where sun hine eternal falls on the pure gold. That pay is the wid atreets of that blasful fold

If thes in that land where living fruit grows, And the infvery water of life freely flows Where authems of unwas foll sweetly along And Echo reverbates back the sweet song

Henes stely sailed on death s datk stic am Where sorrow no crenters, and jusc is the them Of millions who we landed on the radient shore , Of glory eternal where parting s no more, . Рокт Матадра, Ра Miscellancous.

(I not the Kunton (Ohio) Republican of Mar-An Angel in Ohio.

According to the most accurate and relia He information we can get. Orange township, in the southvestern corner of Hanrock county has recently been made the fa- prisoner was acquitted - he had not stolen voted locality of one of those remarkable visitations which the people have learned to regard as very few and far between an argel visit. We briefly give the partieplane as we received them from a source that all will concide is infinity reliable and criticled to could case. Some time in August last a bright, intelligent little gul, and five years daughter of Mr. Charles, who resides in the locality described, while, near the well in the yard, about roon of the day seemed to discern something high up in the an, and descending towards her The attention of the child was to much very pistol the attorney had just shown he drawn to the object, that her gaze became nivited upon it, and as it drew nexu; the was observed to make frequent attempts to , reach it with her hands, and form a cluser, quantance with the strange visitant the scene, the little gul informed her that gers from above. To satisfy herself that there could be no deluyion in the matter, the because it is not straight enough to sum in, done well shall rise to py that ends not, he thent die under his hands, the relatives, & foringht afterward built the new schoolhouse, having a lien upon it, refused to let it be opened for the fu- over this little essay, and lay it down with- The system of canvassing and electionneral service ; but subsequently they gave out perceiving its merit. The attentive ecting as it is carried on in the Southwest, up the key, and the sermon was preached at the exact time predicted.

The bercaved mother intended that the knowledge of these prophecies and their ful- ty of such an effort one has only to try to im- said to have gecurred in a canvast in Tenfilments should go out of time with her, but litate it recently, the secrecy bearing more crushing-ly upon her, she determined to reveal the for John Latimore, Esq., and Samuel Wood, spis it with stars. Man, worn with the toil 1 will tell you a luttle meedote illustra-one of our Sounty Commissioners, and to and strife of the day, goes to his home, and two of the peculiar electioneering abilities rity is sufficient guaranty that they would festimony to the good character and standing of the lawy who makes the revelation, as entitled to credit.

A Grateful Client.

When John Henderson, of Texas, was tici County, in which he was, except by feputation, a steanger - Hearing that a trial for] determined to volunteer for the defence The prisoner was charged with having stolen a listol ; the defence was ' not guilty.'--The volunteer counsel conducted the defence with great ability. He confused the with 'toquient and successful argument. The dram as those that grow in the land of gion." the pistol. The counsel received the authustastic applause of the audience - Ilis mnocent client availed hunself of the earliest in-, terval of the hurricane of congratulations to take his counsel assile. " My dear sir," said he is you have saved me, and I am very grateful. I have no moncy, do not expect to have any, and do not expect ever to see you nghin, but to show that I appreciate your services, you chall have the pistol '

So saying he drew from his pocket, and presented to the astonished attorney, the had never stolen or had in his possesion.

Crooked Emourts

Speaking of the Rio Grande, a writer Ima me one of the crookedest When the mother of the child was called to things in the world, then imagine one more twice as crooked, and imagine to yourself a she was in the presence of an ingel; that large river three times-as crooked as all she had talked with it that it had made these put together, and you will have a faint night of death must be sweet. But there is communications to lot and furthermore idea of the crooked disposition at this crook no change there, as the tree falls, so it

The indifferent reader will probably glance | Ancodotes of Stump Speaking. reader will see that as finished as the 'style affords much that is amusing as well as in is there are few words of more than one syl- structive. We find in the "Editor's Draw-Table used in it. To appreciate the ingenui- er" of Harper for December, a rich joke

SLEEP 2 Rest is sweet. When day has closed and runs, Major II., in reply to an illusion of whole matter, and in accordance with this sounds of toil are heard no more. Night his opponent as to his manner of shaking determination; one day last week she sent draws her dark robe around the earth and hands, said them gave the particulars the most promi- southed by the luft, is woord to rest. Now, of my honorable triend in his intercourse nent of which we have given. The gentle. as he lies on his couch, thoughts that vexed with our intelligent constituents. We were men named are among the oldest, most re- him by day throng his mind. It is sweet to canvasting in a remote part of the district, spectable, and influential citizens of our muse on the pays of hie, on loves and hopes, and having an appointment to speak near county, then well known character for integ- as sleep weights down the luis of our eyes the house of a very influential Squire, we and sheds his sweet balm o'er the worn spent the previous night at his house tonot favor a wrong action, or in any way as- frame. One by one our hubbs yield to his gether. It was well known that the Squire sist in giving publicity to a story, as to the touch , thoughts dance round us in a wild, controlled all the vole in that precinct, and truth of which they had a reasonable doubt mixed waltz then, one by one, they leave that his better half conrolled him, so that These gentlemen, we understand have taken us ; the mind makes one fond grasp at each it was all important to get on the right side down the facts, as Mrs. Charles related loved shade as it flees, but fails to seize it ; of her. We had agreed not to electioneer them, for the purpose of giving them to the the brain whills, the mind acts no more ; with the Sopario while we staid with him Julite, in pamphlet form. They both bear and "we sink down and cease to be." but I did not think this make ine to do This is Sleep "so like is it to Death that my best with his family. Bo I rose about

Some have called them twins. But Death daybreak the next morning, and, thinking and would regard any thing coming from her we fear, while Sleep seems to us a kind that I should make friends with the mismirse, who takes to her lap the vexed child, tress of the house by bringing water to cook We know that Death bears us on his breast the breakfast, I took a bucket and started to the world we know not, but which we off for the spring I was tripping of on a first a candidate for office, he visited Fron- touched its plans , while Sleep leads us but along, when what on earth should I see, as I looked into the barnyard, but the old woto the world of dicams. The bright world of Dreams ' At night may milking the cow, while my honorable folony would take place in a few days, he we row our barks on its lakes and seas of friend, with his face ruddy with morning ex-glass, our feet tread its shores, and we walk ercise, and his long locks streaming in the 'mid its dells. Brooks sing to us as they breeze, was holding the cow by the tail ! leap on their way. Birds with bright I saw in an instant that he had the start of plumes greet us from the boughs, as we pass me. I returned to the house discomfitted, through the groves. No trees are there so and ahandoned all hope of a vote in that ie-dreams no flowers so mare as those that spring from the glad soil as we draw neat +... An Incident at Washington. Towers crowned with gold throw back to. The Washington correspondent of the the sun the light he gives . and we glide on Boston Post writes the following amusing through halls thronged with loved ones of apple feat "I cannot help telling you a little incicarth or those passed from us long since to the world of shades Night by night we dent of Secretary Toucey's reception. One talk with loved ones three, and her to the of the guests, a gentleman, daying a lady go cleaving the air to a terrible death upon 'em up the country to edicate 'em ; and I you shall share my last their g'it, and the take they breathe in our cars, and our on his aim, took from the take a fine, large the stony street below and at the same rather guess l've got my eye on 'em now," last faint pressure of the hand and the last hearts swell with the bliss we feel. But spole, probably for the little ones at home, time he knew he could not, in the disorder- said the stranger, taking in the whole crowd field ks, shall be yours, and even when e'en the throb with which the heart greets and his coat sleeves being farre, be recreted ad state of his nerves and his mereasing at a glance the joy is its duge ? for we wake to weep it in the sleeve of his right atth. Unforth in takness, retain his grasp, more the result and is too sweet to be known on earth. How wise a gift is sleep. In the hush of his retiring bow he gave a flourish of his arm tainly would, and, determined to make at hight sleep is born, and rest comes to, man and pitched the apple almost in the Secre- least an effort for his life, he put one foot as a strong man to run a race " Each day gentleman looked as much mortified and an- inte of exertion, and the greatest danger, he The lubscribers and job customers are all bie, till at last death comes, and man sleeps bomb-shell in the parlor. Some way sciant and in a few seconds more way uside of the to wake to a new life of joy or shame As bled to get the apple, and restored it to the sceeple and sale. in sleep there is no work, so there is none disconfield gentleman who then inconti-. Then it was that Mr K's great courses To one worn with toil the nently took himself off in the grave

To the practice of medicine in Beloosnisgave a description of it, accordingin every, ed river. There is no driftwood in it, from must he." If, then, the day of his bo-lost, tau there are only two slight drawbacks.- he sank upon the platform motionless and particular with the generally received no. the fact that it is so crooked that timber how sad the night. For when the trump When the physicum gives a dose he is expression of the appearance of these messen. cannot find its way down' far enough to shall sound to wake from this long sleep, we peeted to partake of a similar one himself, as hour before he could riskand walk, and he lodge two sticks together ; but few snakes, shall be judged for our works ; he that has a guaranty of his good faith , should the pa- did not recover from the shock for more than mother entered into conversation with the and the fish are all in whichpools in the who has done ill, to Shame wee - Work, though by no means bound to exercise it m The people gazing up at him from the Thrilling Scene.

FRARFUL EXPERIENCE OF A LIGETNING-ROD Charles Lamb, tells his sad experience a MAN -- HIS ASCENT TO THE SUMMIT OF A CAa warning to young men in the following THEORAL SPIRE. Mr. Thomas Kingston, who for several language.

ears has followed the business of putting " The waters have gone over me out of the black denths, could I be heard, I up fightning rods, which, of course, requires steady neires and a firm brain, met with an Would cry out to all those who have but set accident recently, by which, but for the a foot in the perilous flood Could the youth nost singular presence of mind, or rather to whom the flavor of his wine is delicious as supernatural instinct, he would have fallen the opening scenes of life, or the entering from a dizzy height, and been dashed to me- upon some newly discovered paradise, look ca. He is compelled to climb roofs, over into my desolation and be made to under-himneys, and up spines to fig a rol, with bland what a dreary thing it is when a man crft et cosolness and precision, hundreds of shall feel nimself going down a precipice with eet above the level of the carth open eyes and passive will to see his destruction and have no power to stop it, and On the occasion to which we refer, Mr. K.

and ascended St. Paul's Cathedral, whose yet feel it all the way cutanating from him et high, near the head of Broadway, and fastened the last foot of the rod and attached verod eye, feverish with the "ast hight, its point-quite a heavy proce of metal -se, durking, and feverishly looking for tecurely, as he supposed, to the cross sur- light's repetition of the folly , could be but mounting the steepla. Its had not not contained feed the had of the built of the bu by a number of persons in the street below |ed-it| were enough to make him dash the encing that satisfaction which results from pride of its manthing temptation." hazard passed and labor accomplished, of a If you have a young friend who may be in sudden something heavy struck him and danger of acquiring an appetite for strong sudden something heavy struck him and made his brain reel until he could hardly drink, invite his attention to Charles Lamb's see. Instead of lowing his hold at once as see. Instead of losing his hold at once, as may not leave when once our feet have hight fantastic toe, singing merrily as I went would seem to have been the natural and m- GREENY AND THE DANDERS - Vyoung men, and go down into the dark valley ! But I evitable result, he clung with a power be-relation homespun, was standing in Conrest, know in whom I have believed and ican yond hunself and a will superior to his own, a few days since, decouring a doughout, on his arm. "I fear no evil - Do not blanne closer and instinctively to the spire. He, when he was accessed by one of a half dozen me for keeping even all thus from you. How knew not what had occurred, and to his con- genteely dressed-city-idlers with. fused senses it appeared that the steeple was about to bring the vast structure to the ain't it, yeou ?" said the countryman, ground. Some forty seconds -- an age to him -- must have elapsed before he sufficiently collected green). his scattered thoughts and subverted coapart of the rod had fallen upon his head,] "She did, ch ? What kind of bu dreadful perplexity, and most dangerous po- Bostin, and look around and find halt a doz- and of transferring my sucking head from sition. He feared, if he moved, he would for the joy which lives not but in our dreams nately he forgot the circumstance just at the of fate than of feeling, much longer. If he himself, when he quietly finished his dough- death , and our spirits shall hold one last very moment he should not for in making stirred he might fall ; if he remained he cer- nut.

Morn comes, with the dawn he leaves his lary's face. It bounded and rolled away very cautiously, then his arm, and then benefile Herald publishes employs a man couch and goes forth to toil with new zeal, under some lady & crinoline, while the poor moved the other foot and after half a min- with the "small pox" to collect his debts. of toil has its night of rest. Thus it is thro' tonished as if he had accidentally fired a, touched the topmost round of the ladder, paying up without being called upon," and muscles relaxed , he grow sick unto death , turn to the happy pair in this way his knees gave way, his vision swam, and insensible IIe musthave, lam there half an spire is about two hundred and thirty five self , to see all good iness emptied out of thin and yet not able to forget a time when it was one to the very top, where, having left his otherwise ; to bear about the pitcous specladder below, he clung by his arms and legs, tacle of his own runn , could be see my fe-

Charles Lamb's Warning.

and while looking at the work and experi-sparkling beverage to the earth in all the

If you have a young friend who may be m

"Jest come deown?" tumbling ; or that some strange cause was ... Yeas, guess I have ; great place this

" 'Tis so, bub how's your marm " asked the city buck, bent on sport with your head upon my breast wips the death sciousness to know that the entire upper down on business.

causing the blood to trickle over his forc- are you on ? '

head, and nearly blind him. He was in a why, she wanted me to come down to dreary nights, for the spins' final flights

NEW WAY TO COLLECT DEBTS. The Stenthe Herald man is getting wealthy very fast Fred Rush has martied the widow Can

When Cupid did this maylen built On Hymon's course to take a brush,

At first she went off on a Capter But now sho goes at with a Rush ourside says the time was when this old that grows over young Mary's grave. I rule of walking and driving was observed,

Letter of a dying Wife to her Husband

VOLUME 3 - NT MBER 11.

The following tonching fragment of a log-ter from a dying with to her husband, was tound by him some months after her death, - 35.04 between the leaves of a religions volume, which she was very fond of 1 or mag. The letter was written long before her husband was aware that the grasp of that fatal discase had fastened upon the lovely form of his wife, who diet at the carly age of ninetun

When this shall reach your eye, d ar ters are wither they when we ware turning orte therefies of the past. I shall have passed awny forever, and the cold white stone wit be keeping its lonely watch over the lips too have so off repressed, and the sod will be growing Wilco that shall hide forever from cour which the duct of or e who has often nesthe close to your warm heart. For myny long and sloppless nights, when all besule my thoughts were at rest, I have wrestled with the consciousnesss of approaching dirth Willd Tand although to you, to others, it might now seem but the nervous anagineng of a girl, yet, dear George at as so ! Many weary hours have I passed to the endeavor to reconsile investition 1 averyon, whom I have so well and this bright world of sunshine and beauty, and hard induce it is to struggle on sheath and alone with the sure couve on that I am about to have a I for ver could I subject you of all oth is, to such sorrow'as I fed at paramet, when tame will soon make it apparent to y af I could have wished to live if only to be at your side when your time thall contain and pallowing damps from your brow, and usher your de

"Wall, she's purty well, she sent me parting spirit into the Micker's presence one balmed mywoman's holdst jie er But it er is not to be- and I submit. Yours is the privilege of wardning, through long and en of the luggest fools in Bostin, and bring your breast to my savour's bosens' And ficsh and heart shall have failed-me, my The next moment he had the edgestone to eyes shall rest on yours un' I glazed by communion usigl gently fading from my view - the last of carth - you shall mingle with the first bright glimpses of the unfaling glones of the better world, where parting , ere unknown - Well do I know the spot my dear George, where you will hy me; often we stoud by the place, and a, we watched the mellow sunset as it glanced in quivering flashes through the leaves and burs nished the grassy mounts around us with and strength forsook him, his nerves and ter, and some wicked rymester has given a the stripes of burnished gold cach perhafts has thought that some day one of us would come alone, and which ever it might be; your name would be on the stone But we loved the spot, and I know you will love it none the Mas when you see the same quiet "KEEP TO THE RIGHT "-- A grumbler at sun-light linger and play among the grass know you will go there, and my spirit will stranger, and after being satisfied with the ponds, because they cannot find their way then, while the day lasts, for the night stranger, and after being satisfied with the point, builds this satisfied in the unit way then, 'while the day lasts, for the night reality of the interview, and after having out. Birds frequently attempt to fly across comes when no man can work '. Win, P. seen and talked with the angel face to face. The river, but light on the same side they Baker. bright wings returned heavenward

When the mother and child were alone. they talked freely of what they had seen and heard, and the mother's sadness was minde. Paper intended for packages may be made heard, and the mother's sadness was minde Paper intended for packages may be made summers in the scaling of the solution of the second of the solution of the baid that "the angel told her she would die ment strong, by die one stores the evening her for board, &c. He anything," was the reply. "Well, you the time she first saw cess recently announced by Professor Bruss students in payment for board, &c. He anything," was the reply. "Well, you the time she first saw cess recently announced by Professor Bruss students in be evening her for board, &c. He anything," was the reply. "Well, you the time she first saw cess recently announced by Professor Bruss students in be evening her for board, &c. He anything," was the reply. "Well, you the time she first saw cess recently announced by Professor Bruss students in be even by profession the day stabled her be even to be even to be even be even to be even be the even be the even by profession the time she first saw cess recently announced by Profession be the even be the just two months from the time she first saw cess recently announced my Protessor Brus. Survey on that day, stabled his work cheap, to lay aside the character of a cifficatti Enquirer. five nunutes ; that she would be three days of alumn, and four ounces of white in dying ; that her death would the unliked sonp, and dissolve them in two pounds of wathat of others ; ithat her friends would sup- ter ; into another vessel dissolve two ounces would not be closed ; that her funeral ser- same quantity of water as the former, and remain unsettled. mon would be preached in three weeks af add the two solutions together, which is now ter in the new school house of the neighbor. to be kept warm, and the paper intended to religion; always wore a sanctimonious ex- very cheap, indeed !" hood, by a man whom, with his horse and be water proof dipped into it, passed be pression of countenance, and looked for all buggy, she described, and that her friends tween rollers, and dried ; or, without the would have difficulty in proturing the house use of rollers, the paper may be suspended The mother kept the until it is perfectly dripped, and then dried. for the occasion." sad secret to herself, and waited for the ap- The alum, soap, glue, and gum, form a kind pointed time, hoping that all might yet go of artificial leather, which protects the surwell with her and hers, and not caring to be face of the paper from the action of water, anduiso render it somewhat fire-proof. reckoned as one who would attempt to revive the defunct doctrine of spiritualism. But with the time came the terrible blow.

There is no fact in pathology more cer-Three days before the time predicted for lier death, the little girl fell upon the floor, tamly established than that common con-from whence she was taken to bed, and at sumption of the lungs can be permanently the hour and minute foretold, on the third arrested, if in the advanced stages, and wholly eradicated from the system, if but m day breathed her last. Her eyes remained its beginning, by the presistent habit of open after death, and could not be closed. spending at least eight hours of every suc-Friends, supposing her to be entranced, suade vain efforts to restore her to life. A cessive twenty-four, in ont-door activities, few days after her burnal, Rev. H. P. Darst regardless of all weathers. The colder the weather, the greater the benefit will be dowas passing that way, a friend of Mrs. Charles, required him to tarry awhile and rived from it. The worse the weather, the more necessity for being out in it; for bad preach the little girl's funeral sermon. The reverend gentleman excused hunself on the as the weather out doors may be, that inground of having prior engagements, but the fumes, from foul cellars, dirty kitchens, doors is a part of it, with the addition of all promised to do so in a short time. His person and equipments corresponded in the Good wives, like filberts, will remain good most minute particulars with the prophetic deem his promise, the workmen who had your take of them, how you husband them. Intencer.

and af a receiving information from it of the start from being deceived by the crook. process tune when her own death would be Indeed you may be deceived when you un she retried from the spot, taking her, think you see across it , and some of the httle girl with her and the angel waving its b'hoys say it is so twisting there is but 'one side to it.

Water-Proof Paper.

' Consumption

Steward at the Langaster County Normal School, left the quiet and beautiful village And an easy field. of Millersville under rather peculiar circum-Stances. The session of the Nermal School

" Vamosed the Ranche. '

On yesterday week, Mr. 4, M. Hobbs, horses and wagon at one of our principal gentleman; to inflict so much pain upon hotels, and suddenly "left for parts unyour friends, and all civil people : to suffer known ! ' Sundry bills in this city, which } such pains of conscience as you must suffer, pose her to be in a trance; that her eyes of gum arabic and six ounces of glue in the include bakers', butchers' and storekeepers' and lastly to risk losing your own precious

· · · · ·

This Hobbs made strong professions of nothing ! You certainly do work cheap-

How to Stor BLOOD. -- Take the fine dust the world like a dear, innocent, good, casy soul -in short, a "love of a man." Indeed, of teas, or the scrapings of the inside of tanon several occasions we have heard him ned leather, and bind it close upon the make long prayers, in which the rascality wound and blood will soon cease to flow .and degeneracy of this world seemed to These articles are at all times accessible, and by lightning : the cow was killed, and she cause him a vast deal of regret. The vil- easy to be obtained. After the blood has lain and hypecrite have been acted by him ceased to flow, laudanum may be advanta she was soon found, the storm having ceasto perfection. He has most evantually* Stolen the intery of Heaven to serve the Devil to these instructions. Will save agitation of moving her clothing, the exact image of the

He won, by his christian deportment and would probably make no better prescrip toin, her bosom. oil & fnanners, the confidence of a number of if present. our citizens, who would be very glad to. see llobbs at the present time. They would, GOOD GIRL -A fire occurred in Newport, no doubt, cheerfully furnish him with a R. I., recently, at which the hose bust, and there was a cry for something to bind it .--· boarding house," situated in the castern part of the city, but he wouldn't have the A lady who was near promptly offered one privilege of acting as keeper. Our good of her skirts, and the stream of water was friends at Millersvillo should be careful that soon doing effective service again. That la- On the man's breast was left a perfect dano more such characters be appointed pur dy should be a honorary member of the fire Augreotype of the true. veyors for the students connected with the department.

-----Normal School. And it would not be a bad How WIT RUNS IN THE STREET .- Impuiden if some of our churches were to inquire into the matter and see whether any such | tent little boy (to a very fat old go ntleman, wolves in sheep's clothing" are connected who is trying to get along as fast as he can, with their flocks. The cause of true Chris- but with very indifferent success.) I say old tianty has already suffored long enough from fellow, you would get on a jolly sight quickdescription, and when he did return to re for a long time. It depends upon the care by pocritical pretenders. - Lancaster Intel- er if you would he down on the pavement and let me roll you along. / though by no means bound to exercise that the creamstances, have the right of patting this to death, unless special agreement has been made freeing him from all responsibili-these as to the consequences; while he, should there tests, and tao women swooned away there tests to the consequences is while he, should there tests to the consequences is while he, should there tests to the consequences is while he, should there tests to the consequences is while he, should there tests are the women swooned away there tests to the consequences is while he, should there tests are to behold him the next. sonable ground for complaint, but is expected to submit to his fate like a man and a hakim. In other respects the amateur will

•••••

"What does Satan pay you forswearing?"

Singular Facts. The New York Evening Post and several trary.

other papers have recently published the soul (gradually rising in emphasis,) all for following *

A countrywoman has recently arrived in a violent storm arose. She took refuge under a tree, which, at the instant, was struck was felled to the ground senseless, where geously applied to the wound. Due regard ed with the flash that felled her. Upon re mind and running for the surgeon, who | cow was found distinctly impressed upon

A correspondent of the New York Independent says this curious phenomenon is not without a precedent. Dr. Franklin mentions the case of a man who was standing in the door of a house in a thunderstorm, and who was looking at a tree directly before him, when it was struck by lightning

In 1841, a magistrate and a miller's boy were struck by lightning near a poplar tree in one of the provinces of France, and upon the breasts of each were found spots exactly resembling the leaves of the tree. An Irishman told a merchant that he make his hog a hen doop ! - - for they expected to behaving min the next moment dashed to preces at their feet. Dest inty had ordered it otherwise, and Mr. K. under discussion in the New York Senate in room No 2 of the Old Fellow's Hall, ocstill pursues his dangerous avocation , but which makes the giving or receiving of a cupied as a barber shipp. Esquire likiford he says if he were to live a thousand years free pass upon the railroad a misdemeanor, summoned a jury and held an inquest upon he never would forget the intense horror of except in cases of charity or benevolence, or the heady . The jury reindered a verdict that

....

Paris from the department of Seine et Marne which escape from her lips; therefore, should who should be presented to the Academy of she remain silent, although you have just Sciences. This woman was a short time asked a most interesting question, perhaps since watching a cow in an open field, when you may find an answer in her eyes.

A queer genius being asked why he did before pleasure."

At a recent railway festival in Cleveland, ads's ownrost in who, c'employment her are in honor of Mr. John Durand, the following now engaged in. The King has conferred on striking sentiment was given :-- Our Mothhim a large gold medal for this great rechtora-The only faithful tenders who never mation from the social moral waste. misplace # switch.

"I tell you," said a bashan alian-joker, describing an affair, "everybody was there' and the court house was so full that nobody could have got in if every one hadn't gone before anybody else did." TESTS OF THE PASSIONS .- To find -out whom a child loves, make it a present, and ing behind the hearso.

notice to whom it is most cager to show that present exultingly. To find out whom a woman hates-do exactly the same thing.

Old gentleman, (affectionatley.) "My son why do you chew that fifthy tobacco ?" juice aut of it ald codger." · } - - • those century-like moments when he seemed employers of the road bis death was occasioned by swallowing a to hang upon the air more than two hunof usefulness. The tree which grows the a barber, and had recently been employed tallest, and is most thickly clothed with here in that capacity. He was of very inleaves, is not the bearer, but rather the con- temperate habits, and had been spreeing it for a week past with great excess ; and the In general, what a woman says with her presumption is that in his effort to restore eyes desorves more attention than the words , the shattered across by the uso of opium, he overreached the quantum sufficit, and laid himself down to sleep to wake up in the unseen world. -- Junial's Register botho town of Zablagen, Wurtenberg. there has been lately opened a new printing not attend the funeral of his wife, rephed, "that he could not leave his shop, and that All the compositors and pressmen are deaf "that he could not leave his shop, and that it was always better to attend to business and sixty : eleven of the forumer are woman. They have all been educated at M. Helger-

ß

> A SAD SHIHT. The New Castle Courant says, a funeral of a young woman who died of small pox, passed through the streets one day last week. The only persons who fol- + lowed the corpsu to its last resting place were the father and mother of the deceased. They are both very old, and followed. walk, DON'T BE ASHAMED OF WORK .- There are many young men, who. if they were to study the character of Franklin, would learn a salutary lesson. He was never too proud to work, and thought no employment beneath wanted to buy an empty barrel of flour to Precious youth, stiffy.) - To got the his dignity that was necessary and honorable. ومروسيت المنبعة المستاد وبدرا وسادان