DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

WILLIAM A. PORTER.

WESTLEY FROST.

The latest advices from the capital of Mexico, represent the country to be in a most deplorable condition, indeed, in a state of anarchy.

Kansas Resolutions in the State Senate.

Our readers are aware, says the Democrat, that the majority of the Democratic committee of the Senate recommended the adoption of resolutions sanctioning and sustaining the position of the President, and of a large majority of the Democratic representatives in Congress, in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas under the Leecompton Constitution.

Resolved by the Senate, &c.

That this State has viewed with deep regret the troubles heretofore existing in the Territory of Kansas, and that the majority of the Democratic committee of the Senate recommended the adoption of resolutions sanctioning and sustaining the position of the President, and of a large majority of the Democratic representatives in Congress, in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas under the Leecompton Constitution.

Resolved, That any defective or objectionable provisions...

Resolved, That any defective or objectionable provisions in the Constitution of Kansas (such as pending before Congress) are for the consideration of the people thereof, and that they be amended, altered or modified...

They were adopted after a full and free discussion...

They were adopted after a full and free discussion of the issue between the Democratic party and the opposition...

In the House, the bill to sell the State canals...

In the House, the bill to sell the State canals to the Subsidiary and Erie Railroad Company for $3,500,000 was up, and after four or five hours of fruitless debate...

It has been estimated by the Leecompton members...

It has been estimated by the Leecompton members of the House that they can carry the Kansas bill, with the Leecompton Constitution, by a majority of three votes.

The second regiment of the Pennsylvania volunteers...

The second regiment of the Pennsylvania volunteers have, by a unanimous vote, tendered their services to the President for the Utah expedition.

Recent information from Kansas removes all doubt...

Recent information from Kansas removes all doubt of the election of the Free State ticket, and General Calhoun has declared his intention to give certificates accordingly.

The Senate Bill for the Admission of Kansas.

The following is an entirely correct copy of the Leecompton bill, in the shape in which it passed the Senate on Tuesday:

A bill for the admission of the State of Kansas into the Union.

Whereas, The people of the Territory of Kansas did by a Convention of delegates called and assembled at Leecompton, Sept. 1857, for that purpose, form themselves a Constitution and State Government, which said Constitution is republican, and the said Convention having asked the admission of the Territory into the Union as a State on an equal footing with the original States...

It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the State of Kansas shall be and is hereby declared to be, one of the United States of America, and admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States...

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the State of Kansas shall be and is hereby declared to be, one of the United States of America, and admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States...

Special Legislation.

Gov. Packer, we perceive, says the Germania Telegraph is "down" upon special legislation, and we are glad to publish the fact.

Gov. Packer, we perceive, says the Germania Telegraph is "down" upon special legislation, and we are glad to publish the fact. We hope he will have nerve enough to stand immovably by his proclaimed opinions upon the subject.

The Duty of Democrats.

The Perry County Democrat, an Anti Leecompton paper, in an able editorial, commenting upon the existing subject of Kansas now agitating the country, and alluding to the following sensible and patriotic language:

It says: "But the difference of opinion on this single question should not cause the slightest feeling of alienation on the part of any Democrat towards his party and its usages. We differ in only one particular and should not let that difference operate to the injury of our party."

Messrs. Editors.

The time is rapidly approaching when it will be incumbent upon the Democratic party of this District to place in nomination a candidate for the "postponement" now so honorably and faithfully filled by our distinguished representative Hon. Allison White.

I do not know whether Mr. White will ask a renomination or not, but in likely he should, I wish it to be distinctly understood that I am not in his way.

It is important that our Congressional chambers should be filled by men, who know their rights and knowing dare maintain them. None but the ardent advocates of truth and justice should be sent to the Federal Congress as the representatives of the people.

It is well known that there is not in the district a more appropriate person to be the recipient of Congressional honors than myself. I am a young man of noted industry, untiring perseverance, marked ability, known probity and an uncompromising opponent of everything opposed to Democracy.

It may not seem exactly in accordance with established custom for a man to "speak his own horse," but if you will not speak well of yourself, how can you expect any body else to, and in truth I am tired having boys to pull me in the papers. I am afraid of nothing the opposition can put in to the field, for I know this district to be Democratic, thoroughly so, and although it would shock my modesty somewhat, and produce a degree of embarrassment to be so highly honored and so judiciously promoted yet I think a little experience would accustom me to it, so as to render the position comparatively pleasant.

By inserting this communication you will much oblige

Your old friend, A. TULLEMAN.

A Mover's Town.

The Northampton, Mass. Courier states that Goshen has not a doctor, or physician, or lawyer within its limits. A lawyer it never had, and a negro within the past fifty years.

A little experience is very wholesome, says Sheriff Waddle.

Whoever heard of an old maid committing suicide on account of love, says Papp.

It is not often of late that we see anything in the Telegraph favorable to the Democratic party or to its Chief, whether in the State or Nation; but the above paragraph is an exception, and we cheerfully chronicle the fact as an evidence of returning reason on the part of our veteran cotemporary.

Mount Joy School Exhibition.

Col. S. S. SHERLY: Thinking the one thousand readers of your valuable and interesting sheet might appreciate a few lines relevant to the educational movement, which constitutes the subject-matter of this article, we felt our duty as an ex-teacher, and also as an earnest, though feeble advocate and admirer of the beneficial workings of our common school system, to send you a short notice for publication, relative to this affair, that they (your readers) may read and be benefited by a description of the manner in which things are done by the teachers and pupils of Bogs township.

Well, sir, the memorable school exhibition, came off on Friday evening last, at the newly erected school house at Eagle Chapel, the Mount Joy school house being too small for the requirements of the occasion—yet unfortunately for us, we did not get there in time to procure a comfortable seat, at least in the beginning of the exercises, nor a very enviable place to stand, in consequence of the crowded condition of the house, and the ungallant conduct of several young gentlemen (gentlemen did we say?) pardon the expression, dear readers,) who stood by the door, and, being unable to show their ugly nags within doors, appeared in a most unbecoming manner around the doors, and made themselves as disagreeable as possible, consequently we did not enjoy the exercises as well as we otherwise might, yet, perhaps we are too fast in our denunciations on the conduct of these young men, as their conduct was no doubt, drawn out beyond all endurance by the exciting scenes going on within, and therefore could not forbear making some desperate, though ludicrous attempts, towards effecting an entrance in order to see.

Accepting, however, those slight drawbacks at the doors, now and then,
