PENNSYLVANIA HOTEL.

THE SUBSCRIBER, GRATEFUL FOR THE KINDNESS, respectively informs his clients and the public in general, that he has recently refitted and improved the appearance of his Hotel, and is now ready and prepared to accommodate travelers on their way to or from Philadelphia, with the most palatable and comfortable food, and to furnish them with the most palatable and comfortable lodging. The Hotel is situated in the most desirable location, and is well adapted for the reception of the public. The House is spacious and furnished in superior style. The TABLE of the proprietor will be supplied with all the autumn provisions, delicacies and luxuries, which a protracted stay would require. His BAR will always contain a general assortment of the very best liquors, that the Eastern States afford, adapted to the most exacting tastes. THE STABLE will be attended by an attentive and obliging driver, well practiced to discharge the duties pertaining to his office, and to the department of a public establishment, designed for the convenience of traveling generally. He will always be on hand to furnish the necessary conveyances, and to contribute to the comfort and satisfaction of those who may be disposed to patronize the Hotel of the subscriber, by whom nothing will be omitted which will contribute to their comfort and satisfaction. From the attention and care, which the proprietor has bestowed upon the Hotel, he trusts he will be able to receive a liberal share of the patronage of the public.
