THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1858.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

PUBLIC LECTURES.—Some time ago we published resolutions passed at a meeting of the Bellefonte Fencibles, relative to holding a series of scientific lectures in this place. Since that time, the public will learn with pleasure, that arrangements have been made with a number of distinguished speakers abroad. The object is one well worthy the favorable consideration of our citizens, and we hope it will receive abundant encouragement.

A prominent feature in the organization of the mind is to be continually in action, and it is highly important that our leisure moments should be occupied with something of a substantial nature. One of the most worthy objects of life is to properly cultivate the mind. We believe that public lectures, as contemplated by the Fencibles, will tend materially to further such a purpose, and in entertaining this view will use our humble efforts as a journalist to promote the general welfare of the enterprise.

By reference to the following letter it will be seen that Dr. Wm. Elder of Philadelphia, has accepted an invitation to lecture on the 23d of next month. The Doctor is a man of eminent ability. As it is the intention to continue the course of lectures during the winter, other distinguished speakers have been invited and will attend. We shall have more to say on this subject in future

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23, 1858.

GENTLEMEN.—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter inviting me to lecture before the Bellefonte Fencibles, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday evening the 23rd of November. I accept the invitation, and will lecture at the time and place designated. Very respectfully

(Your ob't serv't,

WM. ELDER.

To A. G. CURTIN, J. B. MITCHELL, WM. McCLELLAN, E. M. BUCHANAN, D. G. BUSH.

A BELSHAZZER FEAST.—A public dinner was given by some of the citizens of Milesburg and Boggs township on Saturday last, as a matter of rejoicing on the successful result of the election for the "People's party." The Bellefonte Brass Band was in attendance, and discoursed some of its most excellent music. Of course we did not participate but are informed the confusion of tongues among this conglomerated assembly, was likened unto some classic story of antiquity. It is the opinion of the most learned that since the feast of one Belchazzar the sun has never shone upon its equal, in a case in many particulars so strikingly, analogous. The hand writing, however, did not appear upon the wall for the festivity was conducted in the open air, but they read upon the tablets of their own hearts, the unutterable dismay which less than twelve short months will certainly bring upon them. The strong arm of justice, and the invincible will of Democracy, will measure the extent of their iniquity, and although they may revil for a time in the height of their mad enthusiasm, and feast upon "fat things" to dissipate the unpleasant reflections of the future, a mighty host is already marching against the strong hold of their citadel.

The brazen gates and frowning battlements of their fortifications will present no impediment, and Babylon the great will fall, because of the iniquity of her people.

A THRILLING ADVENTURE.—The following thrilling extract we submit to our readers without comment. The clock struck ten. I seized my hat and bade good night to all, except the lass I courted, who came out through the hall. She stood within the portal and I gazed upon her charms; and oh, I longed that moment to clasp her to my arms; she spoke about the moon and stars—the immensity of space; I looked into the azure dim, her grasping mind to trace. Then I edged a little closer; put my arms around her waste, and gazed upon those rosy lips I longed so much to taste. Said I my dearest Allie, I'll never rest contented, if I leave to-night without a kiss I'll surely grow demented. Then up she turned her rosy mouth, and every thing was handy, quick from her lips I snatched a kiss, oh yankee doodle dandy! Then off for home I started; I could no longer stay, both light and joyous hearted, I went whistling all the way Hence learn this truth ye bashful youth, who seek for wedded bliss, no lass will ever love you 'till you have complied with this—Go to the Arcade picture rooms—your likeness for her get, where BARNHART takes them true to nature at a single set.

KEEP YOUR COURAGE UP.—When the fierce winds of adversity blow over you, and your life's summer lies buried beneath the frost and snow, do not linger inactive, nor sink cowardly down by the way, or turn aside from your course for momentary warmth and shelter, but with a stout heart and firm step go forward with God's strength to vanquish trouble and to bid defiance to disaster. If there ever is a time to be ambitious, it is not when ambition is easy, but when it is hard. Fight in darkness, fight when you are down; die hard and you won't die at all. Be frugal, use economy, purchase your clothing at the cheap store of Wm. McClellan, who has recently received a new and full supply, and doubtless you will have an easy and approving conscience.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We are informed that a Mrs. Haas of Roopsburg, was on Monday last precipitated in the tail race of the mill belonging to Wm. A. Thomas, by the fractious disposition of the horse she was driving. The vehicle upset upon her in water to the depth of about two feet. Fortunately timely assistance came to hand otherwise she could not possibly escaped with her life. She sustained considerable injury from the accident.

SALT RIVER.—Our steamer has commenced running her regular trips to and from Salt River. Passengers can secure their berth, besides clothing suitable to those high latitudes by applying at the cheap clothing store of Montgomery & Son.

LOCAL MATTERS.—We would again remind our readers that we would like them to send us items of news as they transpire in different sections of the County. All we desire is a mere statement of the facts as they occur, and if not expressed in appropriate words we will improve upon the English. A little attention to this request would place us under many obligations.

SEVEN DEADLY SINS.—Refusing to take a newspaper. Not advertising. Making the printing office a loafing place. Taking a newspaper and not paying for it. Reading the manuscript on the compositor's case. Getting married without sending the printers any of the wedding cake—and not buying your Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., at the cheap store of D. Leyden & Co.

RESUMED.—The nail factory of Mr. Pratt, near Fairview, Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, went into operation on Monday, the 18th ult. It gives employment to over one hundred hands. For two or three years the factory has been lying idle, and it is a cheering sign of the improvement of the times that it will be soon again in the full tide of successful operation.

☞ The "old theology" was never more forcibly presented (says an exchange,) than in the reply of a student at the recent examination of Andover Theological Seminary.—Being asked—

"In what sense did Christ die for all?"—He answered—

"He died for the elect, to provide a way of salvation for them, and for the non elect, that they might be the more effectually damned." A very charitable conclusion, certainly.

Pennsylvania Hotel.

THE SUBSCRIBER RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Centre county and the public in general, that he has leased this Hotel, and is now ready and prepared to accommodate travelers in a style, which he flatters himself will meet with public approbation and patronage. Persons from the County, during their sojourn at Bellefonte on weeks of Court, will find the Pennsylvania Hotel, an agreeable resting place. The House is spacious and furnished in superior style.

THE TABLE of the subscriber will be supplied with all the substantial provisions, delicacies and luxuries, which a productive Country can furnish, or industry vigilance and exertion can procure.

HIS BAR, will always contain a general assortment of the very best liquors, that the Eastern market affords, adapted to suit the most capricious tastes.

THE STABLE, will be attended by an attentive and obliging Ostler, well qualified to discharge the duties pertaining to this important department of a public establishment, designed for the accommodation of travelers generally.

Accommodating servants will always be in attendance to supply the wants and contribute to the comfort and satisfaction of those who may be disposed to patronize the Hotel of the subscriber, by whom nothing will be omitted which will render his customers comfortable and happy.

From the attention and time, which the undersigned has devoted to this Branch of business, and his experience, he hopes to merit and receive a reasonable share of the patronage of the public.

The restorative of PROF. O. J. WOOD for restoring hair perfectly and permanently has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt, read also the following.

☞ THE HAIR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Woods Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the finest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which is restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it, but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philadelphia.

Cochocton, Ohio, Nov 17, 1856

O. J. WOODS & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hankinson) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency, for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be. I would like to engage in the sale of it for I am satisfied it must sell.

Yours truly, S. I. STOCKMAN

Wayland Mass., Feb. 5, 1857

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c. JAMES FRANCIS

IT IS A HUMBUG.
WHAT IS A HUMBUG?
THE GIFT BOOK SALE.

HOW can it be a humbug when you receive the value of your investment in the book which you purchased under gift of greater or less value, with every book purchased? These are questions that come within our hearing almost daily, but if people will give us a call, we will convince them that it is neither a humbug nor a lottery, as the books which we sell are bought, at a great sacrifice, also the gifts, owing to the stringency in the money market which enables us to make these inducements to purchasers. The books which we sell are all of a moral and religious character.

P. S.—Orders from the country solicited, we will give a one dollar Book and Gift to any one who will get up a club of eight purchasers sent to one address, if ordered by mail send six stamps to prepay postage on every one dollar Book. Catalogues sent free.

IT IS A HUMBUG.
WHAT IS A HUMBUG?
THE GIFT BOOK SALE.

HOW can it be a humbug when you receive the value of your investment in the book which you purchased under gift of greater or less value, with every book purchased? These are questions that come within our hearing almost daily, but if people will give us a call, we will convince them that it is neither a humbug nor a lottery, as the books which we sell are bought, at a great sacrifice, also the gifts, owing to the stringency in the money market which enables us to make these inducements to purchasers. The books which we sell are all of a moral and religious character.

P. S.—Orders from the country solicited, we will give a one dollar Book and Gift to any one who will get up a club of eight purchasers sent to one address, if ordered by mail send six stamps to prepay postage on every one dollar Book. Catalogues sent free.

Any news publisher copying the above and forwarding a copy of his paper at the time of the first insertion, shall be entitled to the regular advertising rates in Books and Gifts. For further particulars address SMITH & SIBLEY, Bellefonte, Centre Co., Pa., in care of READ & BOYLE
