

BELLEFONTE, CENTRE COUNTY, PENN'A., THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1859.

albon Rosalind; and as soon as he had eat whis breakfast he prepared for the visit,- a nobler look when the dust of toil, was re-

In one of the sumptionaly furnished a-ant Rosalund Valdar. She was a beautiful girl ; molded in perfect form, with the full flush of health and vigor, and possessing a face of peculiar sacetness and intelligence

She wa . only nuncteen years of age, and she ed had been ten years an orphan. There was nothing of the aristocrat in her lock-roth-

TRIATES AND POBLISHED AT

Terms of Publication.

bared to ADVERTISEMENTS and Business Notices insert the usual rates, and every description of JOB PRINTING

EXECUTED in the neatest manner, at the lowest prices, and with the utmost despatch Having purchased a large collection of type, we are pro-pared to satisfy the orders of our friends

Business Directorn.

M'ALLISTER JANES A. BRAVER M'ALLISTER & BRAVER, A N'ALLISTER AITORNEYS AT LAW, BELLEPONTE, PENY'A

E. J. HOCKMAN. SURVEYOR AND CONVEYANCER BELLEPONTE, PENN'A

WILLIAM IL. BLAIR, ATTORNEY AT LAW Office with Hon James T Hale

JAMES H. BANKIN, ATTORNEY AT LAW, ATTORNEY AT LAW, netLeworts. pans'A Office, on the Diamond. one door west of the ust Office

L. J. CRANS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW AND REAL LSTATE AGENT

(LEARFIELD, (LEARFIELD CO , PA

CHARLES IN HALE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEILEFONTS, PA.

Mice with the Hon James T. Hale

AMBROTYPES,

ATHEROTYPES, CINYSTALLOORAPHS & DAGUERREOTYPES Liken daily (axeeptisendays) from SAM to SPM BY J F BARNHART, -In his splendid Saloon, in the Areade Building, Baltérate, Perio a

DR JAMES F. RUTCHISON,

PHENCIAN & SURGION, ecception Dr. Wai, J. McKim, requestfully for (4) List professional services to the entirent of OPTER'S MILLS and vicinity. Office at the fors his professional services to t POPTER'S MILL'S and vicinity Eutaw House

Ta inviz, PRACTICAL SURVEYOR,

OAN DAL HILLS, PENNA

Will attend to surveying forms roads, &e. Al applicant an addressed to Bondsburg P.O., will re-serve prompt attention. Teb. 10.39-6m. spplication autories associated at the prompt attention -WILLIAN P WILTON BARCRE LINK .

LINN & WILSON:

LINN & WILSON, ATIORNEYS AT LAW Office on Allegary street, in the battleng for morly occupied by Humes, McAllister, Hais & Co Baphers August 10-35 lyear

D G BUSH

D 43 BU920 ATTORNEY AT LAW, BFLICTONTE, PA Will attend to all professional business entrusted to his care. Particular diffetion pant to collec-bons Ac. Office opposite the Court House, with Col. Won. II. Blon. January 13, 59 ff

BEA C METCHERIS,

ATTORNLY AT LAW. BELLIFONTI FERNA BELLIFONT CENNA, Writz atmixe the practice of his profession in he offics herefolice on aprel hydrin and will at soft promptly coll faithfully to the sum of the ruse bits him 23 1551 1. ble looking woman, and the light of her still handsome countenance, was never brighter DR. G. L. POTTER ian when gazing upon her boy. you can never claim her hand, is all that is i BELLEFONDE, CENTRE CO , PA. a thankful, loving heart, and a prayerful, necessary Thaven paper here all drawn Office on High Structure (od office). Will attend to -referational calls as heretotore, and respectfully offers his services to be friends and the public Oct 26 55:15 Lor dul sou! · It is snowing again, faster than ever, ' supper table, in company with the others nor thoughts of seeking the hand of the lady cd his sledge, and then drove to the bar- they should refair to an old building which by DR. J. B. MITCHELL, "Ah," returned Rurie, resting his knife a in marriage " few moments while he bent his gar to listen A s the Court spoke he drew a paper from for a young man named. Orsa, a heutenant PHYSICIAN'A SURGEON, BELLEFONTF, CLNTRR(Q, PA Will at and to professional calls as heretofure and respectfully offers his corristion to his friends and the public Office sett door to his residence on Opting street. Oct 28.58 ff mow is deep enough now. And how it ker. But Rune took it not. He drew back warm and condial. After the first friendly fair maiden awaits my coming." J. D. WIRGATE, and gazed the visitor sternly in the face RESIDENT DENTIST Office and reprisence on the North East Corner of the Diamond near the Court House. Use Will be found at his office except two works in each month, commencing on the first Monday of the month when he will be away filling [reference] duties RESIDENT DENTIST a shelter, and pray for those that have paper " " Ha ''' gasped Damosofl, in quick pas-GEORGE W. SWARTZ one." GEORGE W. SWARTZ, WATCHMAKER & JEWELER, aon. 🧃 Do you refuse 🗥 The meal was at length eaten, and the ta-" Most flatly " BELLEFONTE, FENN A Rooms and door Rust of E. C. Hubbes, & Bro " Put you will sign it !" hissed Damonoff.

Original Poetry. |For the Democratic Watchman | The Victory of Farth. Sometimes I think I cannot have it so-'Can never with a Christian feeling how

And say "tis well " Then after a thick rain Of tears has soothed my aching heart and brain Londing me clearer sight of God's wise plan To build the aggel in the life of mun I take the cup its bitter portion drain And patient wait for subshine after rain "Tis hard to see our parthly joys go by-

But we who look for lasting love on high, And call our sorrows angels in the way To lift us nearly into fadoless day. Must bow in meekuess midst the thorny way, It is not long - and O, it Goal is good I will accept this chastening as a hand Reached down to lead me to the holy . trand-To check the current which too largely flows in earthly chaimeds turn its course towards the PORTSMOUTH, N. H. JLP

Miscellaneous.

The Gunmaker of Moscow.

Tale of the Empire under Peter the Grea CHAPTER I.

The time at which we open our story is midwinter, and towards the close of the seventeenth century. Russia is the scene. In the suburbs of Moscow, and very near the river Moskwa, stood an humble cot, Damoneff and his friend Stephen Urzen which betrayed a neatness of arrangement • I think I speak with B me Nevel," said and show of taste that more than made up the Count, moving forward for its smallness of size Back of the cot "You do," returned Rame, not at all surves an artisan's shop, and other out buildproved at the visit, since the people of all classes were in the habitiof calling at his ngs. The shop was devoted to the manufacture of fire-arms, mostly. Some swords and other edged weapons, were made here upon special application. The master of this tenent was the nero of our tale, Ruric Nevel. We find him standby his forge, watching the white smoke as it curled up towards the throat of the chimiev. He was a young man, not over three-ind-twenty, and possessed a frame of ino-e than ordinary symetry and muscular develmy wife pment. He was not large- not allove a mehum size -but a single glauce at the swellthis information, su ?" he as of ng chest, the broad shouldcast, and the sinwy ndges of the bare arms, told at once that he was master of great physical power. I will explain." The Count spoke this as

His father had been killed in the late war with the Turks, and the son, leaving his nother with a sufficiency of sustenance, went to Spain soon after the bereavement --There he found work in the most noted armories; and now, well versed in the trade, I love her, and must have her for my wife he had returned to his native city to follow his calling, and support his mother. Near by stood a boy Paul Peepoft age, who had bound himself to the gunmak | full will as I know, and as all or st know, thinks in this subtle mainer to naike me an | At leightly strick upon the river, and er for the purpose of learning the art. Claudia Nevel, Rurie's mother, was a no-

-gloved with the softest! fur -and having | overlook your plebeian stock." And with this he turned Away. led the invisible applicant into the hall he "Paul," said the gunmaker, turning to ranged. losed the door, and then led the way to the kitchen. Without speaking, Rurie turned his boy, after the men had gone, "not a and gazed upon the new comer. The stran word of this to my mother. Be sure." ger, who was equally desirous of ascertain-On the following morning, as Runce was ing what manner of man Ruric wat, was a preparing for breakfast, he saw Olga, the monk-and habited something like one of Duke, pass by, and strike off into the Boro dino road. New, thought he, is the time to the Black months of St. Mitchael. Ile was of medium height, and possesesd a rotunal ty of person which was comical to behold At length, after warming himself by the He dressed well, and no tann in Moscow had fire, the guest asked if he could be a comdated with some sleeping plaze, and being answered in the affirmative, Riffic showed him to a chamber and then retired himself. The next morning, after breakfast, the partment ; of the palace of the Dake of Tula Monk went with Rurie to his shop, and exammed with much interest the various wea pons therein Rarie questioned him closely as to whether he had ever met him before. but the Monk replied evasively, and after saying that in case the gunmaker should ever, in any great cinergency, need a friend that he should apply to him, he took his lear Towards the middle of the afternoon, just place to order arms.

womler

at ind Valdar (1) he said

++ I am," answered Rubie, nov and love were the true elements of her is Ruric had fluished tempering some parts soul. of a gun-lock, the back door of his shop was " How now, Zenobie ! 'asked Rosalind, as her waiting maid entered opened, and two men sater. d They were young men, dressed in costly furs, and both "There is a gentleman below who would of them stout and good looking. The gunec you, ' the girl replied. maker recognized them as the Count Conrad

"Then tell him I cannot see him," said Rosalind, trembling "But it is Rurie Nevel, my mistress

Rurie '' exclaimed the fair mailen, starting up, while the rich blood mounted to has come. My prayers are surely answer ed Lead him lither, Zenobie " You are acquainted with the Lady Ro-The girl departed, and ere long alterward Rurne entered the apartment. He walked quickly to where Rosalind had arisen to her feet, and taking one of her hands in both "Well, sir," resumed Damonoff, his own he pressed it to his lips. It was can baquinkly and salisfic brilly settled. It of his sout became calm at length, and then Nue dout. to my desire to make the Luly Risalm I he recured Rosalind's promise that the Rune was aiready would never primit her hand to be disput of " And why have you come to n + with to another by the Duke of Tula. Rane in- upon his face formed her of the visit of Count Damonoff and drew her to his bosom God blyss you, my mother of shall come " Rurie Nevel you shall not say that I did to his shop, its purpose and the result back " He said this, and then he kissed not make invself (all) understood, and henca | Rosalind was astonished and alarmed. Still, she could not believe that the Dake meant her speaks a man who feels that he is doing a He dared stop to speak no more, but to be tow her hand upon Damonoff. The opened the door and passed out very condescending thing, and in the same Duke owed him money, she sud, and inight, "Have you a good weapon I" asked Orsa. tone proceeded . . . The fady Revalued is of perhaps be playing with the Court Rune started as a new suspicion flashed noble parentage and very available My as the horse started on "I have." Rund said ometly : thand one own station and wealth are equal with here apon him Had the Duke sent Damonoff upon that mission to purpose to get him thio swords will bear " And after some further I have been to see the noble Duke, her guar- a quartel "Aye" thought the youth to huaself ... the Duke knows that I have remarks he related the peculiar eircnin-tan + Being possessed of these facts he stated dian and he objects not to my suity. But he taught the sword play, and he knows that accountending the insking of the sword, and them to his wife on Saturday night. She toward the club, and thew something at informed me if at there was one impediment > that she could never because your wife : but [instrument for ridding hum of a plague ] ] yet he is an tions not to manfine too But the youth was careful not to let Rosa- pointed spot. The day was beautiful. much against her own inclinations. So a lind know of this He thought she would They had been upon the ground but a few simple denial from you, to the effect that be unhappy if she knew that a duel was minutes when the other party came in sight off hate an here if and the and the land of the

> > Count

"I should be pleased to have you do so," | member and ask for the New York [Ledger ] you must do nothing to destroy that possithe gunmaker replied ; and thus it was ai- of March 19, and in it you will get the con- bility - You may be mistaken in your belief tinuation of the story from where it leaves that it is known to the whole city." He instantly replied, "No, no, my friend-

On the following morning Rurie was up off here. If you cannot get a copy at any betimes, and at the breakfast table not a book store, the publisher of the ladger will I am not ! It is already the town talk !? mail you a copy on the recupt of five word of the one all-absorbing theme was uttered After the meal was finished the guncents The Ledger is mailed to subscribers at maker went out to his shop, and took down mel tauched the point. The links steel sprang back to i s plice with a sharp clang better

Linde ble that ?"

from one of the closets a long leathern case, $2 a year, or two copies for $3 Address n which were two swords. They were Toyour latters to Robert Bonner, publisher, ledo blades and of most exquisite workman- 44 Ann street, New York. It is the hand, the clab house opposite," and what surprissomest and best family paper in the country, ed him very much was that his wife strongship and finish. Rurie took out the heavtest, which was a two-edged weapon, with elegantly illustrated characterized by a high best evidence we can give of its merits. the Kerlin, within which the Duko resided. all his weight he bent the blade till the pom-

-----The Washington Trugedy.

and the texture was not started. Then he INING T OF SAMEEL P. BUTTERNOBTH ENC. struck the flat of the blade upon the anvil The following statement, concerning the with great force. The ring was sharp and recent tragedy has been made by Mr. But- purpase. clear, and the weapon remained unharmterworth. It furnishes a full and reliable "By St. Machael ' said the cummaker to history of all the cocurstances attending his boy, † Moscow does not contain another the unhappy occurrence ing proud, nothing haughty ; but gentleness blade life that. Damascus never saw "In conservence of orroneous and false statements which have appeared in the pub-

he press in relation to the death of Mi P "I think you are right, my master," the boy returned, who had beheld the trial of Barton Key, I feel it is necessary that J should state the facts, so far as I ar connecthe blade with 'unbounded admiration on sunday morning, about 12 o do k M morang, Batterworth what a free day we "But," he added, "could you not temper a ted with the accurrence

· Perhaps, if I had the steel. But I have I received, at the house of a friend with have ' it not The steel of these two blades came whom I was staying, a note from the Hon. manuth away '' which I showed to the swered, 'Yes, and he is quite unwill' I on - a ponderous, two handed affair, belong ing to a Bengal chieftain. The metal pos-{Hon Robert J. Walker and Senator Gwin. [then such.] Lain going up to see him : good esses all the hardness of the tinest razor, with whom I was then conversing I asked morning [ and turned to leave him. As I the heater of the note, who was there, and did so I say. Mr. Si kles for the first time with the elasticity of the most subtle spring My old master at Toledo gave me these as a substo my friends, " That can Mr. Sicklis after leaving the house, coming rapidly memento Were I to mention the sum of desire !" down Sixtaenth street, on the side next the

I immediately went to the house of Mr money he was once offered for the larges; me, you would hardly credit it '' Sickles On my arrival, I found Mr. Sickles it his hed room lying on his face on his to the club, when I heard Mr. Sickles ex-After this Rurie gave Paul a few direc pillow, overwhelmed with grief Some time Marin in a loud, once, "Ivey, you secondrel, ions about the work, promising to be back nu h hughtiness perhaps my business with difficulty he spoke But the emotions before night. Just then Orsa drove up to clapsed before I could obtain from him an you have dishonored my heuse you must account of the cause of his affliction. He die Ilis mother was in kept exclaiming "I am a dishonored and ruthe kitchen . He went to her with a smile ined man and cannot look you in the face ! He put his arms about her Finally he disclosed the b llowing circum stances On Friday, Mc Sickles received an anony mous l-tter, stating that his wife was in the habit of meeting Mr. P. Parton Key, at a collar of his coat, and seemed to make an house on Fifteenth street, in the negro neigh- effort to strike with something in his right borhood. Through an agent, Mr. Sickles hand which I then supposed to be a weaphas ascertained that Mr. Key had rented a on Mr S. backed into the middle of the house in that neighborhood, and was in the habit of meeting a lady there, corresponding street, when he succeeded in extricating himwhich his scool more tests than most in dress and appearance to the wife of Mi self from Key's grasp, drew a motol from his overcoat pocket, and presented it at Key, Sa kley who retreated backward up Sixteenth street said at once that she perceived she was discovered," and thereupon made a fall con- in ten feet, fired I saw that Key was in hait an hour more, they reached the ap [fession of her guilt in writingwounded. He stargered towards the side-By this confession it oppeared that this walk, saying, "Don't shoot me !" He leanrimmal intercourse had been going on since [ed for a moment against a tree, when Siekfes advanced upon him, exploded a cao, and April, 1858 - sometimes in the absence of , at the house of her husband and then fired the third time Mr S

The Mail

Stuart's room, in the club house, and he may be able to inform mowhether. Key, has a from there, and far what purpose he ases. it " I assented, and walked out into the street, supposing that Mr. Sickles was following me. I left the house for this solo When I left Mr. S. in the half I am satis-

I then said wif that be so, there is but After a few moments silence, Mr. S., said that Le "was satisfied that key had been in ously donad this, though freely confessing one course left for you as a man of honor --

You need no advice 2 4

ANTA ST SOTA XDY ANTE VOLUME 1 .-- NUMBER 11

fied that he had no weapons on his person. He was without his overcoat. He said pothing to menhait weapons or the probability of encountering Key.

I walk d slowly down the avenue on the south side to the corner, and as I was crossing the street I sin Key advance a few steps trosponded, and said, "Have you come from the club C' He sail + I have."

square, and then near the cogner-

I had walk all about thirty fact or my way

I turacel immediately and saw K, thrus his hand in his yest of side (out pocket, and tile a step in the carection of Mr. Sickles, and simultaneously I heard the discharge of a justol. Key then iapidly advanced on Subles, seized him with his left hand by the Stekles Sakles followed, and when with-

1 4 11

ble set back, and shortly afterwards Paul reassured that Rosalind returned bis love .---

As he and his mother sat debating the mat-asked, as he opened the door, bowing his an darkness. "In God's name lot me in, or

" Then follow quickly," said Ruric .-

"Yes," returned a voice from the Stygi- encounter.

the outer door startled them.

ing snow with one hand.

atore, on Allogheny street Clocks, Watches and Jowelry neatly repaired and warranted Aug 12 '58 tf tired to his bed.

ADAM HOY, ATTORNEY AT LAW. BRLLEPONTE, PENN'A

RELEFOSTE, FENNA Will attend troumlib us all legal business intrasted twith. Epscial attention will be given to the Orphane Court Practice and Servenue, His office a with the Ifon James T Hale, where he gan always be consulted in the English and German become a habit with him of late. His mother having observed these fits of abstraction, became uncasy, and pressed Ruric to tell J H. STOVER,

ATTORNEY AND CUUNSELLOB AT LAW. HALLEFONTE, FENNA Will practice his profession in the several Courts (Centre County, All business intrusted to him man, and now the ward of Olga, the powerof Centre County, All business intrusted to him will be faithfully stiended to Particular attention ful and haughty Duke of Tula) he was thinkpaid to collections, and all monies promptly re-united Can be consulted in the Gorman as well lind, had been comrades in arms in their youth, and their children had been playmates. But when the older Nevel was slain in battle, Ruric was yet a boy, and the wid-

P. P. GREEN, DRUGGIST. BELLEFONTE, PA.' WHOLERALE VD RETAIL DEALER IN VERSIE VD RETAIL DEALER IN ow and her son remained poor and obscure ; WHOLERALE VAD BETAIL DEALER IN Brugs, Modicines, Porfumery, Pairits, Oils, Var ninhos, Dyo-Stuffa, Töilet Songa, Brugher, Hair and Tooth Bruthes, Banov and Toilot Articles, Trussels and Shaukles Brabes. Gardon Seeds Customers will find my took complete and fresh, and all sold at moderate prices. ESF Farmors and Physicians on the country are nvited to examine my stock while Valdai, more fortunate, had risen to and a fortune. The young people, however had not for-

DEPOSIT BANK, JAB. T. HALE A. G. CURTIN E. C.<sup>f</sup> Humes, H. N. MOALLISTEE. INTEREST PAID ON SPECIAL DEPOSITS.

RUMES, MCALLISTER, HALE & CO . BELLEFORTE, CENTRE CO., PA DRPOSITS RECEIVED BILLS OF EXCHANGE AND NOTES DIS-

COUNTED COLLECTIONS MADE, AND PROCEEDS RE

MITTED PROMPLY. INTEREST PAID ON SPECIAL DEPOSITS FOR NINETY DAYS AND UNDER SIX MONTHS AT THE RATE OF FOUR PERCENT PBE ANNUM-FOR SIX MONTHS AND UPWARDS, AT THE RATE OF FVE PER OENT FEB ANNUM. $ACHANGE ON THE EAST CONSTANTLY ON CONTACT ON THE SAST CONSTANTLY ON I shall perish."

. SAND

turning pale with rage. " Here it is sign ' Rurie drew his chair up close to the fire- If you would live'-sign !"

place, and leaning against the jam he bowed " Perhaps he cannot write," suggested his head in absorbing thought. This had Urgen contemptuously.

"Then be may make his mark," reported the Count, in the same contemptious tone. 11 might not require much more urging her what it was, over which he was so con- to induce me to make my mark in a manne stantly and moodily brooding. Being thus not all agreeable to you, sir," the youth reurged, Ruric confessed that it was of Rosa- torted, with his teeth now set, and the dark lind Vaklai (the orphan daughter of a noble- venns of his brow starting more planity out. afternoon, Rune, to his great surprise, learn Do you seek a quarrel with me f?

" Seek -1 seek what I will have Will you sign ?" "Ouce more -No !"

it is to thwart such as me! How's that ?" Runc's conduct. As they were talking, Ur-As these words passed from the Count's hps in a low, hissing whisper, he simed a the Count. Ruric at once referred him to his antagonist and said, blow with his fist at Ruric's head. The his friend, and he took his leave. high rank, and dying, left Rosalind a title gunmaker had not dreamed of such a dastardly act, and was not prepared for it .- drove up to Rurie's door, and young Oras-Yet he dodged it, and as the Count drew entered the house. He called Ruric aside, gotten each other. Ruric loved Rosalind beck, Ruric dealt him a blow upon the brow and informed him that the arrangements had with all the fervor of his being, and he felt that felled him to the floor like a dead ox. all been made. Damonoff is in a hurry," he said, " and " Beware, Stephen Urzen !" he whispered we have appointed the meeting at 10 o'clock to the Count's companion, as that individu ter on that stormy night, a loud knock st a made'a movement as though he would come forward. " I am not myself now, and the bend of the river just beyond the Viska " Is there any one here ?" the gunmaker your safest where you are." Hill."

The man thus addressed viewed the gun " And the weapons ?" asked Kuric. head and shielding his eyes from the driv- maker a few moments, and he seemed to "Swords," returned Orsa "The Count conclude that he had better avoid a personal moments in silence. His own face was thus far, and you may rest assured that I "Horo-give me your hand ... There-new deathly pale, and his whole frame quivered. shall be prompt."

> Conrad Damonoff slowly rose to his feet choose.

The youth found the thickly-gloved hand doned tono, " you will hear from me. I can you ?" suggested the visitor.

mout was there also racks in the Khitagorod, where he inquired was close at hand. "Aye " added Damondoff -- " Let us have twould snow no more for the present. The opened rt, he handed it towards the gunna- and as he met Ruffe his salutation was dinner. I done with Olga to-tay, and a > "Notice him not," whispered Orsa, who head and I knocked him down. You can and so unhinge your nerves > judge as well as I what the result may be " "Most surely he will challenge you," cried interior of the rough structure, and the the officer excitedly - -"So I think " resumed Rurie calmly.

And now will you serve me in the creat ?" sword Ruric followed his example .. With pleasure." Sir Count," the latter said, as he moved And thereupon Rurie related all that had step forward, "ere we commence this his shop, and then took his leave. He reached home just as his mother was spreading the board for dinner. He often ent away on business, and she thought not of asking him any questions. On questioning Paul, in the shop, ur the own head "

"Out, lying knave ----'' ed that the Black Monk had been there during his absence, to purchase a dagger , that count of the visit of Urzen and Damonoff. "Then, by heavens, you shall know what and that he seemed to be much pleased with to fight, do so honorably "

An angry reply was upon Damondoff's

That evening, about eight o'clock, a sledge length and weight as my own if you wish ric. "Then take your ground, ---- Are you to-morrow forenooir. It will take place at ready ?" "1 am!"

with a clear, sharp clang.

will bring his own, and he gives you the privilege of selecting such an oue as you and gazed into his antagonist's face a few "I thank you, Orsa, for your kindness

"Ruric Nevel," he said, in a hissing, mad | Suppose I call here in the morping for that at the con-inducement of the present As soon as the Count and his second and session of Congress, Mr. Key had reated an lamed . You villing, you have dishonnature Here it is only a plain, simple lence, Ruric took leave of Rosalind, and surgeen had arrived, and the horses had untenanted house on Fifteenth street, where ored my house, and you must die " He restance of part and the part of meeting frequent- inter of the second and any surgern had arrived, and the horses had the base of meeting frequent- inter of these words again while standing they were in the habit of meeting frequent- inter of these words again while standing the heat of the heat of the second that the heat of meeting frequent-

After he had apprised me of the finegoing | 1 took no part in the contest - 1 beheved facts, be consulted as to what course he sho d, them both to be armed. When I left Mr. to the voice of the storm. "I had hoped the boson of his marten doublet and having of the guard. The officer was quickly found, this business done, for I would be back to pursue I advised him to send his wife to Next's house I had no officer was quickly found. now near the close of the session it would Mr St.art I had no arms with me I did excite no remark that during the time in prelikasia that Mr. S. Mea intended to take "Never mind," said the dance, in an easy trustful tone, "it must dorm when it list-bith, and we can only thank Gol that we have t will as planty answer. I cannot sign Hie construction of the scale of meintime a separation could be acrangel be [squire, "lien Mr Keysalutel me I did tween buaself and wife, that I presumed not know that Mr. Sokks was approaching. Sever rear, answered the gunmaker the affor was known only to one or two perspiner did I see him until 1 turned to leave nons beyond mere surmise, and that for the Mr. Kuy. I did not see Mr. Sickles about my

Count three off his pelisse and drew his friends, this course should be pulsied outlact with his head or clothing

To this Mr. Sickley replied, 'My frient, 1 After the third fire, I advanced and took would gladly pursue this course, but so a. Mr. Sickley' arm, and walked with him up occurred at the time of the Count's visit to work I wish all present to undestand dis bandoned, so reckless, have Ker and my wife Sixteenth street, and advised him to go to tinetly how I stand. You have sought this been, that all the negroes in that neighbor. his house, or to the Attorney General's -quarrel from the first. Without the least hood, and I dare not say how many other He did so I returned to the scene and provocation from the you have insulted me persons, know all about the circumstan. picked up an opera glass from the middle of the street, and gave it to Mr. Sickles.

most grossly, and this is the climix. So, ces before God and man, be the result upon your 1 then left M<sub>1</sub> S in his bed-room, and on This is the whole of my connection with going down stairs I met, in the library Mr. this unfortunate occurrence. It is not true George B Wooldrige, a clerk of the House that I cither sought or ditained Mr Key .-

"Hold," cried the surgeon, laying his of Representatives. I said to him, "This is He first addressed me, and our interview hand heavily upon the Count's arm "You's terribe affair." He then handed me the dri not last one minute I have known the he had drawn out of the boy a n.inuto ac- have no right to speak thus, for you lower written statement made by Mrs. Sickles of late Mr Key in New York and in Washingyourself when you do it. If you have come her guift, which was written and signed as I ton during the list ten years, and our relawas then informed, by Mrs. S., in the pres- tions have ever been of the most friendly ence of two females, and witnessed by them. character. I did not anticipate a collision zen called and presented a challengo from lips, but he did not speak it. He turned to I read the statement, laidet down on the ta- on the Sabbath, though I did not doubt but ble, and said, " I will go down town for that it-would take place at an early day" may be a mite the longest. I seek no ad ted Mr. Wooldridge to say so to Mr. S. if ho Hon Robert J. Walker, Senator Gwin of vantage; and I have one here of the same should inquire for me. -Cahfornia, and Mr. Woldridge, a clerk in I immediately left the house, and walked to the club on Sixteenth street, drank a the House of Representatives. "I am well satisfied is it is," replied Ru- glass of ale with a friend, and slowly returned to the house of Mr. Sickles. On entoring the library again Mr. Wool. dridge informed me that Key had twice passed the house during the morning and The two swords were crossed in an instant | had a short time since waved his handker.

chief three times as a signal. While in conversation with Mr. Woold-The above is all of this story that will be The above is all of this story that will be While in conversation with Mr. Woold, years of ago, when she was bat sizeen..., published in our columns. We give this as indge, Mr. Sickles came into the library, and The girl, however, appears to be satisfied sample. The continuation of it from said that he had "scon the scoundrei making where it leaves of here can only be found signals," and he added, "My fred ! this is n the New York Ledger, the great family horrible !!!

in the county contribute, and which is for and look this matter square in the face. If if he had been created first he would have sale at all the stores throughout the city there be a possibility of keeping the certain annoyed the Almighty by endicas suggesand country, where papers are sold. Re knowledge of this crime from the public, tions of improvement.

MRS. LEE, an aged lady, of Columbus, Ohio; a fow days since obtained a warrant for the arrest of a mulatto named William Foily, on the ground that he had destroyed with her doubtful colored husband.

paper, for which the most popular writers I said, "Mr. Sickles, you must be calm, was made after everyting else was, becau so her happiness, by marrying her daughter Mary Ann, a very pretty white girl, making an oath to the effect that the girl was eighteen

It is said that the reason why the Yapkce