DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT,
OF PHILADELPHIA, PA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,
JOHN ROWE,
OF FRANKLIN, PA.

☞ The extreme length of the proceedings of the Democratic State Convention has crowded out our usual variety Next week we shall endeavor to make up the deficiency.

Our Candidates.

It is gratifying to see the universal favor with which the nominations of the Democratic State Convention are received. Even our political opponents are forced to confess that they are gentlemen of high qualifications and unimpeachable integrity. We shall take an early opportunity to refer to Mr Wright and Major Rowe at length, and point out the peculiar qualifications which they possess for the positions of Auditor General and Surveyor General The Harrisburg Union thus speaks of them:

"The candidates nominated by the Democratic Convention are men of the most unexceptionable character and standing Richardson L Wright, who was nominated for Auditor General, upon the first ballot is well known to the Democracy of Pennsylvania He has represented the city of Philadelphia in the House of Representatives, during several sessions and is now a member of the Senate As a legislator he has earned a high reputation by strict attention to business, vigilance in the discharge of his duties, and unbending integrity. He belongs to the radical Democratic school and has upon all occasions raised his voice against granting exclusive corporate privileges without being awed by the sneers and taunts of those who pursue a contrary policy He would make an excellent Auditor General and prove a worthy successor of Jacob Fry, Jr

"John Rowe is our candidate for Surveyor General He now fills that office and so much to the satisfaction of the Democracy, that they have determined to continue him for another term He was nominated by acclamation and will stand on this contest with the Democratic party upon the Democratic platform and under the Democratic organization"

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

DIRECTORS OF THE ALMSHOUSE Last Friday Dr Lee, as appointed notwithstanding the rain and the weather and in the evening in accordance with a previous announcement, the ceremony of dedicating the armory took place Adjutant General Willson was expected to be present, but failed to make his appearance A number of prominent men were in attendance among whom the ladies found the most prominent and interesting feature The Brass band enlivened the occasion with excellent music The officers of which we had before called together, with ladies and Capt Curtin who expressed much regret that the Adjutant General had failed to take part in the proceeding Hon James Burnside being in the house was called on and responded in a short and patriotic speech Hon James T Hale was also in attendance and in compliance with a motion to that effect addressed the Fencibles in a very appropriate little speech The Captain being repeatedly called, declined speaking, but made some very humorous remarks in the course of which he ordered a charge upon the table Of course the patriotic spirit of the Fencibles did not in the least abate on receiving this command, and the collation prepared was attacked with a bravery which would have done honor to any warlike contingency After partaking of the refreshments many of the people repaired to their homes In a little while, the sweet vibrations of the violin fell in most acceptable profusion upon the ear, and the deeples of Terpsicore were soon engaged in "tripping the light fantastic toe" to the music The scene was one of animation and gayety The best of social feeling prevailed until a late hour, when the company dispersed, no doubt long to remember the pleasing incidents of the Armory Dedication of the Bellefonte Fencibles.

The following letters, from gentlemen invited to be present at the Dedication have been handed us for publication

HEAD QUARTERS, 3d BRIGADE, 14th DIVISION, P. M., March 10, '59

GENTLEMEN:—Your polite invitation to myself and Mrs. B. to be present at the Dedication of the Armory of the Bellefonte Fencibles, has just been received I assure you that it would afford me great pleasure to accede to your request, but a previous appointment made for that day, which cannot be postponed, requires my attention, and will, I trust, be sufficient excuse for denying myself the pleasure of meeting my military friends. The Bellefonte Fencibles, in the Dedication of an Armory to improve themselves in military science, connected with general and polite literature, will, I have no doubt, also dedicate their corpse to the service of our common country, and by their future correct military deportment, of which we have a sure guarantee from their hitherto praiseworthy efforts, to elevate and sustain the character of the citizen-soldier, hold themselves in readiness to do active service, in defence of the rights of that country should she hereafter require them. Hoping that you may have a pleasant time on the occasion, I remain Respectfully

Your ob't servant,
GEO. BUCHANAN, Brig. Gen.

BRIGADE INSPECTOR'S OFFICE, March 10, 1859.

GENTLEMEN:—It is impossible, at this time, to be present at the Dedication of the Armory of the Bellefonte Fencibles. It makes me feel badly to think that I have received so many invitations from the military of Centre county but could only comply with few. The Fencibles, in particular, is a company I respect and honor for the good feeling they showed towards us at Camp.—I shall never forget them as long as it consists of such noble hearted men. Sickness prevents my being with you on this occasion My respects to your commander, and hoping that I may have the pleasure of meeting you at some future time, I remain, Fellow soldiers,

Your ob't servant,
J. H. TOLBERT, B Inspector,
2nd Brigade 11 Div. P. M.

JERSEY SHORE, March 17, 1859

GENTLEMEN:—Your polite invitation to be present at the opening of the Armory of the Bellefonte Fencibles was duly received. I regret exceedingly that engagements at home compel Mrs Howard and myself to forego the pleasure which, we doubt not, all who have the good fortune to be present, will enjoy I am, gentlemen,

Your with much respect,
W. W. HOWARD,

To E. M BLANCHARD, JAS A BEAVER, CHAS. H. HALE, } Com of Arrangem't

LETTER OF INVITATION. The following letter, from the friends of Col W. W. Brown has been handed us for publication

MESSRS EDITORS:—We, the undersigned young men and citizens of Bellefonte, respectfully suggest that our fellow townsman, Col W. W. Brown deliver his address, subject, "The Young Men of America," before the people of Bellefonte and the surrounding country generally say on Wednesday evening of the April court The subject is an appropriate one, and the Col., should he comply with the above request, (which we hope he will) will no doubt acquit himself in his usual happy, logical and oratorical style We propose that the orator deliver a FREE lecture that all (especially the young men) who may wish to be present on the occasion, whether with or without money, may be enabled to attend

The lectures thus far, delivered before the Fencibles, with the exception of the one given by Col Curtin, have been delivered by men from abroad—all having been pay lectures All right, and this gallant company deserves the thanks of the community for thus procuring the services of speakers so eminently calculated to please, as well as instruct their hearers But while we give our hearty assent to the procuration of men from home by the Fencibles, to lecture before the good folks of Bellefonte and the surrounding neighborhood from time to time, we are decidedly in favor of encouraging home talent and home speakers For this reason we ask Col Brown to deliver said address at the time and place before mentioned let us hear from you soon Mr Democrat.

CONCERT AT AARONSBURG. The concert at Aaronsburg on Friday evening 18th inst., was a grand affair so far as the performance in vocal and instrumental music was concerned The audience was larger than was expected from the fact that the weather was very unfavorable Rained hard during the afternoon and evening and the wind blew fiercely which kept hundreds, who had intended being present at home The classes particularly, were the Spring Garden, Aaronsburg Primary part of the Penn, Circle's classes assisted by the Aaronsburg Choir, and String Band, all under the direction of J. G Meyer, to whose success as a music teacher, those classes owe their proficiency in the art of music

The pieces performed by the Spring Garden class, were received by the audience with the greatest delight Their "Escape from the City," and the Anthem, were among the best performances of the evening, and they have gained themselves quite a reputation by the admirable manner in which they carried through their various pieces

Those prepared by the choir are equally worthy of notice This old association can produce as good vocal music as any other of the kind in central Pennsylvania. Many others that were performed by the choir were "Thinking of Thee," "Pauper's Drive," "Dear Kate," "What is Home without a Mother," &c., and will be long recollected by the audience.

The instrumental music was charming—The String Band is composed of persons who understand music and who have had a good deal of practice. Their Schottishes, Waltzes, Polkas &c., were performed in perfect style.

Addresses were delivered by Dimm, and Rev. Edwards. The former read an original poem, which, for its excellence has been rarely excelled. The classic references were so beautifully interwoven and comprehensible, as to elicit the admiration of all who were present. Rev Edwards spoke in German, his subject was "Music," and was very appropriately discoursed.

SPECTATOR

LECTURE.—The lecture of the Rev. Ph. Heyden, D. D., took place on the 17th inst., in the Court House, as previously announced. A large audience was in attendance.—The speaker was introduced by the Hon. James Burnside. His remarks were confined to St. Patrick and the conversion of Ireland from paganism. The venerable father was liberal in his opinions, and extremely cautious in his remarks. He designed nothing should be construed in the light of giving offence. His lecture was eloquent, logical and instructive, and evinced a sincere desire to propagate the principles of his divine Master.

NEW GOODS.—A new and full supply of cases just received at the Arcade Ambrotype and Daguerrean Gallery of J. S. Barnhart.

NEW BOOK STORE By reference to another column it will be seen that Messrs Samuel Swartz & Co., have opened a Book and Stationary Store on Bishop Street—Give them a call.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We are informed that the Rev Otto, of the Catholic church, was seriously injured on last Sabbath, by being thrown from a fine Gens horse

COMMENDABLE.—The business of removing the rubbish from the streets, alleys and dwellings of citizens
