

THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

WELLSFONTE MAY 20, 1909.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

REMOVAL.—The Democratic Watchman Office has been removed to the two story frame building, opposite the dry goods store of Martin Stone, on Allegheny Street.

THE PHILIPSBURG AND TYRONE R. R.—We are pleased to learn that the Directors of this road have negotiated with the Pennsylvania Central Railroad on such conditions as will bring the enterprise to an early completion.

SMALL POX.—Much unnecessary alarm is manifested in the country in reference to the small pox prevailing in this place. The disease has not been spreading, and only a few cases exist.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—We notice quite an improvement at the Catholic Church. The parsonage has been repaired, a beautiful fence erected in front of it, and trees planted the whole length of the residence of Rev. Mr. Vondrogreen and the Church, which adds much to the appearance of that part of our town.

THE "BIG SPRING"—A new project has been introduced, and commends itself to the favorable consideration of our citizens. The large and beautiful spring which supplies this place with water, and from which it derived its name, is to be enclosed with ornamental iron fencing.

MILITARY PARADE.—On last Friday the Bellefonte Females and Centre Dragons turned out for drill and inspection. The weather being very favorable the soldiers enjoyed a good time, and the parade passed off with more than usual éclat.

DISORDERLY.—A few evenings since several young men of this place congregated together to enjoy the exceedingly pleasant pastime of getting drunk, and kicking up a "breeze" generally, to the great annoyance of sober and orderly disposed citizens.

THAT HAT.—The Senior has donned a new blueish bell crowned stove pipe hat. It is a most excellent institution in which to stow away Groundnuts and Ginger cakes. The Col. certainly knows how to appreciate its advantages.

A WHIP STOLEN.—The chap who stole a whip from a buggy in the yard of the Pennsylvania Hotel in this place, will please bear in mind that he is known. We politely admonish him to return the property to the proprietor, immediately, and save the charges, mortification and humiliation of an exposure.

AN ACCIDENT.—A span of horses belonging to May Wm. F. Reynolds, while driving into the country on last Sunday, accompanied by our friend Dr. G. Bush, Esq., became fractious and endeavored to run away.

ADMITTED TO PRACTICE.—We see by a Jersey Shore paper, that our friend Dr. G. Bush, Esq., has been recently admitted to practice law in the several counties of Lycoming county. From a long acquaintance with Mr. Bush we can recommend him as a lawyer of ability, and a gentleman of strict business integrity.

THOMAS BURNSIDE—JAMES PETERLIN—JAMES T. HALE.—The elder Judge Burnside presided in one of the Courts of Pennsylvania when the memorable case of Parsons vs. Parsons was on trial.

DEMOGRAPHIC STATE COMMITTEE FOR 1909.—CHURMAN—ROBERT TYLER. Philadelphia—Frederick A. Server, Stephen H. Horton, John H. Dolan, Morrison Foster, etc.

THE CASE OF PARSONS VS. PARSONS was brought by one brother against another, for the purpose of breaking their father's will, which cut off Abraham, the elder brother, without a cent, giving all the property to Samuel, the younger.

THE OPPOSING LAWYER jumped up and objected to the question. "It was of no consequence who was richer or who was poorer—it was a question of law."

ABRAHAM PLANTED HIS FEET, and, as he had done of old, he said to the jury, "I have a witness, and he is a witness to the fact that I am a witness."

INTEGRITY OF A GOOD NEW PAPER.—Show us an intelligent family of boys and girls, and we find a family where newspapers are plenty.

NEWSPAPER BOREDOM.—A M.S. with a layan proverbial, "When I can't get on with my wife, I go to the paper."

MILITARY EXERCISES.—In another column will be found an official notice for a military election to be held on the 20th proximo.

REX OFF.—A team of horses which had been left standing on the street one day last week very carelessly, became frightened, ran off, and destroyed nearly an entire panel of the beautiful iron fence in front of the Court House.

A NEW CANAL BOAT.—A new Canal Boat is offered for sale, and a credit of five years will be given. The boat is new and got up in good style.
