

THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN. BELLEFONTE JUNE 9, 1859.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EAGLE GUARDS—We had the pleasure of visiting Zion on last Saturday, where it had been announced that the 'Eagle Guards' would be organized. We found the military in attendance waiting the usual formation on such occasions. The Guards are commanded by Capt. Henry L. Barnhart, who has been indefatigable in his exertions to place the company under permanent organization. They are a fine, brave, warlike set of soldiers, and bids fair ere long to become one of the first military companies in Central Pennsylvania. The Eagle Guards are certainly one of the fixed institutions of the country, and it is just upon such men as compose it, that we must rely when urgent necessity calls loudly for the honor of our country to be vindicated.

After the formality of organizing had been gone through with, Col. Austin B. Snyder of this place took charge of the company, and the drill exercise. The Col. truly has a very natural faculty of playing soldier, and on this occasion acquitted himself in a manner worthy of a little commendation.

DOLL AND MORRISON'S Commercial College in the Academy of this place has been now in operation about one month and is in a prospering condition. Any young man can obtain a full course of instruction, embracing the following branches: for twenty-five dollars—Single and double entry of Book Keeping, whole sale shipping and forwarding business, Banking, railroad and steam boat, and business correspondence, generally taught in all its various branches. The students can enter the School at any time, are taught separately and can remain under tuition until they graduate. A course of this kind is of great importance, in fact its advantages cannot be easily over-estimated.

MILITARY ELECTION. The following is the result of the election for Regimental Colonel and Brigade Inspector so far as heard from:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Position, Votes, and Rank. Includes names like Balle, Fenebies, 61, Centre Dragons, 27, Myron Infantry, 19, Wash n. Artillery, 20, Eagle Guards, 31.

Mr. Esenbuth had 23 votes in the Washington Artillery.

We will publish the officers elected in the different companies if sent to us.

OUR FELLOW TOWNSMAN, Doct. Gen. L. Potter, met with a serious accident on last Saturday on the road between here and Zion. It appears that a fractious horse became unmanageable and on running up an embankment, threw the Doctor from the saddle, in which he was riding, upon his head, inflicting a very serious wound. He was rendered insensible for a considerable time and found in that condition by a gentleman, who brought him along to this place. We are glad to state that the Doctor has so far recovered from his mishap as to be able to move about again.

SEVERE FROST. On last Saturday evening one of the most severe frosts for the season occurred, which has been experienced in this locality for many years. In fact frost don't convey the idea, it was a regular built 'freezer', cutting down garden vegetables, fields of corn and damaging the wheat and rye crops to a very material extent. The fruit has been seriously injured. We saw ice frozen to the thickness of half an inch. How vegetation should escape without sustaining even greater injury is indeed marvellous.

CAPT J. M. McCoy. On Monday evening the Centre Dragons accompanied by the Bellefonte Brass Band proceeded to the residence of Doct. J. M. McCoy and formally announced that he had been elected Captain of the company. After the Band had spent a pleasant time serenading the Doctor, it proceeded to Milesburg accompanied by the military, and returned to Bellefonte the same evening. We congratulate the Centre Dragons on the acquisition of so worthy an officer.

The Messrs. Loeb's inform us that they purchased a steer of Jno. M. Furry of Nittany Valley, two years and six months old, which weighed sixteen hundred and ten pounds. We will wager our reputation that he can't beat in Centre county.

Philadelphia Markets.

THURSDAY, June 7th.—The foreign news has made a further decline, and there is more gloom in the market, and we have to notice a continuance of the apathy which has marked the course of the trade for some time. The receipts of Flour continue small, and holders are generally firm in their demands, but there is very little shipping demand, and sales are confined to 500 barrels extra family on private terms, and small lots for the supply of the home trade at $6 75 a 124, for common good superfine at $7 25 a 7 62 1/2 for extra, and $7 50 up to $8 50 for extra family and fancy brands. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are exceedingly quiet. We quote former at $4 50 and latter at $4 per barrel.

GRAIN.—The demand for Wheat continues steady, and a further decline, and there is more gloom in the market, and we have to notice a continuance of the apathy which has marked the course of the trade for some time.
