THE WATCHMAN.

S. W. SHULL & JOS. S. HAMAKER, EDITORS

BELLEFONTE PENN'A

THURSDAY, JUNE 23, 1859

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL.

RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT,

OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

JOHN ROWE,

OF BEDFORD.

The First and Last Napoleon in Italy

On the second of May, 1859 Napoleon the Great set out from Paris to take the command of the Republican forces in Italy. He crossed his march across the Alps by the 10th of May, and on the 17th of that month he was at Milan. On the 24th of May, Alessandria was occupied by the French army. Piacenza, Lodi, Crema, Brescia, Bergamo, Milan, Monza, Como, Lecco, Varese, Novara, Vercelli, Casale, Alessandria, Voghera, Tortona, Pavia