THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

BELLEFONTE AUGUST 4, 1859.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

GRATUITOUS ADVERTISING.—There is no class of men under the canopy of Heaven, says the Daily Patriot and Union, that are "bled more than the publishers of newspapers. If a Fourth of July celebration is to be got up, the editor is called upon and asked to put in a little notice, stating that the thanks of the community are due to John Jones the enterprising peanut dealer and balloon maker, for his patriotic efforts in getting up the celebration. A town meeting is called and it is resolved that a grand display of fire-works is to take place. Jones is appointed chairman of the Committee of Arrangements. The proceedings are published gratuitously. Jones furnishes the fire-works and makes a profit—another notice of that from the printer without pay. A collection is taken up to pay for the fire-works, and the printer is called upon to head the list. He gives a dollar. Bill Smith gives five dollars—another puff for the liberality of Smith who, by the way, keeps a hotel, and the fire works are to explode in front of his house—Brown gives two dollars—Brown keeps segars for sale, and they must be puffed. Everybody that contributes is considered clever fellows, names appear in print, they feel proud. Some people say the editor is stingy, he only gave a dollar and yet he makes a great fuss in his paper, and ought to give as much as anybody.

Well, let's look at the subject. Jones gives five dollars, and makes fifteen profit on the sale of fire works; Smith gives five dollars, and makes twenty five on his whisky; Brown gives two dollars and doubles his money on the extra sale of segars; the editor gives one dollar, and how does he get his money back? Nary a get but after the affair is over he counts up what the composition has cost him, to set up the posts &c., relating to the celebration and he finds that he is twenty or thirty dollars out, just for composition, without receiving one cent for the use of material or his brains. This is no fancy sketch, but plain, honest truth, and every editor in the country knows it.

HOW YOU MAY KNOW GOOD FATHERS.—It is a good sign and true when you see, says an exchange, amid a little group of boys, one dart from the rest, and tossing his arms above his head, shout, "There's my father!" as he runs to meet him. You may be sure no matter what business troubles soever that man may have that there is a spot in his heart still fresh and green, which the cares of this world has had no power to blight.—"There's my father!" With what a pretty pride the little fellow shouts this! He must be indeed a brute, whose fatherly heart does not swell with love, whose eyes do not glisten, who does not, at such a moment feel amply repaid for that day's toil, no matter how wearisome. After all, Love is the only thing worth having in this world.—They who stand over life's grave tell us so. Fame, money, and ambition dwindle to nothing beside the white, calm brow of death, though God knows it may be but the youngling of the flock, whose lips have never even learned to syllable our name.

LOCK HAVEN AND TYRONE R. R.—The following item in regard to the above road, we clip from the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian:

"In the Superior Court of New York on Tuesday, an order was granted by Judge Clerke on application of J. D. and T. D. Sherwood, Agents of the Tyrone and Lock Haven Railroad Company, against Allen Schenck, holding the defendant to bail in the sum of $150,000. The plaintiffs' affidavits allege that the defendant obtained possession of $175,000 of the bonds belonging to plaintiffs for $175,000 of the bills of the Southern Bank of Georgia on a representation that said bank was good and solvent. The plaintiffs assert that the bills are worthless and that the bank is insolvent. The defendant was arrested by the Sheriff."

A DAUGHTER of Sheriff McCoy, reads the Bruchter through every week, and can inform her father of its contents as readily as though it were in the vernacular. This is an accomplishment of which few young ladies can boast, and Miss McCoy's knowledge of German is of ten-fold more advantage to her than a study of all the dead languages that ever had an existence.—Centre Reporter.

True, every word of it, and there is no danger of her ever becoming a Black Republican as long as she is a reader of that paper.

BELLEFONTE FENCIBLES.—This company turned out on last Saturday evening, for public parade, and for a time was the object of much commendation from our citizens.—Young America evidently enjoyed the fun exceedingly; while every body (judging from their countenances) manifested the apparent consciousness that our "lives, our fortunes and our sacred honors" were safe so long as we have such a well disciplined and formidable array of soldiers to protect them.

It will be seen by the news from Mifflin county that a Military Encampment is to be held in Lewistown, to commence on the 19th day of September next. We hope the whole Centre Brigade will be present. The Fencibles have expressed a preference for this Encampment.

CAMP MEETING.—The M. E. Camp Meeting of the Bellefonte Circuit will be on the old ground near Mechanicsville. It commences on Friday, the 12th inst. A large number of eminent ministers are expected to be present.

JUDGE GAMBLE.—The Bellefonte Press finds great fault with Gov. Packer for having appointed Hon. James Gamble, President Judge of that district, and contends that the appointment should have been given to McManus of that place or Mr. Beardsley of Lock Haven, who, the Press says, are qualified for the position. We have nothing to say in the matter as it is not in our district, but it is perhaps, proper to state, that the President Judge of this district, (Judge Jordon,) before whom Mr. Gamble has practiced, entertains a very different opinion in regard to Mr. Gamble's fitness for the Bench, and that the late Judge Burnside himself, co-incided in that opinion. We have known Mr. Gamble many years at the Bar and out of it and shall be greatly disappointed if he does not give entire satisfaction in his new position.—Sunbury American.

Philadelphia Markets.

The Flour market presents the quiet aspect which has marked its course for weeks past. Supplies come forward slowly, but there is little or no shipping demand, and the only transaction reported is 250 bbls fresh ground new Wheat, Brandywine at $5 75 per barrel. Small sales for the supply of the home trade at $5 for sound old stock, $5 25 a 5 75 for fresh ground, $5 25 up to $6 75 for extra and fancy lots according to quality. Rye Flour is dull and lower, sales still at $3 75, without buyers. Corn Meal has declined 12½ cents per barrel; a sale of 300 barrels Penna at $2,62½ and 250 bbls Brandywine, on terms kept private.

GRAIN.—There is less Wheat offering and holders are firmer in their views, but millers purchase sparingly in anticipation of increased receipts and lower quotations. small sales of Red at $1 20 a 1.26, and 800 bushels prime White at $1 33 per bushel. 400 bus old Penna Rye sold at 79 cents, which is a decline of one cent. Corn is in fair request and 5 000 bushels yellow sold at 80 cents, afloat. Oats are dull, a sale of Penn at 36 cents per bushel, and 1000 bushels new Delaware at 30 cents.

Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

Whenever the above preparation is known, it has been well established as an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Breast, Croup, Whooping Cough and every form of Pulmonary Complaint. That it merits a world of support, is the desire of its manufacturers, and the gratitude of thousands who have been restored to health by its use, is the natural result.

Discovered by a well known physician more than twenty years since, and ever since, in all cases where it has effected cures, constantly appearing to public favor until it has now attained a reputation and sale unbounded, and is known wherever civilization has penetrated. Many of the most eminent physicians in the country, who have been restored to health by its use, are the warmest friends of the remedy which has proved so efficacious in curing.

Sir James Clarke, Physician to Queen Victoria has given the following certificate:

CONSUMPTION CANNOT EXIST.

The whole history of Medicine fully confirms the opinion of that eminent man. Thousands can testify and millions will, that when all other remedies had failed, they completely cured, that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has afforded immediate relief, that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to cure a slight Cold or a Confirmed Consumption and its power to effect certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual results, cannot be equalled.

The only genuine has the written signature of I. BUTTS as well as the printed name of the proprietor upon the wrapper.
