THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

BELLEFONTE AUGUST 25, 1859.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

TO THE GIRLS.—Here is a paragraph of plain talk to the girls, by an anonymous author, which is worthy a library to Young Ladies' Friends, or whatever may be the title of the wishy-washy compounds that are sold for the benefit of that interesting portion of the community: Men who are worth having, want women for wives. A bundle of gew-gaws bound with a string of flats and quavers, sprinkled with cologne and set in a carmine saucisse—this is no help for a man, who expects to raise a family, no veritable bread and meat. The piano and lace frame are good in their places, and so are ribbons, trills and tinsels, but you cannot make a dinner of the former, nor a bed-blanket of the latter. And, awful as the idea may seem to you, both dinner and bed-blankets are essential to domestic happiness. Life has its realities as well as fancies; but you may make it a matter of decoration, remembering the tassal curtains, but forgetting the bedstead. Supposing a man of good sense, and of course good prospects, to be looking for a wife—what chance have you for to be chosen? You may cap him, or you may trap him, but how much better to make it an object for him to catch you.—Render yourself worth catching, and you will need no shrewd mother or brother to help you to find a market.

HON. JAMES GAMBLE.—This gentleman is now engaged in holding Court in this place. This is his first appearance among us in his judicial capacity, and the manner in which he is discharging his duty has won for him a host of friends. His address to the Grand Jury on Monday, in relation to the unlimited license of the Hon. James Burnside, evinced an ability of superior order, and a depth of feeling worthy the commendation of all. On Monday evening he was serenaded at his quarters at the Conrad House, by the Bellefonte Brass Band, where he entertained many of his personal and political friends. Next week we shall endeavor to give a more extended notice of this gentleman, being prevented on the present occasion by the urgent duties upon us during Court week.

Hon. A. G. Curtin read some resolutions and a short biographical sketch of the life of our late Judge, with some appropriate remarks, which were ordered to be placed upon the records of the County. We did not have the pleasure of hearing them.

NEWSPAPER QUARRELS.—The New York Times, referring to the personal quarrels and petty bickerings in which some newspapers are prone to indulge, very justly remarks, "If editors choose to exhibit themselves in the character of game cocks, they may be always sure of a certain amount of admiring attention from a class of people of whom the Scriptures assure us that their nature cannot be expelled from them even by braying them in mortar. But the mass of the readers, whether they are of one party or another, have no interest in the merits of such controversies as these, and regard every line that is spent upon the rivalries, and petty jealousies, and imbecile quarrels of the journalistic world as a tacit insult to their own good sense, and a downright fraud upon their purses and their patience."

THE FRENCH ARMY are turning their swords and bayonets into plough shears and pruning hooks. The Minister of War, has issued to the Colonels of Regiments to disband a portion of the troops, so that they may be used by the farmers in reaping, sowing, ploughing, and mowing their lands. This is a good move; they had better be employed in cutting the crops, than in cutting the throats of their fellow unfortunates. It would go far towards civilizing and humanizing them, if their Emperor would cause them to doff their military costumes, and don civilian suits, such as are being made by Jno. Montgomery and Son, on Allegheny Street.

NO AND YES.—Learn to say "No" with decision whenever it meets a temptation; "Yes" with caution whenever it implies a promise. A promise given is a bond inviolable. A man is already of no consequence in the world when it is known that we cannot implicitly rely on him. I have frequently seen such a man preferred to a long list of applicants for some important charge; he has been lifted at once into station and fortune, merely because he has this reputation that when he knows a thing, he knows; and when he says he will do a thing he will do it."

We see by the Jersey Shore Vedette that Thos. Waddle, Esq., formerly of this County is nominated by the Black Republicans of Lycoming, for County Treasurer. We never liked Tommy's principles, but always liked the man. If a political opponent is to be elected in that County, we would rather see Mr. W. succeed than any man we know of—but are rather inclined to think he will get a "drubbing."

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—We learn that a young man who reports himself recently out of the Penitentiary, where it is said he has been confined for stealing Horses from a Mr. A. Custard, a few years since, endeavored on last Wednesday morning to commit suicide in the Rolling Mill of Irvin, Linn McCoy & Co. He did not accomplish his purpose, but succeeded in placing both arms between a large pair of shears while in motion, and before he could be prevented both were cut off below the elbow.

IRON! IRON!!—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that H. Bergstresser & Co., have repaired the works known as the Allegheny Forge, and are now prepared to manufacture all kinds of Iron. We are intimately acquainted with the different members of the firm, and have no hesitancy in recommending them to the public as industrious, honest and prompt men.—We wish to see them succeed.

A LUXURY.—Take a dozen or two of ears of corn, (the sweet varieties preferred,) husk and, without boiling, grate off the grains—Stir into this about two tablespoonsful of flour for every dozen ears, and also an egg previously well beaten, and a little salt and very little sugar. If the corn be sweet, about two tablespoonsful to every dozen ears. Let the whole be well stirred, and baked in a greased tin pan, for an hour, in a hot oven. Then eat with fresh butter or cream.

CAMP MEETINGS.—The camp meetings held in different parts of our county have been well attended, and we are informed that good order prevailed at all of them with a single exception. We regret to learn that the camp meeting held near the Farm School was seriously disturbed by some of the Students, a number of whom have been arrested. It is to be hoped that the reports circulated in regard to the conduct of some of the boys have been misrepresented.

UPWARD OF 300 of the graduates of the last year at the Iron City Commercial College have secured employment, receiving the first year from one to five hundred per cent. upon the investment made to obtain a practical business education. For full information, circular, Specimens of Business and Ornamental Penmanship and Embellished View of the College, inclose five letter stamps to F. W. JENKINS, Pittsburg, Pa.

LARGE PIGS.—Thomas Wolf, of Miles tp., killed on the 13th inst., six pigs, nine months old, that weighed together, when dressed, nineteen hundred and twenty pounds. If any of our farmers in the County can beat this we would like to hear of it.

AN impertinent scribbler in the Centre Democrat over the signature of a Lion Democrat, made a fling last week at the editors of this paper. Our only answer to his interrogatives is that we in no case reply to anonymous communications.

DOG DAYS.—We are now in the midst of the dog days, and the weather—cold nights and hot days—well, its too hot to write anything about it—"O for a lodge," &c.

Philadelphia Markets.

TUESDAY, Aug 23:—There is a steady demand for Quercitron Bark, with sales of 100 hhds. No. 1 at $23 per ton. A lot of Chestnut Oak sold at $11 per cord.

The Flour market presents no new feature—there being very little inquiry either for export or home consumption. The receipts, however, are small and prices remaining without change. A sale of 300 barrels fresh ground superfine was made at $5 37½ per barrel. Small sales to the retailers and bakers at $5 a 5 37½ for recently and fresh ground, and $5 25 up to $6 50 for extra and fancy lots, as in quality. Nothing doing in Rye Flour or Corn Meal, and holders ask $3 75 for the former, and $3 62½ for the latter.

Grain—There was more Wheat offering at the Corn Exchange and the demand being only moderate, holders found it difficult to obtain the extreme rates realized yesterday. Sales of 3000 bushels—mostly Southern—at $1 20 a 1 22 per bushel for good and prime Red, and $1 30 a 1 40 for White. 2000 bu., mixed Southern at $1 21 afloat. Rye is scarce and wanted. Sales of new Delaware at 70 cents, and old Penna. at 80 cents. Corn is selling forward more freely, with continues in fair request; 3500 bushels yellow, part in store, sold at 80 cents. Oats are steady at 34 a 35 cents per bushel for new, and 37 a 38 cents for old Penna.

In Provisions but little doing. Mess Pork is held at $15 a 15 50 per barrel; Hams command 12 a 12½ cents. Sides 9½ a 10 cents; Shoulders at 7½ a 7¾ cents; 60 days.

Whiskey is steady. Sales of Ohio bbls. at 27 cents, Pennsylvania do at 26 cents; hhds. at 25½ cents, and Drudge at 25 cents.

[From the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin]

Grape Culture at Hammonton.

A number of grape growers from Ohio have introduced the culture of the grape at Hammonton, New Jersey. It is twenty five miles south east from Philadelphia, and the soil and climate is considered by many the best adapted for the grape of any in the Union. Frosts never injure the vine, and there is a high district of land, between the little and the great Egg Harbor rivers, where they have never been known to suffer from mildew or rot. We understand that some vineyards were set out the past season, mostly Catawba and the Isabella.

The market here presents a great inducement, grapes bringing twice the sum they do in Cincinnati; being within but several hours of either New York or Philadelphia by railroad, the market is unlimited. Adjoining Hammonton is a bottle manufactory, and every appliance necessary for extensive wine-making.

Hammonton is a new, settlement but of marvellous growth, rivalling many of the Western towns in rapid increase. A little over a year ago the tract of land was opened to sale, and within that time the population has increased some 1500; over 300 buildings have been put up; stores, mills, schools, churches and every facility of an old place introduced. It was a portion of an old tract of land, which has been held for generations in one family, and is only now thrown in the market for sale.

Its proximity to market and advantages of climate insures its rapid improvement.—The soil is said to be early and very productive. The crops raised are excellent. Many persons from this State are going there, and we are sure it is much more desirable than many points at the West.

A Living Head on a Dead Body.

Mr. Archibald Campbell, a respectable farmer in the township of Camden East, while engaged in finishing a new dwelling on his premises, the scaffold gave way, and he was precipitated head foremost to the ground, and dislocated his neck; but very fortunately and mysteriously did not kill him. When his head was brought to its proper position, the vertebræ of the neck returned to their place with a dull but distinct snap. The whole body is paralyzed and dead from the neck downwards. He is not capable of moving or experiencing the slightest pain. Fortunately the nerves supplying the muscles used in respiration were not paralyzed, and he can breathe and live; had the injury of the spinal cord been a little higher, he would have died immediately. The sense of sight, hearing, smelling, &c., are normal, and his intellect is unimpaired.

When last heard from, however, there were some indications of a return of sensation and the power of motion, and it is just possible that Mr. Campbell may partially recover.—Newburgh (C. W.) Inder.

☞ Mons. Derate is having a dispute with Mons. Blondon, at Niagara. He offers to "fight Blondin on the rope, for $500."—This will draw a crowd should Blondin accept. The fight, we imagine, will result in one blow, one clinch and two drowns. The world moves.

A Woman Cowhiding a Man.

[From the Boston Herald, Aug. 16.]

Mrs. Frances Temple is pretty, energetic, and masculine. She resides in Boston, when at home, and has seen some twenty summers, not one of which has left a wrinkle upon her face. Mr. Russell R. Rogers makes his bread by kneading dough, in our neighboring city of Roxbury. In other words, he is a baker, has married a second wife, and has a large family of children. One of Roger's sons married a sister of Mrs. Temple, so that the reader will perceive that the quarrel is all in the family. Mr. Rogers is not a discreet man, apparently.

Yesterday afternoon she procured a new cowhide, an extra quality of crinoline, and a seat in a Norfolk House car. She went to Roxbury. She arrived safe, and walked up and down Dudley street several times, until she espied her intended victim. He had just left his residence, No 11 Lambert street, and probably was thinking of hoops, when he was startled by a fire in his rear. He turned, and before him stood Frances Temple with a cowhide in her hand! It did not remain idle. Blow after blow fell upon his face, neck, and other parts of his person.—He made one attempt to grasp the instrument of punishment, but her remarks were short and emphatic, as she eluded his hands. Her words were, "No you don't;" and he didn't. He turned and fled for the police station, under the City Hall. She gave chase, and by carrying more sail, managed to keep with him, still making the cowhide do fearful execution. He bolted into the police office, and she followed him. He went round a long table at a 2.40 gait, but she was close on his heels all the time. Books and papers were swept to the floor, but still the race was continued, and the cowhide never stopped rising and falling, like the grand jewel of a Son of Malta in good condition. At length Deputy Marshal Hubbard cut red the room and laid his hand gently upon Mrs. Frances Temple's shoulder. For a moment he restrained her. Only for a moment, however. She broke away from him, and with a strong left hander, planted it full upon Mr. Roger's nose. The claret flew in all directions. She attempted to follow up the advantage with a stinger from her right, but it was neatly stopped by Hubbard, much to Mr. Roger's gratification. She requested Hubbard to form a ring, and give her fair play, but was denied. She was disarmed, and told her story. Mr. Rogers told his—Both parties were considered to blame for the disturbance, but Mr. Roger's declined to make a complaint.

THE PROPRIETOR of a snake show at Harrisburg, Pa., was bitten in the hand by one of his rattlesnakes. Alcohol was immediately administered. Three pints of whiskey and one of brandy were drank before intoxication appeared. The next morning he took a quart of whiskey, which intoxicated him. His hand and arm are still very badly swelled, but it is thought he will recover.

Dr Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Where the above preparation is known it is so well established as an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Breast, Croup, Whooping Cough, and every form of PULMONARY COMPLAINT, that it were a work of supererogation to speak of its merits.

Discovered by a well known physician more than twenty years since it has by the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly appreciating in public favor until its use and its reputation are alike universal; and it is now known and cherished by all (and their "name is legion") who have been restored to health by its use as the GREAT REMEDY for all the diseases which it professes to

Sir James Clark, physician to Queen Victoria has given it as his opinion that

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

The whole history of this Medicine fully confirms the opinion of that eminent man. Thousands can testify, and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, it is completely cured, that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has afforded immediate relief, that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, it has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to cure a slight Cold or a Confirmed Consumption and its power as a safe, certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy cannot be equalled.

The only genuine has the written signature of "I Butts" as well as the printed name of the proprietor upon the wrapper.

PATENT GLASS PRESERVING JARS

D. LEYDEN & CO have just received a large lot of Patent Glass Preserving Jars. These Jars are the only ones that have ever been made without a groove or recess on the inside from which it is impossible to expel the air. Hence quantity very inconvenient to clean them, but as these are perfectly plain and smooth on the inside as well as out, the above difficulties are entirely avoided. They are intended for preserving all kinds of Fresh Fruits, Vegetables, Mince Meat, Oysters, and all such perishable articles, and being made of glass their contents can be examined at any time without opening, as it is necessary to do with tin or earthen.

The season for preserving is now at hand and housekeepers would do well to provide themselves with the articles while in season.
