DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL.
RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT,
OF PHILADELPHIA, PA.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL.
JOHN ROWE,
OF FRANKLIN CO.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

PRESIDENT JUDGE,
HON. JAMES GAMBLE.

LEGISLATURE,
SETH BENNER.

TREASURER,
J. G. LAURIMORE.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
D. G. BUSH.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER,
DANIEL Z. KLINE.

AUDITOR,
PETER HOFFER.

COUNTY SURVEYOR,
GEN. GEORGE BUCHANAN.

The Judgeship.

We call the attention of our readers to the fair and candid report of Ira O. Mitchell, Esq. to the letter addressed by certain gentlemen to the Bellefonte Bar, inquiring relative to the expense of trying causes in which the President Judge is concerned. The experience and observation of all impartial men will confirm the view of this subject taken by Mr. M. Although Judge Burnside was on the Bench some six years, there are many causes in which he was concerned not yet disposed of. It is folly to endeavor to make the people believe that the judicial business of the County will be as expeditiously and economically transacted when we have to depend on the concurrence of Judges from other Districts, as if we had a Judge of our own who could perform all the duties. If such is the case, why elect a Judge at all? It would be much cheaper to hire one at five dollars a day to hold Courts than to pay $2000 a year to a gentleman who can not try one half of the causes for the next five years. Shall we elect Mr. Linn merely to please him and get some one else to hold our Courts?

Good News.

We are glad to find the efforts we have been making to arouse the Democracy of this section of the county - which in the late election of the party - have not been in vain. The Democracy have become aroused for, wherever we meet they tell us, "we will be at our post on the election day. That's the right kind of Democratic talk and feeling - and it is that kind of spirit which will lead us to a glorious victory and the redemption of our County. We are sure we will do our duty; will the Democracy of the other side give us a favorable response? We hope and believe they will. The good work goes bravely on. Hurrah for the triumph of Democracy in old Centre next October!"

Every day brings us additional news of the certainty of the election of the Democracy at a triumphant majority. From all parts of the County we continue to receive the most cheering and flattering accounts. But our friends will have to work - work in earnest and bring to the polls, the aged, the infirm, the torpid, who agree with us, but whose approval will help us but little unless it is recorded in the ballot box. Let us do all that we fairly and honorably may to secure a full record of the sentiment of the voters of Centre county, and there can be no such work as fail. This can all be done - every voter in the County may be so reached that when he marches to the polls he need strike no blow in the dark, but may do a freeman's work with the intelligence of a freeman - say, every voter may be so reached - must be so reached - but to do it, we must all, in our own sphere, work.

Gen. Geo. Buchanan.

In the bustle and confusion of getting out our last paper we neglected to notice our old and esteemed friend Gen. Geo. Buchanan, who has been placed on the ticket for County Surveyor by the Standing Committee. Although the office is by no means a lucrative one, it is of great importance that a competent and obliging incumbent should always fill it. We know of no man in our County who is better qualified for the position than Gen. Buchanan. We all know that he is a clever man, an honest, upright citizen, and a first rate Democrat. He will be elected by a triumphant majority, for every body goes for the General.

Law of Falseness.

We warn our Democratic friends throughout the County of the law of falseness. The friends of the Democracy are circulating on the other side of the mountains, they say the whole Democratic party on the other side are going to vote for him, all of which is false. Linn and the whole Black Republican ticket will be elected by a large majority.

Why we call him Consistent George.

The immortal Junior of the Central Press having become the head and front of Black Republican politics, has worked himself into an astonishing degree of political nervous sensibility, over an article published recently in the Watchman. We said on more than one occasion, that Consistent George was luffy in his aspirations. His restless spirit has been threatening the mysterious avenges of Black Republican politics. His visionary genius, has been penetrating profoundly into the depth of its rigid line. He calls upon his literary "Sam and Sambo" friends for consultation, and they work together. The columns of the Central Press exhibit their wild imaginary freaks. Base and malignant falsehood pervades them. The principles of his Black Republican masters, must be raised upon the ruin of Democracy, while he preaches up neutrality and independence politics. But Consistent George claims to be a Democrat (!) Did he learn fidelity to Democratic principles in treason to the party? Let us make a little examination into his political consistency. In 1857, Consistent George asked the nomination for Register and Recorder. He failed to get it. Subsequently he wanted to purchase an interest in the Democratic Watchman. He wrote a letter to Messrs. Hoffer and Mitchell, asking their influence in the matter, and stated that the Democracy needed a strong administration paper. He wanted to apply his talent and ability in defence of James Buchanan on the Leocompton issue. But Consistent George did not succeed in purchasing the Watchman from its present publishers. He next affiliated with the principles of Black Republicanism and became the Junior Editor of the Central Press one year ago. He then applied the most bitter epithets in denouncing James Buchanan, and is now the worthy champion of every shade in politics. At present he calls upon the people to oppose the Democratic nominees, and expresses a determination to assist in defeating them. Here is an extract setting forth his Democracy in its proper colors:

"We believe, and unhesitatingly assert that if James Gamble is elected on the 23d Tuesday of October, it will be a terrible calamity to the people of the 25th Judicial District. But Consistent George don't like this term consistency. He has an aversion to it and manifests a disposition to be warlike. Why should we dub him Consistent George, he inquires? Let us see. He denounces J. G. Laurimore, D. G. Bush, and the Junior of the Watchman as having been Know Nothings. Of course Consistent George thinks this a very consistent business, while publishing a Black Republican Know Nothing newspaper. Does he forget that he is publishing a paper for the benefit of the Know Nothing subscribers of the old Democratic Whig? Does he forget that he is supporting Mr. Linn, a Know Nothing, for President Judge? Does he forget that he is supporting Mr. Brown, a Black Republican Know Nothing Nigger Worshipper, for County Treasurer? Does he forget that he is supporting the whole Know Nothing County Ticket? Surely every person knows that he is the hired mercenary of the opposition? Then why should he complain? What do the readers of the Central Press think of his philosophy in this respect? Can they tolerate the inconsistent measures of Consistent George? We verily believe they can't, but will repudiate his course as bordering hopeless unbecomingly. He shines and stinks and stinks and shines like a rotten mackerel by moonlight."

But again, Consistent George has unbecomingly aspirations. Billy Brown must be elected County Treasurer to play the gentleman, while Consistent George, plays blackguard with the Central Press and Democrat. The people's money will be doubtless a kind of joint business stock between them. Consistent George and his man Friday are really co-operating together. If Col. Brown is defeated, he is to rope in with Col. Kurtz to give Col. Curtin his, and the three illustrious Colonels will have a good time generally. Here is the man fellow Democrats in the person of Consistent George, who asks you to repudiate your principles. You have already seen enough of his treachery to be weary of future impositions. In another column will be found a communication giving still a further exhibition of his inconsistencies. If he is still not convinced that he is justly entitled to the sobriquet of Consistent George, the public will, however, understand his case. It does not require the aid of any further light to let them see the Ass's ears protruding from beneath the Lion's skin.

D. G. Bush, Esq.

It affords us great pleasure to announce that our esteemed friend D. G. Bush of Centre county, has received the nomination of the Democratic County Convention, for the office of District Attorney. Mr. Bush is a gentleman of superior legal attainments and is every way fitted for the office for which he has been nominated. We sincerely hope that the people of Centre county will show their appreciation of his worth by electing him triumphantly to the position to which he aspires. - Jersey Shore Republican.

His capacity and integrity are undoubted, and he combines in his character all the elements that guarantee a proper and satisfactory discharge of the important and responsible duties that pertain to the position for which he has been named, and to which he will doubtless be elected. The office of District Attorney is one that, in filling, the people should exercise great caution - they should assure themselves that he who receives their suffrages is honest, capable, and of high character. In our accomplished nominee they can find all these requirements as all who know him eagerly testify, and in him the citizens of the County will find an accommodating, pleasant, and incorruptible public officer. He is respected and esteemed at home, which is always a favorable indication, and we hazard nothing in predicting that he will receive the united vote of the Democracy all over the County.

We will attend to the request of our friend in Pine Grove next week. - Also to notices of favors from friends.

Read and Examine the Facts.

We are somewhat surprised at an article in the Press, complaining of the small amount of business transacted at the late session of our court, held before the Hon. James Gamble and his Associates, which evinces a degree of unfair dealing, on the part of some of Mr. Linn's friends toward Judge Gamble, that to say the least of it, is in bad taste, and such as we are loath to believe Mr. Linn himself would sanction.

Being the first court ever held by Judge Gamble, it could not reasonably be expected that the would dispatch business, either as readily or rapidly as an experienced officer, who had been upon the Bench for a series of years, thereby acquiring confidence in himself - familiarity with the complex duties devolving upon him - and learning the whims and caprices of the numerous members of the Bar, through whose hands the business of the people reaches the court.

Had the Judge come here, determined to rush business through Court without consulting the wishes of counsel, having it in charge, his enemies would then have complained with some consistency of his want of courtesy toward the Bar, and a disregard for the interests of their clients. Or had he promptly put down, (as perhaps it was his duty to have done) however unpleasant it might have been,) such angry altercations, as occurred between Judge Hale and Mr. Linn, by ordering them both to Prison, and in the meantime have urged on the cause in which they were concerned for trial in court, might not the rights of their clients have suffered materially, and they have more cause of complaint against the Judge for having acted so promptly in the discharge of his duty, than they now have in the mild conciliatory course which he pursued towards them.

Every person at all familiar with the transaction of business in our courts, knows that the amount done during the session, depends as much, if not more, upon the members of the Bar than upon the Judge, and that it is no very difficult task for five or six of the most prominent members of the Bar, (when combined for that purpose,) to retard and delay the proceedings, and thus use it as an argument to convince the people of a want of energy on the part of the presiding officer. That such a disposition was manifested during our recent court, there can be no doubt.

But let us see whether there was not as much business transacted as could have been reasonably expected of the court under the circumstances. We make the following extract from the Central Press, so that our readers may see how natural it is for the opposition to endeavor to pervert public opinion, and how pertinaciously they adhere to their falsehood when confronted with facts.

"The business which should have been finished on Wednesday evening, was only finished on Saturday afternoon; and the trial list of over ninety cases, which should have been dismissed at least forty cases, was dismissed by one single solitary case. A sad commentary, truly, on the business qualifications of the present incumbent."

Having previously examined the records, we refute this charge, and in truth of our former declarations we present now a complete list of the causes disposed of. This list has been made out from the records under the supervision of Mr. Hoffer, our worthy Prothonotary.

State Politics.

There is a strong probability to be considerable activity in politics in different parts of the State, says the Allentown Democrat. The preparatory county meetings in a number of counties, have already been held, and in other counties tickets have been nominated. The Democracy appear to be awakening to the importance of the election of the State Ticket. From every part of the State we have the most encouraging accounts. Differences of opinion upon old and settled issues are giving way to a united and harmonious concert of action. This is as it should be. There is but one way in which the Party can be successful, and that is by strong and vigorous effort and unity of action. That this unity of action in every where taking place in our State there is very abundant evidence. The masses of the people are rallying under the "old flag" and are preparing themselves to do service in October, by the triumphant election of the Democratic State Ticket - than which a more unexceptionable has never been placed before the people of Pennsylvania, and must, as a consequence, command the admiration and support of the people throughout the Commonwealth. The office of Auditor General is, beyond question, the most important position in the State, inasmuch as the incumbent holds the key to the Treasury. If a faithful and able man stands here, he may save thousands of dollars to the tax payers of the State. If, on the other hand, such a man does not occupy the place, thousands of dollars may be lost from the coffers of the Commonwealth. An honest, intelligent, straightforward man is needed at all times in that office - one whose integrity is, above suspicion. So, also, in the Surveyor General's office; he should likewise be a man of undoubted integrity and ability. That Messrs. Wright and Rowe, the Democratic nominees, are just such men, no one will dare to doubt or gainsay. They have both been well tried in the public service, and found to be all that the tax payers can desire. Their records are without blemish, and moreover, they are sound and consistent Democrats. It is this well known fact that is gaining strength for them in every section of the State, and that they will be triumphantly elected we have every reason to believe.

An ungentlemanly attack has been made upon Mr. Laurimore, Bush, and the Junior for political purposes. In another column we publish the able reply of Mr. Bush to Consistent George, setting forth the facts in his case. He has answered the charges of this modern disciple of Black Republican politics, in a firm, manly and becoming spirit.

We are not aware that Mr. Laurimore ever denied his brief association with this organization. The object and the circumstances in connection with his identity with this party has been previously made public. The Democratic Convention has placed him in nomination as its choice, and we heartily endorse its proceedings.

In regard to the Junior the letter of Mr. Larimer which we published last winter, relative to this subject will speak for itself. We never met with the party, or participated in any of its proceedings. What took place at its meetings, we know not, neither do we care, and it is a matter of perfect indifference by what process the Know Nothings disposed of our case.

Outside Alarm - Internal Quarrels.

The Republican party has displayed very much alarm about divisions in the Democratic ranks; but the time has arrived when it may require all the efforts of that party to settle its own quarrels. The New York Tribune betrays great pain at the condition of the Republican party, and says:

"If the dictatorial course which is now absurdly pursued by certain presses and politicians among us to speak authoritatively for a large interest of the Opposition, should be continued, against the dictates of good policy and justice, they may as well conclude at once that harmony can be expected, and, as a necessary consequence, that defeat may be anticipated in 1860."

AL. HONOR TO HIM - George Hoyer, residing in Jacksonville, Centre county, has been a regular subscriber to the "Berichter" during the period of 29 years, and has always promptly paid his subscription. That man must possess a conscience altogether "void of offence." We should like to behold him. - So says the York, Penn'a. Protectionist.

We, well, took the old Democrat by the hand on Friday last, and found him in as good humor as usual. He's a man, who always pays his subscription in advance, and votes the Democratic ticket.

It is wholly unnecessary to hear the reports put in circulation about the different candidates for office. We have just learned that a story is in circulation that G. Laurimore "buted a bull off a bridge," or injured some person between this place and his residence and that he was really arrested and tried in Court for said offence. We believe that Mr. Hugh Laurimore had a difficulty of some kind with somebody, - but not G. Laurimore. We refer the reader to the Court proceedings in another column for the truth of what we say.

Correspondence.

BELLEPPONTE, Sept. 20, 1858.

DEAR FRIENDS: Your favor addressed to me, among others, inquiring relative to the expense of trying causes in which the President Judge of the District is concerned or in any way interested, reached me for the first time through the columns of the "Central Press." The answer of many of the members of the Bar, as it appeared in that paper, standing in substance that the elevation of Mr. Linn to the Bench would inflict no additional expense on his constituents beyond the compensation allowed another Judge, to wit: Five dollars per diem out of the State Treasury, was presented to me for my signature.

While all elections should be conducted on fair, candid and honorable principles, the character of the judicial position renders it imperative that such a course should be pursued in the selection of a Judge, and with proper explanations and qualifications. I cannot withhold my assent from the facts stated in the above referred to. While a Judge cannot (without the consent of parties) try causes in which he may be interested, whether as counsel or otherwise, adequate provision has been made for trying causes in which the President Judge of the District is thus interested, to wit: By having the President Judge of any other District present at any regular or adjourned term of Court, to take the Bench pro tempore, for which he receives five dollars per day out of the State Treasury as above stated. If the attendance of another Judge could at all times be procured, no additional expense beyond that mentioned, need be imposed upon the Tax payers. But if a list of cases in which the President Judge is interested is ordered for trial, a Jury summoned, witnesses subpoenaed, and all other preparatory steps made for the business of an entire week and the expected Judge fails from some cause or other to appear, which frequently occurs, the result would be to prevent the trial of the cases, Court adjourns on Tuesday or Wednesday, for there is no compulsory process known to the law, whereby the attendance of another Judge may be enforced. The expense of summoning Jurors, the mileage of Jurors, the trouble and expense of parties to procure the attendance of witnesses, &c. &c. would be the same whether the Court continued one day or one week. Again their counsel who might be retained in Mr. Linn's case, would require some time to become familiar with his causes and prepare for their trial. Whether necessarily or otherwise, the election of a member of the Bar in full possession to preside over the court of his own District leads to much delay, and considerable unnecessary expense.

With equal qualifications in candidates it is undoubtedly preferable that a gentleman who is free to perform the entire duties of the office should be chosen President Judge. I have endeavored to reply to your inquiry in the most candid spirit of candor in which it seems to have been made, and I trust it will be found to be a fair and candid one. Yours very respectfully, IRA O. MITCHELL.

To T. M'Keen, Wm. Garbrick, Geo. Shaffer, Joseph Shaffer, John Baney; John L. Rocky and John M. Hoy.

Gratitude Exemplified.

Messrs. Editors - I believe this is the first time that I have asked for room in the Watchman. Old Democrats like myself are content to enjoy a comparative obscurity, trusting to the purity of our principles for the success of our party. But I find that it becomes necessary for me to speak at this time, in a plain and simple manner, in regard to a claim upon it. I have been engaged in introducing Pelton's Out-Fine Maps into schools, and not only free of charge, but proud of it. I have ever been taught to believe that it was not dishonorable to be engaged in any honest employment. I was early taught to work, and I have done so ever since.
