

THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

BELLEFONTE, NOVEMBER 24, 1850.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

UNPLEASANT PEOPLE.—There is a class of unpleasant people who often meet with in the world, whose unpleasantness it is difficult to assign the cause for. They are not necessarily unkind persons; they are not ungenerous; and they do not appear to talk or act from any malice. But somehow or other they are most unfortunate in what they say. They ask the wrong thing or they omit to ask the right. They bring forward the disagreeable reminiscence, the ludicrous anecdote about you which you would rather not hear repeated in a large company, the painful circumstance which you wish was well buried and out of sight. If you have any misfortune they rush to prove to you that your own folly was the cause. If you are betrayed, they know it would be so, and remember they have told you so. They cannot imagine that the poor unfortunate man is not in a state just then to hear all this wisdom. In fact, to use a metaphor, it seems as if they had supernaturally large feet, with which they go stamping about treasuring on other people's toes in all directions.

LOTTERY GAMBLING.—The schemes of lottery gamblers are extended to all parts of the country, and many victims are frequently found in this neighborhood. We have several agents here, who do a tolerably good business in gulling the credulous. Some of our most respectable citizens are annoyed by letters from these swindlers, whose names are obtained by some means through which we are unacquainted. A gentleman from a neighboring County sent the following letter to the Company, and is anxiously waiting a reply.

SMALLWOOD & Co.—Your very polite favor of the 1st inst., enclosing a scheme in the Delaware State Lottery, is at hand. I am deeply thankful to you for your very kind feeling towards me, an entire stranger to you; nor can I ever be able to repay you for the misadventure of your lottery. You offer me the capital price of your lottery of $40,000 for the trifling sum of $20. I gladly accept it, and I beg that you will at once consider me as having engaged the package that you assure me must draw $5,000 and no more. If not to me, to my friend, I would like another package for a friend. Of course, the price of the packages you can deduct out of the two prizes of $40,000 each when drawn, as it would be inequitable for me to draw that amount just now, and I presume it will make no difference to you, who have shown such disinterested feelings toward me. As soon as these prizes are drawn you can deduct your commission and expenses, and remit the balance of the money to me.

W. HALL.—The PLUCK TO GO.—Were we called upon to specify where the best assortment of Books, Stationery, Harness and Farming Goods can be had, at the most reasonable prices, and of the very best quality, we should say, without a moment's hesitation, that the place to go to—Barnard's, on Chestnut Street, where you cannot fail to be satisfied. At the same time you can take a "peep" at the Bears that are to be exhibited for the benefit of the "Lion."

HEALTH.—The sudden change from the genial temperature of Indian summer has rendered colds somewhat prevalent. Ladies who will persist in wearing the lightest Parisian chignons to the last, should be careful how they venture upon damp sidewalks. Patent leathers should long since have given place to plain, stout calkins with the genuineness. To those who consider a cold a small matter, we would simply say that few passing organizations of the system are so apt to lead to various diseases.

PATRIOT & UNION.—We are not in the habit of publishing prospectuses for newspapers at a distance, but when such a paper as the Patriot and Union, at Harrisburg, makes the request, we will very cheerfully comply, as we regard it the best newspaper in the State. It is edited with unusual ability and neatly executed, containing as much reading matter as any of our city exchanges. We hope the citizens of our County, desirous of a paper at the seat of Government, will subscribe for the Patriot and Union a prospectus for which will be found in another column.

A CRUEL RUNAWAY couple were recently married at Providence. The person demanded ten dollars for his fees. "How's that?" said the bridegroom. "The gentleman who had married assumed me that he only gave you five dollars." "True," said the person "but he is an Irishman. I have married him six times before. He is a customer.—You I may never see again." That person was wrong. He ought to charge every one alike, as it is the custom to do at Tomer & Steels, and where every thing in their line can be had at very low prices.

CURRENT FOR BROWN CHINA.—Take a very thick solution of gum arabic dissolved in water, and stir into it plaster of Paris, until the mixture becomes a viscous paste. Apply it with a brush to the fractured edges, and stick them together. In three days the article cannot be broken in the same place. The whiteness of the cement renders it doubly valuable.

FULL GROUND OF WOOD.—Mr. Joseph Ross, of Spring township, brings the largest and best loads of wood we see in the market. Joe is an accommodating, affable, and good looking fellow, and has a heart in him as big as a Farm School pumpkin, and is deserving the encouragement of the public. There was another Bear chase from the farm of the Messrs Barnhart's, on Monday morning last, but the party failed to get the prize. One of the dogs, (which is part BARN,) it is said, had Bugin by the ear, but could not hold him. Our Junior, (who was present), promises a description of the sport on the occasion, in our next paper. Smith is some on a hunt, but succeeds better after a BEAR.

Frank Green has received quite a lot of fancy articles. Give him a call.

A Word to Our Subscribers.

A few more weeks will close the 4th Vol. of the Democratic Watchman. During our connection with this paper we have labored faithfully to discharge our duty as the publishers of a paper devoted to the principles of the Democratic party, and to the dissemination of general intelligence. In discharging this duty we have had many cordials of encouragement from the people, and what we know how to reciprocate the good wishes of our friends, there is something more than our smiles of approval needed to sustain us. Money is wanted, and the publication of a newspaper cannot be carried on without it. We have many delinquents upon our subscription books who have paid nothing since the Watchman has been established. To them especially, we intend this notice to apply, and do hope that each and every subscriber, as well as those knowing themselves indebted for job work or advertising, will come forward and pay off their indebtedness—however small the amount. Small sums can be the more easily discharged, and a little from every one is a matter of no inconsiderable importance to us. We intend to charge every delinquent at the end of the 4th volume two dollars and fifty cents. Those having neglected this until the present time will be charged two dollars for the current year. It is important to our subscribers that they give an early attention to this business if they wish to economize. We shall expect to hear from all of them, either at our office or by mail. Persons having business with the Watchman will find one of the proprietors either at the office or the Arcade Ambootype rooms.
