Having now arrived in close proximity with the cornfield, our Senior Commander who held his commission by virtue of a long experience as a Captain and Col. of the Pennsalvania Militia under the old statute of the State, and who could boast of considerable experience as a backwoods main -- and is also justly entitled to the honorary affix of Esq summoned the hunters together in counsel, and addressed them as follows:

"Fellow Citizens, Hunters, and Soldiers We have assembled here this morning, not for the first time in the history of our neighborhood to defend our country against invaded rights. A devastating enemy has been penetrating into the very heart of a country purchased by the blood of our Rev olationary sites. We are here the champion ms of needom, to protect those rights which a foreign invader has usurped. I see before me old and familiar faces, the friends and are in arms. Let the recollection of a Saratoga and a Yorktown, inspire you with confidence. Let your actions this morning be spoken of by your countrymen in praise Go forth with a brave and laudible ambition Let the clangor of your arms reverberate on our mountains-let the loud hazza of victory echo through the valley. Cast a thought upon your empty larders, your pig pens, and ber. Hou. A. G. Curtin, was elected Press your devastated cornfields. Forward then with a fixed determination to replenish the one, and protect the others by the force of fire arms and death into foe(?)" At the conclusion of this burst of clo

Wilkassanie, Pa, Jone B, 1889.

Messa Farrel, Herring & Co. 629 Chostnet et al. Philadely in .—Contain. On the night 14 the 30th and the morning stell May, a fire broke out in this place, originating in my store, and consuming sixteen buildings in is ranged.

The Safe of your manufacture, purchased from you a short time ago, was in the hotteet part of the fire for upwards of six hours, and was red bot for a long time. I take great pleasure in Informing you that my hooks papers, &c., have since been taken from the Safe in a good sight of pressivation. I shall purchase another of your Safes as Joan as I become located. Yours, respectfully.

PIRE AT RESACA, MONROE COLVIT, PS.

Gentlemby. The Horring Safe which we purchased from you has bott time since, was tested by free on the 8th inst. by the building of our wares hour. It gives us pleasure to lifetim you that it preceived our books papers and money includers allong time. You will please make shuther safe, we large dincustons, as the other was too small to contain all our books.

At the recent great fire at Oskosii, Wie, and ky Wist, Flat, Illentiac's Parkey, was it of only axio that in every matance preserved its contents.
