

THE WATCHMAN.

WELLESFONTE, PENN. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1860.

The Republican Party and the Franking Privilege.

We believe that it is difficult to discover a sensible and disinterested citizen in any part of the country who is not in favor of abolishing the franking privilege...

Years ago, Benjamin Franklin, Roger B. Taney, John Jay, and others were the first to propose the abolition of the franking privilege...

It is a well known fact that the franking privilege has been a great source of corruption and abuse in the postal department...

Black Republican Economy.

Tendency of Society.

The real source of prosperity of any community will, in the course of a sufficient length of time, be determined by the intelligence and virtues, not of the highest circle of society, but of the lowest...

The theory of nearly every government in the world except our own, has been simply to take care of the wealthy few...

But we cannot help water downwards, and we cannot help water downwards...

There is a tendency in our society to look upon the wealthy few as the source of all our prosperity...

Here, then, is the chief danger, that even if we should succeed in abolishing the franking privilege...

It is a well known fact that the franking privilege has been a great source of corruption and abuse in the postal department...

A Foolish Story.

The press generally is just now airing a story originating in the Washington correspondent of the New York Times...

It was announced by flaming handbills distributed throughout the country, that the 16th of Dec. from Erie to Warren...

Warren can now claim the privilege of no longer belonging to the wild cat district...

That Mr. Forney has a scheme for setting aside Mr. Seward is probably true...

PEN, PASTE & SCISSORS.

Believe call young gentlemen to church more frequently than Bel's.

The energy live by our sins, the dog by our diseases, and the lawyers by our follies.

When a plant like a hog? When it begins to root. When it begins to shoot.

Harper's Ferry Tragedy. A large party of men, armed with revolvers, entered the town of Harper's Ferry...

The Road is now within 24 miles of the completion of the Keokuk and Rock Island Railroad...
