ANSWER THE QUESTIONS. - As the deputy U.S. Marshals are now engaged in taking the census, the following from the Cincinnati Commercial is not, without interest here : U. S. Marshal Siflord served summons yes terday against three citizens, two gentlemen and a lady, to appear before the U.S. Circuit Court, and answer for refusing to make, returns of their property, etc., according to the schedule prepared by the Secretary of the interior, under authority of an act of Congress for taking the census. By the fifgress for taking the census. By the fil-teenth section of that law, authority is given the and Queenstown June 7th, arrived at to the U.S. Marshal to prosecute all persons refusing to make the returns required of them, the penalty imposed being $30 and costs. Our citizens should remember that they are subject to a fine of $30 for not an-swering readily and correctly the questions of the Marshal. It is thought the fines which will be collected in this way will go far towards paying the exponses of taking the census. We hope none we are different to the Foreman Marshal Sir the census. the census. We hope none of our citizens

BRWARE OF GREEN FRUIT .- The time is at hand when green fruits begin to hold out their singular allurements to the juvefile of the armistice. According to some de-palate, a bait as irresistible to the young spatches, it is prolonged indefinitely, while idea as the disposition to knock out a window pane in an old house, throw at a terra-bin or quiz told house, throw at a terra-Neapohtan General that asked for an armispin, or quiz "old pea-nuts." These green fruik work wonders in the cause of mortal-ity, and elongate doctors' bills to a most unwelcome extent. Among the indigent unwelcome extent. Among the indigent and an armistice of 24 hours was agreed on classes, children are allowed, by force of the poverty of their parents, to run at large and ed that it should be extended to three days pick up for the most part what they can to which Garibaldi not only accepted, but offer fill their stomachs.
