As tides stir up the ocean, And snow-white muslin, when it fits, Wakes many a curions notion ; All forts of Indy fixings thrill My feelings as they arter. But little female gaiter boots Are death and sothing shorter And just to put you on your guard, I'll give you short and brief. A small hotel experience Which filled my heart with grief Last summar, at the 'Oliver, I stopped a week or more. And marked two " bootres" every morn Before my neighbor's door Two boots with patent leather tips-Two boots which seemed to say, "An augel trots around in us"-They stole my heart away And often in my nightly dreams They swept before my face, A lady growing out of them. As flowers from out a vase But, O' one morn I saw a sight Which struck me like a stone-Fome other name was on the book Those boots were not alone ! A great tall pair of other boots Were standing by their side, And off they walked that afternoor And with them walked a bride !
