Forney, who is now receiving the meet in Harrisburg on the 26th of this month, in delegate and mass convention," &c.. to nominate a straightout electoral ticket pledg ed to the support of Douglas and Johnson, if I notherstand you: and protesting against be nominated in every State, and then, like his bull, that separate electoral tickets should be nominated in every State, and then, like ed to the support of Douglas and ground if I understand you; and protesting against be nominated in every State, and one, and the action of the State Executive Committee, by the Democratic State Executive Committee, by the Democratic State Executive Committee, and I find you following in the wake which met at Philadelphie on the 24th inst., who have recommended that the Democratic State Executive Commitwho best for him, is well supplied.

Why is "Old Abe" like a focomotive I Because he runs mostly on "rails."

It is surmised that the editor of the distor of the electoral ticket nominated by the Democratic State Executive Committee. And I find you following in the wake of Pennsylvania should unite upon fair, just his political automaton. This no party Press declares hostility to any sandidate on the local tickets that are friendly to the administration of President Buchanan, or its leading and of which you are a number. That admit: and certainly it was a compliment gooned by any such course? If you do, to Pennsylvania to find one Douglasuc without guile, while you could wear the blushing differently, and so do those who are acting honors of 'the one men power," and sing the with you in this scheme of disorganization old Scotch song of "Wha Wad be King but If you and your colleagues to the National But that Mr. Dougles was the Convention had pursued the same concilia Presidential nominee of the National Demo-cratic Convention I deny; and when you would have taken place. You know that refer to the proceedings of the Convention at Charleston, before the adjournment to Bal at dagger points. WEST UNION, IOWA July 20th, 1860 FRIEND BARNHART Two years' silence has not obliterated former friendship, and nothing but pure heedlessness, which some deprayed mands might attribute to laziness

Since you heard from me last I have traveled-pyer the hemp fields of Missoure the plains of Kansas and meandered many of the rivers of Nebraska I have met with in accordance with the provisions of the rest herds of Buffalos, "Big Inpus" and the "Feor ver nager; " the latter being the only thing that "keered" me enough to make me stake in our boots I am now "at home, " partially retired from public business, but occasionally go out to show a stranger his land which he generally finds to be satisfactory; for I make a practice now of inquiring before we land fever, that if they wish to examine their unseen investments to call on the "Maio good in that region as well as here - in fact never were known to be as good, and that those fine orchards I pointed out to you in Floyd county, are bearing; but as to the quality of the fruit I am not able to commu meate. "Will" thinks that it must be a choice kind, for certain reasons.

Polly-ticks are raging high and the Douglas men think that they will carry Illinois and Pennsylvania, but your corresponden being of a different persuasion, don't think so But let who will be elected, the "necdle" will point to the North, I "recon "

I shan't say anything about the Pennsyl vanua boys in this letter, but in my next (if I should write it) I will speak of Uncle Jimmy, and Johnny, and young Jimmy and young Johnny, and "Rast," and "Ed.." and 'Dode," and how Uncle Jimmy's credit has failed of late, so much so that he is obliged to beg all of his tobacco from strangers. And I'll tell you which I think is the youngest, Jim or his father, and give you the circumference of John's dmner basket : and a sight of things that must be of great interest tolyou and yours. 'Till then I remain yours n the spirit, MAJOR JONES.
