THE DEMOCRATIC WATCHMAN.

BELLEFONTE, AUG. 2, 1860

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

AN OUTRAGE ON A YOUNG GIRL.—A high ded outrage was perpetrated in the vi- ty of Rock Forge, by three young men ned respectively, John Benner, William ter and George McAlhatton. The subject his transaction was a Miss Margaret Por , of that vicinity, who is a young girl, about eighteen years, and engaged in g house work in the family of a Mr. nn. It appears that while she was en- ed in doing some out chores at an unusu- late hour, she was met by a certain John ner, who had been in the employ of Mr nn as a harvest hand. Benner addressed in a familiar manner, and after she had ed away for the purpose of passing into house, he seized hold of her rudely to ain her, at which time it is said that Por. and McAlhatton made their appearance e young woman became alarmed and en- vored to call for assistance, but was pre ted from doing so by Benner, who placed hand on her mouth. It now became ev nt that the object of the young men was violation of her person, but the noise oc sioned by the scuffle attracted the obser- ion of several persons to the scene of the rage, when the perpetrators fled. War- ts were immediately issued and placed he hands of Sheriff McCoy, who arrested n after a weeks absence, at Corsica, Jef son county, Pa., and brought them to this ce, where they are now in jail awaiting ir trial.

CONFECTIONARIES.—Frank Green has on d a very extensive assortment of Confec- ionaries at his Drug Store. He has just re- ed a fresh supply of oranges and lemons. Don't forget to give him a call.

A CROWD of new advertisements and im tant political matter, have excluded our ral variety of local news this week.

International Courtesies.

The subjoined letters of the President and Queen of England, which it has been med proper to make public, are brief, we agree with the National Intelligen- that we have never read any correspond- e of mere courtesy between official per e of the highest rank couched in terms re appropriate.

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1860.

To her Majesty Queen Victoria: I have- rned from the public journals that the ce of Wales is about to visit your Maj ty's North American dominions. Should he the intention of his Royal Highness to end his visit to the United States, I need say how happy I shall be to give him a dial welcome to Washington. You may well assured that everywhere in this ntry he will be greeted by the American ple in such a manner as cannot fail to ve gratifying to your Majesty. In this y will manifest their deep sense of your neste virtues as well as their conviction your merits as a wise, patriotic and con- tional sovereign.

Your Majesty's most obt nt serv't,

JAMES BUCHANAN.

THE QUEEN'S REPLY.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE, June 22, 1860.

My Good Friend—I have been much ntified at the feeling which prompted you write to me inviting the Prince of Wales come to Washington. He intends to re n from Canada through the United States, I it will give him great pleasure to have opportunity of testifying to you in person t those good feelings are fully reciprocated by him. He will also be able at the ne time, to thank the respect which he ertains for the Chief Magistrate of a great friendly State and kindred nation.

The Prince will drop all royal state on ving my dominions, and travel under the me of Lord Renfrew, as he has done when veling on the continent of Europe.

The Prince Consort wishes to be kindly membered to you.

I remain, ever, your good friend,

VICTORIA, R.

The Prince of Wales in America.

ST JOHNS N F July 25—Yesterday af- noon the addresses of the city authorities re presented to the Prince of Wales, to ich he made the following reply:

"I sincerely thank you for the addresses u have presented to me, and for the hearty come I have received from all of you on ding on the shores of this the earliest tional possession of the British Crown. I trust you will not think me regardless your zealous loyalty if I acknowledge se addresses collectively.

"It will afford me the greatest satisfac- n to report to the Queen the devotion to r crown and her person, unmistakably inced by the reception of her son, and elo- ently expressed in the addresses from the rious bodies of this town and Harbor ace.

"I am charged by the Queen to convey to u the assurance of her deep concern ever t for this interesting portion of her domin- s. I shall carry back the lively recol- tion of this days' proceedings, of the kind ss shown to myself, personally—but, ove all, of those hearty demonstrations of triotism which prove your deep rooted at- chment to the great and free country of nch we all glory to be called the sons."

The Prince pleases the populace immense- by his handsome countenance and mild, ntlemanly bearing. He drives out to- y.

A dinner party will be given at the Gov- rnment House this evening, to be followed a grand ball.

The exhibition of fire works last night, as very meagre and unworthy of the occa- on.

The weather is beautiful and clear to-day, d the grand Regatta will take place under y favorable auspices.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 25.—The Prince of ales witnessed the grand regatta this af noon. He expressed himself much pleas- with Newfoundland and its people.

EVERY SUMMER the demand for Hostetter's lebrated Stomach Bitters increases. It found to be the only certain preserva- ve of bodily strength during a period when e atmosphere is calculated to induce a eling of lassitude and indigestion. The orst cases of Diarrhœa, and Dysentery give, ay to its potent influence. Innumerable rsons, who are now alive and well, must ank the discoverer of this preparation that ey have not been swept away in the har- st of death. The Bitters is recommended the best physicians in the land. This is e best evidence of its real value, because, a general thing, they will not speak a ord in favor of adertised preparations.—ey have been compelled to acknowledge e claims of the Bitters upon the commu- y. Sold by all druggists.

THOS McCOY, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office Bellefonte }
July 26, 1860 }

In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre co.

Before the Hon the Judges of the same. The petition of Trustees and members of the congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran and German Reformed congregations of the Borough of Bellefonte was presented and read setting forth that on the 24th day of January 1848 a deed was made by Dr J M M Coy and wife and James Linn and wife to the Evangelical Lutheran congregation of the Borough of Bellefonte and the Bellefonte German Reformed congregation, for a lot of ground then in Spring township now in the Borough of Bellefonte bounded on the East by the Bellefonte and Philipsburg Turnpike on the West by an extension of Spring street, and on the South by other land of the said M Coy and Linn that the said lot of ground is in triangular form and is at the junction of the said old Turnpike with the said extension of Spring street. That recently the boundaries of the Borough have been extended so as to embrace said lot and a street and tier or range of lots have been laid out in such way that the said church lot falls within said range of lots but does not reach said street as the same appears by a draft annexed to said petition. And that the members of said congregation are desirous of occupying one of said lots so as to have a front upon the said street and to sell so much of said Church lot as does not fall within the lot in which said Church stands in the said range of lots and to purchase from said M Coy & Linn that part of said lot lying South of their Southern line and North of said street. And praying the Court to order and decree that the Trustees of said congregations be authorized to sell and convey in the name of said corporations so much of the said lot conveyed by M'Coy & Linn as falls without the lot in which the Church building is erected in the range of lots recently laid out as aforesaid. Whereupon, May 5 1860, the Court ordered that publication be made in one newspaper published in Centre county for 4 successive weeks giving notice to all persons interested in this application and that a decree will be made authorizing the sale within mentioned unless objections are filed on or before the 1st day of August Term next.

By the Court. JOHN HOFFER, Proth'y.
