a man who wanted to be married in church :

congregation were arranging themselves for the benediction, when to the great astonishment and the manifest interest of the worshippers, the good parson descended from the pulpit to the desk below, and said in a

" Those wishing to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony, will now please come

A deep stillness instantly fell over the congregation, broken only by the rustling of of the couple to be married. No one, however, arose, or seemed the least inclined to rise. Whereupon the worthy clergyman, deeming his first notice unheard or misunholy bonds of matrimony now come for-Still no one starred The silence became almost audible, and a painful sense of awkwardness among those present was felt when a young gentleman who occupied a vacant seat in the broad aisle during the service, slowly arose, and deliberately walked to the foot of the altar Hasynas good looking and well dressed, but no female accompanied his travele. When he arrived within a respectable distance of the clorgy-man, he paused, and with a reverent bow, stepped to one side of the siste, but neither said anything nor seemed at all disconcerted

The clergyman looked anxiously around for the bride, who he supposed was yet to arrive, and at length remarked to the young at the idea of being married alone.

... Let those wishing to be united in the calm clear voice :
