> At a late quarter session, a man was brought up by a farmer and accused of stealing some ducks. The farmer said he should know them anywhere, and went on to describe their peculiarity. "Why," said the counsel for the prisoner, "they can't be such 50 a rare breed—I have some like them in my 50 yard." "That's very likely, sir," said the farmer, "they are not the only ducks I have had stolen lately."

No indee I, they would not apis better at blackguarding the Democracy. That comes natural to most of my Black Re publican brethren of the present day. We think if he had stayed at home, he would have made more friends for our "corn-juice

The idea strikes me that the reason why so many of my Rail-Splitter brethren drink so much "corn juice," is because old Abe used to manufacture a very good article of the kind. They think that, if Old Abe manufactured whiskey in his early life, and ran for President in his reverned days, they can ed you of your error, and if you are deceivthe Union.
