THE AMERICAN FLAG.

When freedom from her mountain height, Unfurled her banner to the air. She tore the robe of azure night, And set the stars of glory there She mingled with its gorgeous dyes The milky baldrie of the skies, And striped its pure celestial white With streakings of the morning's light; Then from his mansion in the sun She called her eagle bearer down, And gave into his mighty hand The symbol of her chosen land.

Majestic monarch of the cloud, Who rear'st aloft thy regal form To hear the tempests trumping loud, When stride the warriors of the storm; And see the lightning lances driven, When rolls the thunder drums of heaven Child of the sun! to thee 'tis given To guard the banner of the free! To hover in the sulphur smoke, To ward away the battle stroke, And bid its blendings shine afar, Like rainbows in the cloud of war-The harbingers of victory!

Flag of the brave! thy folds shall fly, The sign of hope and triumph high; When speaks the trumpet's signal tone, And the long line comes gleaming on. Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet, Has dimm'd the glistening bayonet, Each soldier's eye shall brighly turn To where thy sky-born glories burn; And as his springing steps advance Catch war and vengeance from the glance; And when the cannon-mouthings loud Heave in wild wreaths the battle shroud, And gory sabres rise and fall, Like sheets of flame on midnight's hall-Then shall thy meteor-glances glow, And cowering foes shall sink beneath Each gallant arm that strikes below That lovely messenger of death!

Flag of the seas! on ocean's wave Fing of the seas: on ocean's wave Thy stars shall glitter o'er thy brave; When death, careering on the gale. Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail, And frightened waves rush widely back Before the broadside's reeling rack, Each dying wanderer of the sea Shall look at once to heaven and thee. And to smile to see thy splendors fly In triumph over his closing eye ! Flag of the free-heart's hope and home, By angel's hand to valor given, Thy stars have lit the welcome dome, And all thy hues were born in heaven Forever float that standard sheet, Where breathes the foe that falls before us, With freedom's soil beneath our feet, And freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

THE KEYSTONE STATE. Hark to the call of bugles! Hark to the roll of drums! Forth for the Union's Battle, See what an army comes. Down from the Alleghenies-Down through the central gate-Soldiers to guard the Union, Sons of the Keystone State

Measure them not by hundreds, Thousands have come that way, Ready to die, if need be, Rather than shun the fray, Pouring in hosts to the border, From the early hours till late; These are the troops of the nation, Sent by the Keystone State.

Pledged for the good of the country -Pledged to the land of their birth, Straight from the field and harvest, Straight from the citizen's hearth, See how they rally in squadrons; Each for the other a mate, Guarding the Arch of the Union Bound by the Kaystone State!

Look to your drama, ye traitors! View your stage with dismay; And while the CURTIN is rising, Down and prepare for the play! If it's a tragedy bloody Picturing to you your fate, Wait not the act that's committed Unto the Keystone State!
