BELLEFONTE, PENNA.

THE CENTRE COUNTY MILITARY RELIEF FUND.—The Legislature of Pennsylvania, at its late extra session passed a bill organizing the Associate Judges and Commissioners of the several counties composing this Commonwealth into Boards of Relief, providing that the funds of the county should be appriated to the maintainance of those depend ent upon persons who have enlisted in the Government's defence. The following pre-fifty hands at work within the present week, amble and resolutions were passed at the and under his supervision we expect to se meeting of the Board, on Thursday last:

WHEREAS, In obedience to the requsition of the Governor of this Commonwealth, call-ing for volunteers to support the Government a number of citizens of the County of Centre a number of citizens of the County of Centre Goned By A Bull.—Mr. James Loder, or formed themselves into volunteer companies, this place, narrowly escaped being gored to and were mustered into service, whereupon this place, narrowly escaped being gored to sundry persons agreed to pay to John Ton-death, on Saturday last, by a bull belonging ner, E. C. Humes and Samuel Linn the the Milesburg Iron Works. Mr. Loder amounts respectively subscribed by them for the support of the families of the said volunteers, during their absence in the servolunteers, during their absence in the ser-vice of the country, or such proportion of such subscriptions as the said committee in such subscriptions as the said committee in their discretion may deem necessary. And Whereas, the said committee have called in an installment of 25 per cent., and a small proportion thereof has been paid in and applied to its legitimate purposes, and the said volunteer committee are willing to give to the Board of Relief the benefit of said subscriptions of far as the same can be properly and

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—The intelligence of the death, at Camp Scott, of our young friend, and brother typo, George H. Burkert, reached here on last Friday, and produced a general gloom among those to whom he had, by about two years association, greatly endeared himself. George enlisted in the Fencibles, and was drummer in that company at the time of his death, being too small in stature to enter the ranks in any other capacity than that of a musician. The Bellefonte Brass Band, of which he was a member, adopted the following preamble and resolutions at their meeting on Saturday night last:

WHEREAS. George H. Burkert, a member of this Band, having volunteered in the service of his country, and after having been in the service for five weeks, it pleased the God of battles to remove him from the scenes of action to his last long home, there

Resolved, That the Band now play the Funeral March as a mark of respect for our departed member.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the county papers. The funeral obsequies of the deceased are said to have been very imposing, and the military attendance large, including a number of the most prominent military men of this county. His remains were laid to rest in the villiage cemetery at Recbersburg, this county, where his parents reside.

Business Change. -Our young and gentlemanly friend, Daniel P. Bible, has purchased the jewclry established of Wm. J. The contract for the completion of this work has been awardee to our fellow townsman, Geo. W. Tate, whose architectual skill and me chanical proficiency has won for him the highest encominms from architectures and builders everywhere. Mr. Tate has already commenced operations and expects to hav this work, which has been pending so long, prought to a speedy and satisfactory conummation.

GORED BY A BULL .- Mr. James Loder, of this place, narrowly escaped being gored to was attempting to drive the bull out of a field, belonging to his son, into which he had broken, when he turned and rushed upon him, knocking him down and goring him in a very dangerous manner, after which he caught him up with his horns and pitched him upon a stone pile, where he was soo after found in a very precarious condition. tion so far as the same can be properly and equitably so applied, therefore and when last heard from was improving Resolved.
