Resolved, That while we deeply deplore his death, we feel that our loss is his cternal gain. Resolved. That in the departed, we re-cognized a worthy, energetic and efficient member-one whose every action was prompted by an exalted sense of right, and that as a Litearary Association, we feel as if one of our brightest ornaments had been suddenly extingished. Resolved, That we extend our earnest sympathies to the bereaved friends. Resolved, That these resolutions be pub-lished and a copy forwarded to the friends of the deceased. L. C. NEFF.

A. C. RAYMOND. Annovs Rux, Ky., Nov. 39, 1858. PROF. O. J. Wood: Dear sir.-I would certain-ly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderfal, as well as the unexpected result have experienced from using over ykind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now candor and justice com-pel me to announce to wheever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful head of hair, which I pronounce riellor and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occession to re-commend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it. I remain respectfully yours. P. S.-This testimoniat of my approbation for Tremain respectfully yours. REV. S. ALLEN BLOCK. P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited :—but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not destroy and say nothing. Yours, REV. S. A. D. The Restorative is put in bottlek of three sizes, viz : farge, medium and small ; the small holds half a pint and rotalls for one dollar per bottle ; the mediums hold at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, rotalls for three dollars a bottle, the large holds a quart forty per cent. more in proportion and retails for three dollars a bottle. A DBSPATCH received to day states that it is reported in Washington that the Prison-ers taken in the battle of Mannassas Junc-tion have been murdered, that the wounded Soldiers who were left by the wayside were bayonetted, and the hospitals wherein the sick were placed have been burnt. We are sick were placed have been burnt. We are not prepared to credit a report of the kind unless received from some more reliable sorce, our readers know that the Telegraph-ic wires have all along been used merely to circulate sensation reports and keep the people's mind in a state of excitement, and may naturally enough come to the conclu-sion that the news received to day is noth-ing but a report without a shadow of foun-dation whatever, circulated to excite a feel-ing of revenge in the minds of the Northern sick were placed have been burnt.
