

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

PENNSYLVANIA 88
In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of said Commonwealth.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS Every good gift is from above and comes down to us from the Almighty, to whom it is most, right and the bounden duty of every people to render thanks for His mercies; Therefore, I, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do recommend to the people of this Commonwealth, that they set apart THURSDAY, 28th of NOVEMBER NEXT, as a day of solemn Thanksgiving to God, for having prepared our corn and watered our furrows, and blessed the labor of the husbandman, and crowned the year with His goodness, in the increase of the ground, and the gathering in of the fruits thereof, so that our barns are filled with plenty, and for having looked favorably on this Commonwealth, and strengthened the bars of her gates, and blessed the children of the land, and made men to be of one mind, and preserved peace in her borders; Beseeching Him also on behalf of these United States, that our beloved country may have deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith she is compassed, and that the loyal men now biding in the field for her life may have their arms made strong and their blows heavy, and may be shielded by His Divine power, and that He will mercifully avert the outrages of the perverse, violent, ungodly and rebellious people, and make them obedient, and renew a right spirit within them, and give them grace that may see the error of their ways and bring forth fruits meet for repentance, and hereafter, in their loyalty and honesty, obediently walk in His holy commandments, and in submission to His just and manifest authority of the republic, so that we, leading a quiet and peaceful life, may continually offer unto Him our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 24th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the Commonwealth, the eighth A. G. CURTIN

BY THE GOVERNOR: ELI STIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth

WHAT THE MASSES OF THE ENGLISH PEOPLE THINK - A letter from an American in London in the New York Methodist contains this passage:

"The masses - the great middle class - the vast body of religious people in England - are, I believe, with us, heart and soul. It is true, these classes have little political power in the ordinary and peaceful workings of the British constitution. In quiet times a few aristocratic families govern the country pretty much as they please. But when ever a great crisis comes, and the middle class is thoroughly roused, its movement is majestic and overwhelming. The free trade struggle and the anti-slavery struggle are cases in point. Should the aristocratic party in England be impelled by its hatred, or its fear of Republican institutions, to commit the government to a decided policy against the United States, such as the breaking of the blockade, or the recognition of the slave confederacy, you may look for another movement of the British people, as grand and majestic as the two notable ones to which I have alluded."

EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION - A convention of persons officially connected with the various educational institutions of the State, has been called by the State Superintendent of Common Schools at Harrisburg, to commence on Tuesday, November 26, 1861, at 9 o'clock A. M. and to continue four days.

KENTUCKY SHARP SHOOTERS - A party of distinguished Kentuckians, among whom are Thomas H. Clay, son of Henry Clay, Colonel Thompson, Dr. Burk, and Colonel Philip S. White of your city, are about petitioning General McClellan for a privileged position in the army, to act as an advanced guard of sharpshooters, in time of battle. These gentlemen are all noted rifle shots, and in their own State have had great experience in deer hunting, to kill which game requires great steadiness of nerve and precision of aim. In the position applied for by them, they will be detailed for the purpose of picking off the leaders of the rebel forces. Such a combination is no doubt in existence in the rebel ranks at the present time, and it was to a member of this body that the lamented Colonel Baker doubtless owes his death, on the occasion of the late conflict at Ball's Bluff.

AN EVENTFUL DAY Monday, the 21st of October, will be noted in the history of the present rebellion as an eventful day. While our brave troops were being slaughtered at Ball's Bluff in Virginia, the rebel General Zollicoffer, with six thousand Tennessee secessionists at his back, made three separate attacks on Camp Wild Cat, in Kentucky, and each time was driven back by General Garrard, with twelve hundred Union men. On that day, also, two thousand five hundred Union troops, under command of Colonel Plummer, encountered a body of rebels estimated at five thousand, commanded by Generals Thompson and Lowe, at Fredericktown, Missouri, and completely routed them. It may be a source of gratification to know that, while the gallant Colonel Baker was giving his life to his country at Ball's Bluff, the rebel General Lowe fell at the battle of Fredericktown.

ONE of our exchanges has discovered the cause of the retreat of our army at Bull Run. It says "when the battle was at its hottest point and nearly won to our side there came word that there were two vacancies in New York Custom House. Hence the stampede of the leading officers. The men followed.

LOCAL MATTERS.

KNITTING SOCIETY - The following is a correct list of the donations handed in to the President of the Bellefonte Society since the 21st ult. The socks will be sent this week to Harrisburg, and all that are sent in hereafter, will be duly forwarded:

Table with columns: SOCKS GIVEN, PAIR, and names of donors including Rev. J. H. Barnard, Mrs. J. E. Field, Mrs. J. Paicini, etc.

WALKER

Table with columns: PAIR, and names of donors including Mrs. Snavely, Hecia Furnace, etc.

REGULARS ABOUT - Our borough seems to be infested with a gang of burglars, who depend upon their sturgeons for a living, and they have become exceedingly annoying to our citizens of late. A few evenings since a number of petty robberies were committed, and others attempted. Clothes lines and cellars seem to command their special care, and several of our citizens have suffered in these departments by their incursions. The clothes line of the Pennsylvania House is entirely stripped. Rev. Thomas Sherbeck's cellar was entered and some provisions taken, and other depredations of like character committed. An attempt was made to rob the Shoe Store of Thomas Burdette, but the burglars seem to have been frightened away before they had succeeded in removing anything. Any property accessible to these marauders, had better be watched.

TO EPICURIANS - Lovers of good oysters will be gratified to learn that Mr. George Downing, the proprietor of Logan Saloon, is daily receiving supplies of this highly palatable luxury from the east. It is feared at one time that the rebels would place an embargo on the oyster trade in the Chesapeake, but Uncle Sam has dispelled our fears on that subject by his occupation of the Bay, and the trade goes on as flourished as ever, and everybody goes to the Logan Saloon to enjoy the benefits of the protection thus afforded.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER - Intelligence has reached this place of the death of James Tammany, a young man at one time well known to our citizens, at Crawfordville, Indiana, on the 20th ult. He was in the army during the three months service, and was at the battle of Rich Mountain, in West Virginia. While in the army he contracted the disease that has since resulted in his death.

SINGING SCHOOLS

No duty is more imperatively enjoined upon parents than the musical education of their children. Probably any other talent with which we are endowed, can be neglected with as much propriety as music, and to its careful cultivation the greatest care should be devoted. Mr. Meyer is now engaged in giving lessons in music in this place, and our citizens will find this a favorable opportunity to give their children the advantage of this branch of education. Mr. Meyer stands high in his profession.

A LARGE Calf - Mr. Samuel Gilliland of Harris Township informs us that his celebrated Devonshire cow had a calf a few days since, which when eight hours old weighed 122 pounds. This is hard to beat.

CASSIUS M. CLAY - It is said that Cassius M. Clay our minister to Russia has intimated to the Government that in view of the threatening attitude of the rebels he would prefer to surrender his present commission as our representative to Russia, and enter the army in active defence of the Government, and that the President and Cabinet have the subject under consideration. The indomitable bravery of Mr. Clay, and his well known character at home would be of great service to our cause in Kentucky. But he would never consent to fight for anything short of liberty, and that might not be agreeable to a portion of our army.

SEALED ORDERS - Washington letters say Army movements are now made under sealed orders, so that a regiment leaves a bag without giving any intimation of its destination to those who have been its comrades; and in several instances officers who have come into the city on a twenty-four hour's furlough have found it no easy task to find their comrades again. This shows that the General commanding is going the army of the Potomac into fighting trim and preparing for a campaign. Every officer and man knows that he is well cared for, and is ready to unhesitatingly obey orders - stopping for no explanations - suggesting no changes - but ready to go ahead!

THE committee appointed to open the returns of the army vote in Philadelphia have discovered a package purporting to be the vote of the Thirty-ninth regiment which is evidently a clumsy attempt at fraud. This return is signed by William Shumpeffer as Colonel, when the name of the Colonel of the regiment is A. Shummelpheng, and gives a large majority to the Republican ticket electing Mr. Thompson sheriff and defeating Mr. Basing. The regiment commanded by Colonel Shummelpheng was recruited to Allegheny county and returned their vote to that county. This attempt at fraud is too transparent to deceive.

MURDER AT WASHINGTON - Thomas Morris, an Irishman, was arrested in Washington on Friday night for the murder of his wife. The body of the woman was found lying on the floor of her house dead, with several wounds on the head inflicted by a sharp instrument. The murderer was sent to jail.

The Huntington Journal says that the growth of the granite hills in that county has been so rank that the farmers had resorted to the expedient of pasturing it down for fear of its becoming so far advanced as to be injured by late spring frosts. The grain in this county never presents a finer appearance at this time of year.
