TANDER SALDELLA. The Monitor and Merrimae. BY THE CLOTHING EMPORIUM.

Potter,

A ship controlte 1 By rebels bold— The Merrimat by name— Cane out to meet The Yankee fleet. Unchecked by fear or shame.

Her iron sides The balls defied Which at her ribs did knock ; They would rebount With ratiling sound. Like brickbats from a rock

But to attack The Merrimae The Monitor came out ; The kard shells too In minutes few The rebels did ront.

Thus ships are best

Inus surps are loss Iniron dressel; But men who broadcloth wear Should make a call At A. Sternberg & Co's Hall, To view one of the largest Spring stocks there, Ever brought to this town. It will be sold at Wholesale and Retail, from thirty to forty per cent cheaper than any other house can sell it.— Saits made to order; then we are directly connec-ted with a City Cothing Manufactory, and able to give the bargains we promise.
