

THE DICTATOR'S ORDER.

We publish on the outside of to-day's paper, an order from Abram Lincoln, dictator of the military despotism which has been established upon the ruins of the once proud happy and free Republic of America, declaring martial law over all the territory under his jurisdiction, and suspending the writ of Habeas Corpus in all cases where arrests are made under this order. This is completed another act in the drama of despotism which has been playing upon the stage of our national existence for the past year; thus ends another chapter in the history of the downfall of the American Republic; thus has another chain been forged to bind the victims of a damnable conspiracy as Hell itself could want. Freeman? NO, ye are that no longer, friends we may call you, for all are friends in adversity, read the order, read it carefully and weigh it well. Answer us, then, where are the liberties bought you by the blood of your forefathers? where are the blessings guaranteed you by the Constitution of your country? where is the glory that has encircled the Stars and Stripes, the emblem of American liberty? where is that bright place that our Poets have sang Peans to, "The Land of the free, and the Home of the brave?" Tell us, ye who once boasted of the glories of your institutions! ye whose fathers fell at Bunker Hill, Saratoga, Valley Forge or Brandywine, that you might enjoy the freedom which they sought. Answer us if you can.

Great God! to what a pass have we, who were once American Freeman come! we who have basked in the blessings of a government founded by a Washington, cherished by a Jefferson and strengthened by a Jackson, a government that has been lauded for its many virtues, praised for its "equal and exact justice" and honored by all for the protection vouchsafed to its citizens by the strong arm of the law.

We can scarcely believe, yet it is so, that the writ of Habeas Corpus has been suspended in the old Keystone State. Thus has every one of her citizens been made subject to seizure and imprisonment to military trial and ignominious death WITHOUT EVEN THE FORM OF LAW OR CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY, in direct and open violation of the Constitution, (for which we are told our armies are battling) which says: "No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on the presentment or indictment of a GRAND JURY except in cases arising in the LAND OR NAVAL FORCES, or in the MILITIA when in actual service in time of war or public danger." And that "The Trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, SHALL BE BY JURY: and such trial shall BE HELD IN THE STATE where the said crimes shall have been committed."

Why has the Constitution thus been trampled upon? why are the people of this and other Northern States robbed of their dearest rights? Pennsylvania is not in a state of Rebellion, neither are her civil authorities interfered with. Then why should martial law be declared while her courts of justice are open? Do those in power believe the people to be cowering slaves that will fawn at the foot of a despot? do they think they can shackle the minds, lock the lips or enslave the strong arm of those who have tasted of the sweets of American liberty? Let their actions answer—whether American citizens will submit like cringing sycophants to be thus over ridden and crushed to the earth, will be answered on the Second Tuesday of October.

Centre County.

This old Democratic county, which has always given her eight hundred majority with one or two exceptions, is right side up. The news from different parts of the county is of the most cheering character, and we have no hesitancy in saying that we can poll ONE THOUSAND MAJORITY this fall.—Democra's those of you who are always found active, see that your neighbor is out on the day of election—let no one neglect so important an election; but one and all rally round the Democratic Ticket—and send to Bellefonte such an evidence of Democracy, as that all may learn that old Centre is true, unwavering, and despises disorganizing factions. Remember the motto of the Democratic party—"Union, harmony, self-denial—everything for the cause—nothing for men."

How to A Card.

To Edward C. Humes, J. M. McCoy, Geo. Boal, Moses Thompson, George Livingston and H. N. M'Allister.

GENTLEMEN:—You have published and circulated a hand-bill, with the caption, "To the Republicans of this Congressional District," in which you say that "No fact will be stated not known to some of the undersigned, with most of them we all are conversant. The day previous to the meeting of the Democratic Conference to nominate a candidate for Congress, a proposition was made by men of that party of the highest character and influence, that if Mr Hale would consent to be a candidate without any party nomination it was believed the Democratic Conference could be induced to make none." And again you say, "The contingency of a refusal on the part of the candidates or conferees to accede to the offer was suggested by the gentlemen of the Democratic party then present, who said it would not do to let their conferees adjourn without making a nomination, if there would be any uncertainty about Mr. Hale being a candidate." We believe we have quoted you truthfully and would ask you to answer us honestly and fairly. If you do not, then your circular is a falsehood and a slander, when you say, "that men" (of the Democratic party) "of the highest character and influence" preferred Mr. Hale to one of their own party before the Conference met, and that "the Democratic Conference as is well known met the next day and adjourned sine die, without making any nomination thus performing their part in good faith. Now we deny that Messrs Hoover, Alexander and Fisher, (the Democratic Conferees) at their second meeting agreed to adjourn sine die; (Mr. Fisher was not present at all) and we deny that Mr. Hoover, Alexander, or any other Democrat of high character and influence" in Centre County, asserted that if "Mr. Hale would consent to be a candidate without any party nomination it was believed the Democratic conferees could be induced to make none." We ask you in all candor, to give us the names of those "Democrats of the highest character and influence" in Centre County to whom you thus clandestinely refer?—From your standing in society, both moral and political, we can scarcely believe that you will refuse to let us know who they are, and we will judge them.

We address you candidly and if you answer us, we will be pleased to give your reply due and friendly consideration—if not we shall consider it a political trick and treat it accordingly.

Many Democrats of MILES GREGG and POTTER.

A REPUBLICAN EXEMPT.—Surgeon—What is the matter with you?

W.—Would-be Exempt—Weak back, sir—very weak back, and I am a Republican.

S.—Weak knees, you mean.

W.—Yes, sir, weak knees—very weak knees—can't march.

S.—Yes, I'll give you what you require—a certificate. (Writes.)

"Upon honor, I hereby certify that the bearer, a good Republican, is weak in the knees, a great coward, and shrinks from the defence of his country. Hope he will be put in the front ranks where he can't run away. —Surgeon," &c.

W.—(Handing the surgeon a quarter) I thank you, sir. I knew I was entitled to a certificate. This rebellion, so wicked and monstrous, must be put down. It has done my heart good to see the energy of the President in ordering a draft.

(Here he reads the certificate and at once faints.)

In 1855, Rufus Choate, in speaking of abolitionism, said: "The basis of organization is reciprocal sectional hate. To form and heighten this, to fortify and justify it, to show that it is moral and necessary and brave, the whole vast energy of party tactics is to be put in request. If the ingenuity of hell were tasked for a device to alienate and rend asunder our immature and artificial nationality, it would devise nothing so effectual."

There should be but one party in the country now," say Republicans. Very well.

Now prove your consistency by deserting all other organizations, and joining the only party which can ever carry on the nation successfully—the party which was born almost with its birth, and which will live when you and we are in our graves—the great Democratic party.
