TA destructive fire occurred in Lewis town on the night of the 11 h inst., we un. town on the night of the l1 h inst., we understand, in the stable belonging to Mayes's libitel, and could not be stopped until the flames had consumed seven stables, ten have and other property, to a considerab': amount.

Friend L. N. A. we are sorry to inform you that there is not a No. of last weeks issue except the regular file papers left in the office. Although we worked off several more quires than usual they were all ordered before your kind letter was received. ordered before your kind letter was received.

We learn through Mr. Willard, the Gentlemanly conductor on the Bald Eagle Valley Rail Road, that the up train narrow ly escaped a serious accident at Bald Eagle Furnace. As oar team, crossing the track was struck by the Locomotive, killing the horses, and injuring the driver. Persons aiong the Rail Road should be careful.

RETURNED .- Lieut. Neil Harrold, of this place, who belongs to the 45th Reg. P. V., has returned to his home, having resigned his commission. Neil looks good and, we have no doubt, feels good in being once more among his old friends in Centre county. He has had quite a campaign of it, having been in the army ever since the war commenced. We congratulate him on his

On Tuesday night last, about eight o'clock the quietness of ou town was disturbed by the alarming cry of "fire." The distructive conflagrations that have lately taken place in Lock Haven and Lewistown, aroused the fears of all that Bellfonte was to be visited dy the same frightful scenes, and every one able to move, ran, helter-skelter, to the scene of danger, which proved, howevery the transfer of the transfer of the person finding said Pocket-book will please every one able to move, ran, helter-skelter, to the scene of danger, which proved, however the finder.

Price, the "celebrated" horse-tamer. was in town this week, and drew quita a crowd, of all sorts and sizes. What the abilities of this man are, in the horse-taming line, we are not able to say, as his performances, did not come under our personal observation, save in one or two instances when the animals were not very unmanage-when the animals were not very unmanage-when Report speaks favorably of him, howabie. Report speaks favorably of him, how ever, and those who have fractious horses or mules might give him a trial. This is the age of humbuggery, and if this man should turn out a humbug, we should not be a all surprised. We doubt very much if another Rarey is living.

Since the removal of Gen. McClellan, the army of the Potomac, under the comthe army of the Potomac, under the command of Gen. Burnside, has achieved nothing worthy of notice, except a most disastrous defeat at Fredericksburg. But not withstanding this calamity to our arms, Gen. Burnside thinks he will be able to retrieve the disaster as suon as he receives a simply of goods, and provisions from the supply of goods and provisions from the ebrated establishment of the Hoffer Brocelebrated establishment of the Hoffer Brothers, it this place, which is now being forwarded to him as rapidly as possible. And we would remark here that these gentlemen we would remark here that these gentlemen to the property of goods from the court of quarter Sessions of Centre are in weekly receipt of goods from the are in weekly receipt of goods from the cheapest and best markets in the country, and are now engaged in selling with he urost unexampled rapidity.
