should be read in connection, though either of them is complete in itself. The Watchman's contributors are just beginning to wake up and we point with some pride to the quantity of original matter which we present to our readers t its week. We do not expect it to stop here, but intend that it shall go on urtil the Watchman becomes the best original paper in the State.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY which Jan 23, 1832, -3t. day evening last, was attended by a large NEW PLOUGHS. day evening last, was attended by a large and highly appreciative audience, who evinced their gratification by numerous bursts of applause. We understand that the school realized about thirty dollars from the proceeds, which, in these hard times, will be quite an important addi ion to its treasury. The anniversary exercises were well conducted throughout and some of the pieces were more than ordinarily well performed. To Rev. Mr. Bowman, Mr. Stitzer, Mr. Yeager and Mrs. Ward, the community is mainly indebted for the entertainment which has passed off so pleasantly, and to them, on passed off so pleasantly, and to them, on well as profitable, and we hope this one will not be the last of the kind.

We had intended to notice particularly, some of the pieces and performers, but it might, perhaps, be unwise to mention the few, where all did so well, and, therefore, we will not attempt to carry out that intention.

We cannot, however, fortear to say a word in commendation of the last speech of the occasion, entitled "The Responsibilities of the American People," by Thomas J. Kurtz. We feel a degree of pride at Tom's anceess, as he is a member of the typographical fraternity of the Watchman office, and his speech was really well delivered.

We had intended to notice particularly, the last of the find the property of the security, and will make application at the January Term of said Court to garder Session structure.
