A Bully Fellow.

BY PUMP SUNKINS, ESQ. I've just come out to sing a song,
A song which is all truth, sirs;
And should I make a slight mistake,
You must know I'm but n youth, sirs!
Sternberg's a bully fellow

I yow I think I never saw A man of so much grace, sire.
Sternberg's a bully tellow You ask to see some of the goods
That on his shelves do shine, sirs.
And then you're bothered which to choose.
They're all so mighty fine, sirs.
Sternberg's a bully fellow.

And then he takes you round his store, And puts upon your head, sits, A bully hat, which makes you look Like one about to wed sirs. Steinberg's a bully fellow!

And so I tell you when you come,
Just bring along your purse, sirs,
For when you come into his store,
You'll go out none the worse, sirs.
Sternberg's a buily fellow

In fact, so well I know the man,

And now to see this famous man, And now to see this famous man,
I hope you all will go, sirs,
And if you're questioned why—just say
POMP SUNKINS told you so, sirs,
