Superintendent Eastern Division.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

☞Mr. McMahon, we preceive, has opened up shop, upon "his own hook." For neatness of work, and punctuality he cannot be surpassed in town. We wish him success.

—o—

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—David M. Butts has been appointed Conductor on the Snow Shoe railroad. This is indeed a good appointment; no more worthy man could have been selected for the position. Friend David, we congratulate you upon your good success.

—o—

☞ Not to be out done by the fire our enterprising friend Copenhaver of the Pennsylvania House, has procured sufficient stabling, to accomodate all who may favor him with their patronage during court or at other times.

—o—

DISGRACEFUL ROW.—The quiet slumbers of our peaceful citizens, were awak ned, on last Tuesday night, in the neighborhood of the conflagration, by a row among the "free Americans of African descent." One of "smokes" had his head cut pretty badly by brick. They kept it up until the "watchmen of the fire" thought proper to interere, when they (the "smokes") beat a hasty retreat.

—o—

☞ A Sternburg & Co., are now receiving, at the storeroom formerly occupied by Hoffer Bros., one of the largest, finest and best selected stock of ready made clothing and gents furnishing goods ever brought to this market. Having had many years experience in the business, and having bought his stock for cash, he is enabled to sell lower than any other house in Bellefonte. Every article needed for a complete outfit, of any kind of wear, from fine to common can be purchased cheaper at Sternburgs & Co., than at any house west of Philadelphia.

—o—

FIRE.—On Tuesday night last, about 9½ o'clock, our town was the scene of one of the largest conflagrations ever witnessed by the citizens of Bellefonte. The fire is said to have originated in the stable attached to the Pennsylvania House, the property of Mr. H. Brokerhoff. Notwithstanding the utmost exertions on the part of the citizens, to allay the fearful ravages of the destroyer, the flames soon spead to the stables belonging respectively, to Messrs. Brokerhoff, Wilson, Rothrock and Sussman, which, in a few moments, were enveloped in one sheet of flame. At one time the residences of Mr. Ammerman, Thomas Caldwell, John Awl, and Mrs. Nolan, were in great danger of sharing the same fate with the other already doomed buildings.

Mr. Brokerhoff sustains by far the heaviest loss. His stable contained some fifty or sixty sacks of salt, most of which was entirely consumed, and about fifty barrels of flour were also destroyed, besides losing a valuable cow and three hogs, which perished in the flames. By the merest accident he succeeded in extricating his horse from the interior of the burning building. Probably not less than three thousand dollars will cover Mr. Brokerhoff's loss. No insurance.

Mr. Copenhaver, by the utmost exertion, succeeded in getting all his stock (ten horses and a mule) from the scene of destruction in safety. His loss, including harness, hay and grain will not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars.

Mr. Sussman's loss is not as heavy as was at first supposed, the merchandise being very nearly all removed from his warehouse before the flames reached it; it will not amount to over three hundred dollars.

The stables belonging to Messrs. Wilson and Rothrock were both entirely consumed. The heat being so oppressive, that all endeavors to extinguish the fire proved unavailing. The total loss will not exceed, we suppose, four thousand dollars.

Never before have we witnessed such a grand turn out of the citizens of our borough; not only from this borough alone, but from the surrounding country—it attracted persons for miles around. Bishop and Spring streets were literally jammed with men, women and children, of every size, color and description, hatless, shoeless and stockingless. In fact, the scene beggars all description. The origin of the fire yet remains a mystery.

Great credit is due to the young men who acted in the capacity of "watchers of the fire," for the able manner in which they performed their duties,

Credit is also due to some of our gentlemen of color for the services they rendered on the occasion.

THE UNLUCKY COLD

To show what misery from a cold,
(Though 'tis in the head) may grow,
Young PETTIGRUEL did unfold
To us this story of his woe:—

"I wooed a lady, young and fair,
And half engaged we were to wed;
But ah! I caught from keen Marce air
A cold distressing, in my head.

"My reddened eyes streamed down with tears
However pleasant was my task;
My nose most bottle-like appears,
My voice seems smothered in a cask.

"I knew that this wretched plight
My looks won't quite repulsive seem;
And so I kept in from the sight
Of her who was my nightly dream.

"Another fellow seized the chance,
While I from Love stayed away,
And did so well his suit advance
That she has named the bridal day.

"He never had a cold I hear;
And must I tell the reason why?
At Sternberg's Hall he buys his gear,
And always has a good supply."

We have the largest assortment of Ready-made Clothing in Bellefonte, of every size, style and price, made in the best and most fashionable manner. Every one can be suited from our stock, whatever be his style. Our prices are much below market rates

A LECTURE TO YOUNG MEN.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price Six Cents.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility and Impediments to Marriage generally, Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, or Fits, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c.—By ROBT. J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the Green Book, &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-abuse may be removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This LECTURE will PROVE a BOON to THOUSANDS and THOUSANDS.

Sent under seal, to any address, in a plain, sealed envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps, by addressing

TO THE PUBLIC.

The inquiry is frequently made, "Where can smoke be obtained, as the giving may remain permanently on, with a filled with Apple-Butter or Milk—and, that which becomes sour or disagreeable, nor poisonous, the glazing of which has caused much disease, and frequently death?"

I take this opportunity of informing the public that I have sold apple-butter and Milk crocks during the last year, free from all obnoxious ingredients when placed in different places, to the undersigned named persons that cannot be excelled for quality and durability anywhere.

These crocks are glazed with the very best material, viz., Red Lead, Quartz, &c., and I also use the very best Ash Wood, by which I can burn the ware the hardest and most durable.

I learned the P
