

The Watchman.

P. GRAY MEEK, Editor.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, June 12, 1863.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

A meeting of the Democrats of Bellefonte township, held at the residence of Mr. M. J. ...

It is a glorious fight.

It is a glorious fight, that man have through all time and in all countries, ...

Week after week will pass away.

Week after week will pass away, and months will glide into years, and the Union will be severed, and the people of the South will be free.

There is a little brief authority.

There is a little brief authority, which will be compelled to change their tactics and give up the war.

Those of our readers who desire a copy of the four acts of Despotism.

Those of our readers who desire a copy of the four acts of Despotism, and of the Record of the Hon. C. L. Vallandigham, will send in their orders at once.

power that tramples on Constitutions and violates law.

power that tramples on Constitutions and violates law, may attempt to do away with that, and then all should be ready.

'This War Must Stop.'

'This War Must Stop.' Well, Seward's 'ninety days' have expired. Greeley's 'three months' have passed away.

Law and Order.

Law and Order. There has been a wonderful revolution in the tone of the abolition press on the subject of law in the last few days.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. The released prisoners from Richmond describe the situation at the rebel capital.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. The released prisoners from Richmond describe the situation at the rebel capital.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. The released prisoners from Richmond describe the situation at the rebel capital.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast.

Richmond and Washington - A Contrast. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Montgomery Blair's Confession.

Montgomery Blair's Confession. 'They (the people of the South) are endeavoring that slavery may be made the dominant principle in the new world.'

Montgomery Blair's Confession.

Montgomery Blair's Confession. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Montgomery Blair's Confession.

Montgomery Blair's Confession. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Montgomery Blair's Confession.

Montgomery Blair's Confession. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Montgomery Blair's Confession.

Montgomery Blair's Confession. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Montgomery Blair's Confession.

Montgomery Blair's Confession. We confess we do not see the comic side of the situation.

Capital.

Capital. Speaking of the same meeting in New York, one of the papers of that city, which may be described as resolutely neutral.

Capital.

Capital. There is in this startling significance to our minds the hint of danger from disloyal labor than from the present manhood of 'capital.'

Capital.

Capital. What becomes of that uncertain thing called wealth, when currency collapses and credit vanishes?

Capital.

Capital. A new reign of gold is to be inaugurated. The League of Nations is both terrible and grotesque in earnest.

Capital.

Capital. The railway companies are to reduce their fares so as to encourage immigration.

Capital.

Capital. We think the time fully come to demand of Lincoln's Administration whether it proposes to make war on the Northern States.

It is destined to a bloody ending!

It is destined to a bloody ending! We are law-abiding. We will retreat from conflict, 'even to the wall!'

'The Exile.'

'The Exile.' Here is a new term in American history. Heretofore we have boasted of using only government on earth where the oppressed of all nations could find a welcome.

VALLANDIGHAM AGAINST THE ABOLITIONISTS.

VALLANDIGHAM AGAINST THE ABOLITIONISTS. Vallandigham's attitude towards the Southern Secessionists is a subject of great interest.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE ROOT AND HERB DOCTOR. PHILADELPHIA. CONRAD HOUSE, BELLEFONTE.

BUREAUS.

BUREAUS. SOFAS, LOUNGES, HAT RACKS, WHAT-NOTS, EXTENSION TABLES, CHAIRS, STOOLS.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE. By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Centre county, will be exposed to public sale at the Court House in the borough of Bellefonte, Pa.