LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

☞ The Bellefonte and Snow Shoe, railroad, have placed upon their track a new and handsome locomotive.

☞ C. Buffington, Adjutant of the 179th Regiment, P. M., has been promoted to assistant Adjutant General of the 2d Brigade 1st Division of the 4th Army Corps. No better selection for this position could have been made.

☞ It will not be necessary for any person who is enrolled to establish his claim for exemption, until he receives a printed notice, informing him that he has been drafted, and then he will have ten days to show that he is not liable, or able to perform military service.

☞ On Saturday evening last, we were made the recipient of a superb cake from a lady, we presume, of Bellefonte, done up very nicely, bearing the following inscription:

A COPPERHEAD'S
REWARD.

Our thanks and best wishes for the welfare and future prosperity of the donor, are hereby returned.

☞ We had quite an exciting time upon our streets the other evening in consequence of an argument between a Democrat and two or three "must support the Administration men." The Democrat talked his case up admirably, denouncing the many unconstitutional acts of the Administration, the illegal arrests and imprisonments of loyal citizens without trial, judge or jury. Being a man not ashamed of the truth, he spoke it out boldly and plainly, which touched the dark spots in our colored loving friends. But such men are traitors and copperheads. Men who love the Union as it was, and the blood-bought emblem of American Liberty—the Star Spangled Banner are traitors, men who wish to see the Constitution upheld and respected, and the oaths that were registered in heaven to its support not violated, are traitors; men who would prefer seeing the negroes in slavery, to his brother murdered and his bones left bleach on the soil of Virginia, are traitors; men who wish to proclaim peace, and send a thrill of joy to every heart in the land and bring happiness and prosperity again to the land, are traitors. If this be treason, we ask no other glory but the name.

In accordance with the call made on Monday, for the purpose of raising a number of men to repel the invasion of the State, quite a number of the citizens, both of the county and town, assembled at the Court House on Tuesday night.

The meeting was called to order, when the following officers were elected by acclamation:

President.—Andrew Gregg.

Vice Presidents.—James Armor, James Gordon, Richard Miles, Alexander Miller, Thomas Caldwell and ——.

Secretaries.—Dr. Mitchell and William Shortlidge.

The object of the meeting was then stated by the President, when Mr. H. N. McAllister read a telegraphic correspondence between the Governor and himself, to the effect that he should send on as many men as could be raised and as quickly as possible. The men are called for no stipulated time, but only during the present emergency.

The following is the muster roll of the company:

hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys. MANHOOD, how lost, how restored, the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa, or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally, nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WILLIAM YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their off spring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given.—It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know, still it is a book that must be locked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage stamps. Address DR. Wm. YOUNG, No. 416, Spruce street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks native or foreign—who in this or any other country get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many dollars, your health, and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publication, at his office No. 416, Spruce Street, above Fourth, Phila.—Office hours from 9 to 6 daily.

STERNBERG HALL.

BY PUMP SUNKINS, E Q.

Some time ago, I told the folks,
About a man in town, sirs,
Who kept a clothing store so grand,
And did the thing up brown, sirs.

Now, this same man has moved his store,
From Diamond down the street sirs
And now, next door to Conrad House,
He's got things mighty neat sirs.

At Reynold's Arcade, where all
The folks do congregate sirs,
You'll find our Sternberg's Clothing Hall,
With everything first-rate sirs.

There coats and pants and hats
And shirts and boots and shoes, sirs
Are piled up so tapered tremendously,
You scarce know what to choose, sirs

I tell you now it's mighty grand,
To go into his shop sirs,
And see, piled up on every hand,
Things nice as any top, sirs,

And then Sternberg, he scrapes around,
And bows and acts polite, sirs,
And asks you if you ever found
Goods half so strong and bright, sirs

And then you're bound to praise his goods,
Because, to tell the truth sirs,
There's never goods like them to be seen
In town, by age or youth sirs.

☞ Besides, they're all so mighty cheap
And good, and clean and new, sirs:
For, should you turn and leave his store,
You certainly would rue, sirs,

That you did not a whole suit buy
From this great clothing man, sirs.
Who'd sell you clothing cheaper, far,
Than any one else can sirs

So here's to Sternberg—may he live
Forever and a day, sirs.
And when he dies, we hope he'll find
A soft place for to lay, sirs.

And on his grave, mid flowers bright,
Beneath which he shall sleep sirs,
We'll place a stone, whereon we'll write,
"He sold goods mighty cheap," sirs.
