LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Ten new contrabands have arrived in town within the last couple of days. Let them come; we suppose our republican friends will receive them with open arms and gushing hearts.

Ira C. Mitchell, our former townman, but now of Wilkesbarre, is on a visit to his friends in this county. Mr. Mitchell is a sound lawyer and a good Democrat, and intends to do yeoman service for Judge Woodward this fall.

Capt. Frank Houston, who left this county with a company of militiamen, has been made Lieutenant Colonel of the regiment. This will gratify the friends of the Captain, and we hope he may prove himself worthy of the position.

On our outside to-day will be found a beautiful copy, entitled "Entanglement," from our talented contributor, John P. Mitchell. We commend it to the attention of our readers as a composition of more than ordinary merit, containing the ring of true prophetic genius.

The body of Capt. R. M. Foster, killed at the battle of Gettysburg, arrived in this place on Tuesday, on its way to his home, near the Farm School, where it will be interred. The Captain was a brave man and fell like a hero. Peace to his ashes.

CLOTHING RETURNED.—The friends of the soldiers who left this county in the late militia companies, called out for the defence of the State, are hereby notified that the clothes which they took away with them have been returned to Belleville, and can be obtained by calling either at the Prothonotary's, Register's or Treasurer's office.

A valuable cow, belonging to Mr. Copenhaver proprietor of the "Pennysylvania House," in this place, was yesterday run over by the locomotive at the depot, breaking one of her limbs. We learn that the leg has set, and the poor creature may probably recover. We do not know who is to blame in the matter.

Business in town just now is extremely dull, and everything wears a listless and saddened aspect. The war absorbs all thoughts, and sorrowful hearts are everywhere throbbing heavily. We hope the Almighty in his goodness and mercy, will bring terrible struggle to a close, before many days, and restore to our country its former happiness and prosperity, and to our people their smiling faces and joyful hearts.

Three militia companies from this county, namely, Captain Snyder's, Captain Bohl's and Captain Thomas's formerly Captain Huston's, are now stationed in Huntington. The men are all well and in good spirits, and appear to be well satisfied with the arrangements for their convenience and comfort. A number of our citizens have been to see them lately, and found them flourishing finely.

A number of our citizens have just returned from viewing the battle-field at Gettysburg, and express themselves as much impressed by the scenes then presented by that bloody field. Numbers of dead men were yet unburied, and fragments of the battle were strewn in every direction. Dead horses were everywhere, and the stench is described as almost intolerable. Gettysburg is from any more such awful scenes.

NEW PAYMENT.—A new patent payment has been laid from the residence of Mrs. Sourbeck, on Bishop street, extending around the corner of Allegheny to the salldery establishment of Harvey McCreary. This is a great improvement on the abominable old concern that formerly disgraced that portion of our town, and adds much to the appearance of, and comfort of pedestrians in that locality. Patent payments had fair to become an institution of our town, as the more that is seen of them, the better they are liked. If laid in the right way, with the proper elements properly commingled, they become as hard as a rock, and are far superior to either brick or stone. We hope soon to see them laid in all our streets.
