

The Watchman.

The following is the schedule of time of closing the mails on the different routes leaving this place...

RAILROAD ROUTES. Bellefonte and Snow Shoe, leave Bellefonte at 7 A. M. ... STAGE ROUTES. Stages for Tyrone, via Half Moon, leave on Mondays...

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Progressing slowly - The new Reservoir. We can't say whether it will be finished this fall or not. ... The rate of Confirmation will be administered at the Catholic Church...

We would call the attention of our readers to the appointments of Democratic meetings to be held throughout the county, published in another column.

Don't forget that one of the largest mass meetings ever held in this county, will come off at Pleasant Gap, on Friday next. Let the Democrats throughout the county turn out.

We had a dish of splendid fresh oysters at the Logan Saloon, the other night. McFeters keeps good oysters and knows what to put on the table to make one relish them.

Dr. George L. Potter, of this place, now surgeon in the regular army, is at home on a visit to his family. We are sorry to learn that the Doctor is suffering from a severe rheumatism.

Local news and Curtin men are exceedingly scarce about "these diggings" at this time. Locals may get more abundant, but Curtinists, we think, will remain like angels' visits, "few and far between."

Our friend, Jerry Tolak, has purchased the eating and drinking saloon formerly owned by Mr. Stover, on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets. Jerry is a good fellow, and we know he will do a good business.

A drove of cattle in passing along Spring street the other day, accidentally broke through the new sewer to which it alluded last week as having been built in that locality. We learn that the damage has since been repaired.

Blowing out a candle. - There is one small fact in domestic economy which is not generally known, but is useful, as saving time, temper and trouble. If the candle be blown out holding it above you, the wax will not smother down, and may be easily lighted again; but if blown upon downward the contrary is the case.

A Sternberg & Co. have just received the largest and best selected assortment of ready-made clothing for fall and winter ever brought to this town. Persons who wish to be rigged out in a suit fashionable and good, at prices astonishingly low, should call at Sternberg's.

Next week a new ballad on Sternberg Hall, by "Pumpkinkins, Esq.," will make its appearance.

Reading Association. The Bellefonte Reading Association being about to re-organize for the coming winter, a full attendance of the members is desired this evening at the Reading Room. At last meeting of the Association it was determined that all those who did not attend the next stated meeting, would be considered as no longer belonging to the Association, and their names be stricken from the roll accordingly. We hope, therefore, to see a full attendance to-night.

Memoranda. - In speaking of the Iron City College of Pittsburg, Pa., the well known author and distinguished accountant, John Fleming, who has had a practical business experience of over forty years standing, says: "I am acquainted with a great many of the Graduates of this College, yet I never knew one who was not an accomplished accountant and a skillful book-keeper." This, though high praise, is well deserved, for it is now pretty generally known and admitted, that the Iron City College has no equal in this country as a first class Commercial School.

To OUR MERCHANTS. - As the season for fall trade is fast approaching, we would remind those having cards and advertisements in our paper, to make such alterations as they see proper.

Let us remind our friends who are still living "within a shell," to unfurl their banners to the breeze and let the country know where they are and what they are doing. Besides the benefit which must necessarily result from this course to proper trade, it looks liberal and sociable, and begets an acquaintance that naturally respects you. To all attention of those wanting articles in the varied departments of trade.

And when he goes to praise his goods, Because, to tell the truth, sir, There's never goods like them to be seen, In town, by age or youth, sir.

That you did not a whole suit buy, From his great shop, sir, Who'd sell you clothing cheaper, far, Than any one else can, sir.

So here's to Sternberg - may he live Forever and a day, sir, And when he dies, we hope he'll find A soft place for to lay, sir.
