

The Democratic Watchman

NO. 37.

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2, 1863.

VOL. 8.

The Muse.

Written for the Watchman.
O NEVER SING THAT SONG AGAIN!

BY JONAS H. WOODWARD.

Oh, never sing that song again,
Its words I would not hear,
Its never sang without a sigh,
Nor heard without a tear.

Was Mary sung that song for me,
When all was life and joy,
When naught of care or misery,
Our pleasures could allow.

How sad to think the fairest rose
That bloomed throughout fair May,
Is withered first by Autumn's blast,
And borne from earth away.

The tale too sad for lips to speak,
Hath sent a shiver through my heart,
The noblest heart that throbbed on earth,
Is hushed in death to-day.

Memory brings too great a grief
For human hearts to bear,
The star that lit my path through life
Has set in deep despair.

You'd never wake that strain again
Of joys foregone gone,
Knew you but half the grief it brings
To be as again that song.

But Mary, from her home of bliss,
Hath sent a shiver through my heart,
Her angel voice breathes soft the words:
"I'm living in your heart!"

The trust heart must cease to throbb,
And each glad hope must die;
For all that's known of bliss below
Is borrowed from on high.

For each sad note the heart hath known,
For every tear that troubles down,
A joy is found in Heaven!

The loving heart that grief hath broke,
Hath strain too sad to bear,
But mortal tongue hath never spoke
The language of that heart.

There's one bright hope to cheer me on
When life's end dream is o'er,
To dwell on high in love and peace,
With Mary, evermore.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 25th, 1862.

Kind Words.

Respectfully Inscribed to Mrs. S. C. H. of Belleville, with the best wishes of the Author.

BY JONAS H. WOODWARD.

When peace, well earned, is kindly given,
It is a blessed thing,
A flower which has its birth in heaven,
Where all our blessings spring.

But flattery has a breathless power,
And o'er its sweetest smile,
The darkest shadow of falsehood looms,
To ruin and beguile.

Kind words are only worth bestowing,
When prompted by the heart;
When from the soul's pure fountain flowing
Without a touch of art.

Kind words, thus sent, have magic power
To hush and soothe to rest;
To brightly paint life's darkest hour,
And soothe the anxious breast.

With falseless laurel, dying—never,
As lights that burn on high,
Within the heart they live and glow,
When transient pleasure dies.

And though this heart we feel the pleasure
Which from the song is shining,
Kind words of this kind in treasure,
Which thrill its deepest strings.

When other pleasures all are dying,
That other sources give,
The lightning hand of death defying,
Such words as these will live.

And when life's ocean threatens loudest,
And deep is the maze,
Above the storm will gleam the promise,
Thy work of kindly praise.

May friends be on thy path forever,
And all thy life with love;
And may the light that death shall never,
Be formed, once more, above!

HOWARD, Pa., Sept. 25th, 1862.

Miscellaneous.

NAILED TO THE COUNTER.

Judge Woodward's appointees are not content to employ ordinary methods of misrepresentation in their warfare against him. It is base enough to publish garbled extracts from a long speech, and, by suppressing the context, to convey a false notion of his meaning, and it is mean enough to bolster up his weakness by bogus certificates from men of character and position but it was worse for N. B. Browne to claim a long intimacy with Judge Woodward and to invent a conversation between Judge Woodward and his son, Major George A. Woodward, such as is spoken of in the letter which we publish below. A better illustration of the utterly unscrupulous character of the assaults upon Judge Woodward could not be had than is given in the slanders of Dr. T. J. Bigham. At a large Republican meeting, which was held in the city of Pittsburg, on the 15th instant this man asserted, of his own knowledge, that after the battle of Gettysburg Judge Woodward told his eldest son that instead of being wounded in the foot he ought to have been wounded in the heart for fighting for such a cause. This statement was published in the Pittsburg papers, and of course the attention of Major Woodward was soon called to it. The character of the slander left him no alternative. It was due to himself and to his father that the statement should be immediately contradicted, and accordingly he at once penned the letter, of which we subjoin a copy. We cannot recall in the history of partisan warfare a more disgraceful outrage upon the feelings of an honorable gentleman than this fabrication of Bigham, and we very much mistake the character of the people of Pennsylvania if this and other kindred attacks do not recoil upon the heads of those from whom they emanate. Engaged in an effort to throw the restraints of the laws and the Constitution in the matter of government, these people seem to be equally regardless of the obligations of honor and truth. To stain their object they shrink from no villainy, and unfortunately they are not always expected as completely as they have been in this instance. Major Woodward, who was practicing law at our bar when the war broke out, is a gentleman of high character and attainments, and we are happy to know that, since he has been in the service, he has done as much hard fighting as any officer in the army of the Potomac. In selecting him as the weapon with which to wound Woodward, Mr. Bigham made a very bad choice, and committed a great blunder.

It should be added that as the statement, which is thus contradicted, has been extensively copied, common decency demands that the Republican organs should give equal publicity to this letter, in contradiction of it. We trust, however, that none of our readers will suppose that we expected to see common decency exhibited by Governor Curtin or any of his friends in this context. Contrived forgers and confessed slanderers, they will not be so inconsistent with themselves as to aid in the exposure of falsehood.

MEMORIALS DEPOT CAMP INVALID COMPANY.
MERRIDIAN HILL, D. C. Sep. 23, '63.
Mr. T. J. Bigham, Pittsburg Pa.:

Sir: I have noticed in the newspapers a report of a man named Judge Woodward, who had been wounded in the foot, and who was reported to have said, in response to an inquiry of one Matthew, as to whether Woodward (meaning Judge Woodward, the Democratic nominee for Governor), was when Curtin was attending to the soldiers' wounds at Gettysburg, that Judge Woodward's gallant son came home from Gettysburg, wounded in both legs, his father told him he would be thankful he got off so well—that he ought to have been wounded in the heart for fighting in such a cause.

As my only brother capable of bearing arms who has made two campaigns with the State Militia, has never been wounded I presume that I am the son of Judge Woodward alluded to in the foregoing statement, which statement I desire to brand as a wicked and deliberate falsehood. A cause so weak as to need such assistance must be weak indeed. A man so lost to honor and decency as to use such means for partisan ends deserves to be drummed out of respectable company.

The Lieutenant Colonel commanding the 24 Pennsylvania Reserve, I participated in the battle of Gettysburg, but was fortunate enough to escape unharmed, except a slight injury to my right foot, in which I had been wounded during the Pennsylvania campaign.

Just after the fall of Sumter, in the Spring of 1861, finding that war between the two great sections of our common country, was inevitable, under the call of the President for three years' volunteers I raised a company in Philadelphia, which afterwards became incorporated in the 8th Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves. Any one familiar with the business of raising volunteer organizations knows it is an expensive undertaking. Every cent that my company cost, with the exception of the small amount that my limited means enabled me to devote to the purpose, came from my father, Judge Woodward. During all the time that elapsed before my company was mustered into service, I lived in his house, and had, so far as I needed it, his cooperation in my enterprise.

As Major of the 2 Pennsylvania Reserves I participated in the Pennsylvania campaign, and was wounded at Charles City Cross Roads, in the right foot and left leg, by which wounds I am crippled for life—was taken prisoner, confined in the Libby Prison in Richmond, and, after being paroled, was taken to my father's house in Philadelphia, where, for four weary months I was confined to my bed, suffering intensely, but with the surest of medical skill, but also with the constant, kind, unwearying attention of my father, mother and sisters. During all that time, as indeed during my whole life no father could be more kind, more solicitous for a son's welfare, than was mine. Almost daily conversations occurred between us, in which the war, and the present and the future of our country were discussed, and although he freely criticized and often condemned the manner in which the war was managed by the Administration, never did he utter a sentiment in sympathy with the doctrine of secession, nor a syllable of approval of the course taken by the people of the South, and never did he say anything which was not calculated to encourage me in the performance of my duty as a soldier.

I have been thus full, sir, in my refutation of your slander, because you need or deserve this kind of attention at my hands, but because this refutation must be made as public as was the calumny, and I desire the public to have the exact truth in regard to this matter.

In conclusion, sir, I will remark that it is poor encouragement to our soldiers in the field to find that while they are toiling and fighting for their country, lying politicians at home are using them as the instruments of their partisan malice, and such an instance as this is a fair illustration of the pretended love for soldiers which certain parties parade so constantly. That love must be sincere indeed which, while it over-looks the soldier with false and adulation, strikes to the quick all that he holds near and dear.

Geo. A. Woodward,
Late Lieut. Col. Comdg. 24. Penna. Res.
Major Invalid Corps.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

A grand rally of the Democracy of Potter and adjoining townships, was held at Centre Hall on the evening of the 22d inst. The house was called to order by John Shannon, Esq., who announced the officers of the meeting, viz:

President—Hon. Samuel Strohecker, of Miles township.
Vice Presidents—Maj. John Neff, Potter township; Robert Potter, Harris township; John Bisher, Esq., Gregg township; John Mallory, Spring township.
Secretaries—Flory Dasher and Samuel F. Foster of Potter township.

The President then introduced Hon. G. O. Dice, of Lock Haven, to the immense audience, who were becoming eager to hear some of the comfortable acts of the Government, Abolition.

Mr. Dice then proceeded to address the audience, and every word spoken was caught with inexpressible eagerness by the attentive crowd. The speaker revealed a number of the pernicious acts of the infernal Abolitionists at the head of our Government. He also showed the bravery of the inflated Andy when Stewart's cavalry made a raid into Pennsylvania, in establishing his headquarters in the army and his headquarters in Harrisburg. (By the way, his headquarters were invisible by the soldiers in the army, but his headquarters were always visible in the saloons at Harrisburg.) After the speaker had handled thoroughly, he lighted upon a sycophant man in B. C. (who is generally known as sycophant jerking Mac) and told the audience of his immortal deeds of valor and the heroic bravery which compels him to share the toils, dangers, torments and constant exposures at home instead of the gay, happy, prosperous and jovial life at camp. We lament his fate, and we would fain see him sheltered in front ranks in the army of the Potomac.

After Mr. Dice concluded, the Hon. N. L. Atwood was called upon to address the meeting. The speaker dwelt principally upon the conduct of the war and the inability of the Executive officers to rule the affairs of this Government. Facts were brought forth that defied contradiction, and which made the heart shrink from the thought of the diabolical course our rulers were pursuing. In short, our rulers were plainly proven sycophants and traitors to the Government which they were sworn to protect and defend. The whole speech exposed the diabolical acts of our rulers, and entreated every Democrat to arouse and to keep the ball rolling.

After Mr. Atwood had concluded, Mr. A. A. Kerlin was called upon to address the meeting; but as it was getting late, Mr. Kerlin made a few brief remarks upon some of the most important issues of the day, and concluded by rigging up a Democratic ticket, with Judge Woodward for the driver.

The audience then gave three tremendous cheers for the Constitution and the Union, and the whole Democratic ticket.

HARRY.
THE WINDY STORY.—The following from the Eastern Argus, comprises the whole matter in a nutshell. We are willing to go before the people in the next gubernatorial election with nothing else than a fair comparison of the candidates. Every man in the State knows that Judge Woodward is one of the purest men it is—white enough Curtin is known during the past three years to engulf any man or party in infamy.

George W. Woodward is as far above Andrew Curtin in all that makes a man good and great, and as the sun is above a coal-lamp in brilliancy. Woodward is honest and upright. Curtin is corrupt. His own party papers tell us this. Woodward is a high-minded statesman. Curtin is a low-bred, clap-trap demagogue. Woodward's reputation for integrity is above suspicion and need no longer be argued. He has been surrounded by a pack of unprincipled thieves ever since he has been in Harrisburg. To elect Judge Woodward our Governor will be to return to the days of Simon Snyder and Francis K. Shunk.

The people of Pennsylvania must not overlook the important fact that Daniel Agnew, the abolition nominee for Supreme Judge, is in favor of negro suffrage in Pennsylvania. Whilst a member of the Reform Convention, he persistently voted to confer the right upon all colored men in the Commonwealth. He is the friend of Andrew G. Curtin, and running upon the same ticket; their views and opinions are identical. Can the white freemen of Pennsylvania cast their votes for the candidates of shoddy and negro quackery?

"If slavery is to be continued in this country, we want the Irish and Catholics to take the place of the negroes, and let the more intelligent and more virtuous blacks be LIBERATED."—N. Y. Post Abolition paper.

BEHOLD HIS RECORD.

We this week commence the publication of some of the sayings and doings of his Excellency Andrew G. Curtin, "provisional" Governor of Pennsylvania.

Though Gov. Curtin has been allowed by the Jacobin administration at Washington to draw his salary as such, from the Treasury of Pennsylvania he has in fact been nothing but the suppliant tool of the people's masters at Washington.

The rebellion crushes a just now trying to prove that Judge Woodward holds the infamous doctrines of defunct Americanism and as though their shoddy candidate in common with themselves, never held, or advocated, that Know-Nothing doctrine.

We were present our readers with the first act of the drama.

THE OATH TAKEN BY GOVERNOR ANDREW G. CURTIN WHEN HE JOINED THE DARK LANTERN OR KNOW-NOTHING PARTY.

FIRST DEGREE.

"In the presence of Almighty God and these Witnesses I do solemnly promise and swear that I will never betray any of the secrets of this society nor communicate them even to the proper candidate, except within a lawful council of the order; that I will never permit any of the secrets of this society to be written, or in any other manner to be made legible except by the consent of the council; that I will not vote, nor give my influence for any man for any office in the gift of the people, unless by an American born citizen, or a Roman Catholic; that I will in all political matters, so far as this order is concerned, comply with the will of the majority, though it may conflict with my personal preference."

SECOND DEGREE.

"I, of my own free will and accord, in the presence of Almighty God and these Witnesses do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will not, under any circumstances, disclose in any manner, nor suffer it to be done by others, in my power to prevent it, the names, names or addresses, or other secrets of this order, except in open Council for the purpose of instruction; that I will support in all political matters for all political officers, members of this order in preference to other persons; that I will when elected or appointed to any official station conferring on me the power to do so, remove all foreigners, aliens or Roman Catholics from office or place, and that I will in no case appoint such to any office in my gift, and all other obligations which I have previously taken in this order, shall ever be kept sacred and inviolate. All those who sustain and declare as an American to sustain and abide by without any hesitation or mental reservation whatever, so help me God!"

The language herein expressed against foreign born citizens and Catholics, has no parallel in this country, yet Andrew G. Curtin and his shoddy patriots, after swearing away what little Christian charity they possessed, now attempt to prove that Judge Woodward is as much of an ingrate as himself.

But we must hasten along. We here produce good abolition authority, for the purpose of showing in what estimation Curtin was held one month ago by one of his shoddy toady organs, and we have not heard of his conversion since that time.

HEARD HIS RECORD.
Millions of Dollars taken—Pennsylvanians shoddy politicians under arrest.

HARRISBURG, July 30.—Considerable excitement has been created by the discovery of enormous frauds upon the government in this region, consequent upon the rebel raid; the amounts are stated at millions of dollars. A number of State politicians have been placed under arrest, and the subject will receive the most searching investigation by the War Department. The most corrupt practices have prevailed in horse contracts and in clothing and subsistence supplies. They throw the "shoddy" 1861, into the shade. Many of the same parties are implicated, and the gangs who have infested the State Capital in the winter have reaped a rich summer harvest. It is a sad commentary that while thousands of brave men rushed to arms to defend the State from invasion, and while the Governor was tickling them with honeyed words, his minions and followers were permitted to compel them to make long and weary marches, without even the poor luxury of crackers and pork. It is a matter of record that while these contractors were receiving enormous sums, the gallant Philadelphia soldiers were placed on an allowance of a cracker a day for several days together, thanks to the neglect and corruption of the executive department of the State of Pennsylvania.—Philadelphia Inquirer, July 31st 1863.

We take the following extract from a speech made by Gov. Curtin, in this place in 1860, a few days after the election.—

HEAR HIM!

"BEHOLD YOUR CONQUERER."
I have you under my feet. I will fight you for three years and the odds will be on my side.

NOR TRUE.—The poor story that Judge Woodward was opposed to foreigners in 1839. It is a wholesale lie. But that Andrew G. Curtin was one of the chief priests of KNOW NOTHINGISM is true, and every one will remember. Let these facts be born in mind.

CURTIN'S PICTURE, AS DRAWN BY A POLITICAL FRIEND.

Pennsylvania has long been called the Keystone State, and she has deserved the name. Any one not blinded by prejudice must have accorded this to her, in the late unhappy scenes through which our country has passed to go. The resolutions of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her proud title. Whilst all this is so, and more when, together with the support of our Representatives, pledged the support and credit of the State to the Federal Government, together with the simultaneous uprising of the people to furnish an army to assert its commands, did more to re-establish confidence in the Union and the inherent stability of our political system than the action of any State or people. Pennsylvania has earned anew the right to her