LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS: We are sorry that our limited space prohibits us from publishing the proceedings of the Democratic meetings held throughout the county during the past week.

We have been requested by Mr. Moore of Centre Hill, to state that the report in circulation, to the effect that he intended to vote the abolition ticket is false.

Let Democrats and others remember that we have charged Foster and Haupt, two renegades, who are asking their support, with attending on the same platform with Daniel Agnew, who voted in the Reform Convention to give negroes the right to vote and they or their friends dared not to deny it.

Abolition Outrages: A number of outrages have been perpetrated in this county during the past week by abolition devils wearing the human form.

On Tuesday last, at some abolitionists here, they attempted to take by force a democratic banner from the hands of Mr. Sweeney's daughters, at Pleasant Gap.

The abolition meeting which was held here on the 6th inst. was respectable in point of numbers, as there was a large crowd in attendance.

We learn that on Saturday last Dr. John H. B. McClellan was removed from the position he held at the Chestnut Hill Hospital.

THE GREAT American Tea Company, 51 VESSEY STREET, N. Y.

Wholesaling Teas in this Country: They have introduced their selections of TEAS, and are selling them at not over

Two Cents (.02 Cents) per pound above cost.

Never deviating from the ONE PRICE asked.

Another peculiarity of the Company is that their Tea Taster not only devotes his time to the selection of their TEAS to quality, value, and particular styles for particular localities of country.

It is easy to see the incalculable advantage a Tea Taster has in this establishment over all others.

Parties can order Teas and will be served by as well as though they came themselves, being sure to get original packages, true weights and labels, and the Teas are warranted as represented.

It is no judge of Tea or the Market, if his time is valuable, he has all the benefits of a well organized system of distribution, of a professional TEA TASTER, and the knowledge of superior salesmen.

This list has each kind of Tea divided into four classes, namely: CAROO, HIGH CAROO, FINE, FINEST, that every one may understand from description and the prices annexed, that the Company are determined to undersell the whole Tea Trade.

We guarantee to sell ALL our Teas at not over TWO CENTS (.02 Cents) per pound above cost, believing this to be attractive to the many who have heretofore been paying enormous profits.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS: STERNBERG'S HALL, BY PUMP SUNKINS, BQ.

*Some time ago, I told the folks, 'bout a man in town, sir, Who kept a clothing store so grand, And did the thing up brown, sir.

Now, this same man has moved his store, From Diamond down the street, sir; And now, next door to 'Conrad House, He's got the thing up brown, sir.

At Reynolds's Arcade, where all The folks do congregate, sir, You'll find our Sternberg's Clothing Hall, With every thing first-rate, sir.

There, coats and pants, and hats and caps, And shirts and boots and shoes, sir, Are piled up so 'spendefierously, You scarce know what to choose, sir.

I tell you now his mighty grand, To go into his shop, sir, And see, piled up on every hand, Goods, nice as any top, sir.

And then Sternberg, he straps around, And tells you just polite, sir, And asks you if you ever found, Goods half so strong and bright, sir.

And then you'll be bound to praise his goods, Because they're half so cheap, sir, There's never goods like them to be seen In town, by age or top, sir.

Besides, they're all so mighty cheap, And good and clean and new, sir, For, should you turn and leave his store, You certainly won't rue, sir.

That you don't get a whole suit buy, From his great clothing man, sir, Who'll sell you nothing cheaper, far, Than any one else can, sir.

So here's to Sternberg—may he live Forever and shall prosper, sir, And when he dies, we hope he'll find A soft place for to lay, sir.

And on his grave, mid flowers bright, Beneath which he shall sleep, sir, We'll put a stone, whereon we'll write, "His old goods mighty cheap," sir.
