STERNBERG HALL. BY PUMP SUNKING, ESQ.

The times, they say, are mighty hard, And men can't find a dollar To spend on pants or coat or vest, Or even on a collar.

Republicans blame Democrats, For all this mighty bother. And Democrats Republicans— So each one blames the other Some swear that Lincoln's just the To cure this mighty evil,
While others my ne's trying hard To send us to the Devil,

And so it goes—and politics,
Makes f.st friends fight each other,
And kindles bitter feelings, which
They try in vain to smother.

Now, this is all a silly thing, And comes of human blindness, For all men should be brothers, and Should live in peace and kindness.

If you're a "pub" and I'm a "Dem,"
That need not cause a trouble,
Nor make us call each other names,
Nor beat each other double, For where's the use in you and I, To go to pullin' triggers.

Just for a nasty greasy lot.

Of woolly-pated niggers.

Just none at all—and so say I,
We've made a mighty blunder,
For politics is just the thing
To send us all to thunder.

So let us stop it—and we'll try To pull once more together, And buy from Sternburg all our clothes For this cold winter weather He's got a large and handsome stock.

Just brought here from the city.
And that is what I wanted to say,
When I commenced my dity. So roll in folks—Sternberg s a man (The honest truth revealing.) Who only tries to make his "pile," Ey fair and upright dealing.

THE FOUR ACTS OF DESPOTISM. BY A. D. MAHONEY, OF IOWA,

Author of the "Prisoner of State."

This work contains full and official copies of he Four Great Acts of Despotism by which the constitutional government of Washington was sub-verted, and the irresponsible Lincoln dynasty in-stalled in its place.

1. THE TAX BILL, by which all the property and resources of the people are mortgaged to the resent administration. 2. THE CONSCRIPTION BILL by which all the bodies of poor men not worth $300 are placed in the hands of the Administration. 3. THE FINANCE BILL, which destroys State Banks and places the entire currency of the country in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury.

4. The KNREMENT ACT. (fitting climax.) which presumes to indemnify the President for all the wrongs he has committed in the past or may commit in the future.

These four acts are each preceded by a car ppressive, unconstitutional and odious feature tisian, the laborer-in fact, to every person, for these monstrous acts reach from the loftiest man-
