

The Watchman.

P. GRAY MEEK, Editor.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, Oct. 30, 1863.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Mrs L. T.—Much obliged for your kindness. The article will appear soon.
Ma. H.—The name was received, and we are under many obligations for the interest you take in our paper.

The War.

From the army we have but little news to record. The latest of the season renders it quite probable that active operations will cease, and the army go into winter quarters.

The New Requisition.

We neither expect nor desire to escape the scrutiny of our citizens in power by anything we may say or do. In fact, we rather expect to be held up to the public view.

For the honor of the Old Keystone let this be so. We all desire a free and fair election. It is the duty of every citizen to vote.

Had the above appeared in the Patriot and Union at the outbreak of the war, while those in authority pretended to be doing it for the restoration of the Union...

How the laboring classes, editors, especially, are going to live when taxes are so high and the price of all the necessities of life so enormous, we can not see.—Abolition Exchange.

Have faith in the "government," brother, faith in the "government." You should be able to live on love for Abram, and never complain of taxes, though they compel you to float a flag of truce from the "other" position of your breeches. You voted for taxes. God grant you may have a full share of them.

Consolidation, in a horn—the day that will bring back unity, peace and prosperity, to our ruined country.

Political Dialogue.

No. 1.

ABOLITIONIST.—Well, neighbor, the election is over, and I thank God Curtin is re-elected and copperheadism crushed out in Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRAT.—We should certainly thank Providence for all blessings, but I fear the re-election of Mr. Curtin will prove no blessing either to the State or the country at large.

ABOLITIONIST.—I am very sorry to find you sympathizing and agreeing with the copperheads, when you ought to be a good Union man, supporting the government.

DEMOCRAT.—Before defending my political opinions and conduct, I wish to inquire what you mean by that term copperhead, and to whom do you apply it.

ABOLITIONIST.—Why, by copperhead, I mean those who are opposing the government, sympathizing with and aiding indirectly, the rebels; and I apply it to all those who voted for and desired the election of that rascal Woodward.

DEMOCRAT.—As I desire to have a quiet conversation with you, I will not resort to insults to me and my Democratic neighbors in the manner I should otherwise feel like doing; but—

ABOLITIONIST.—Oh! I don't want to insult you, personally, for I know you are a good citizen, and I really love, a loyal man.

DEMOCRAT.—But why do you use that term copperhead, at all, for certainly, it has no meaning. You apply it as a term of reproach, and yet it signifies absolutely nothing.

ABOLITIONIST.—Yes, it does—it means a sneaking traitor.

DEMOCRAT.—If the men to whom you apply that term are actually traitors, why do you not call them so at once in plain English, and at the same time go to work and prove their treason in a court, that they may be properly punished?

ABOLITIONIST.—Because they have been either too cunning or too cowardly to commit any act of treason, but they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions.

DEMOCRAT.—Do they talk so? A—I do not know that they do at least but few of them.

ABOLITIONIST.—Then if they never act treasonably nor talk treasonably, or what right do you say they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions?

DEMOCRAT.—Why, they are always opposing the government, continually finding fault with what the government is doing to crush out this wholly rebellion.

Political Dialogue.

No. 1.

ABOLITIONIST.—Well, neighbor, the election is over, and I thank God Curtin is re-elected and copperheadism crushed out in Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRAT.—We should certainly thank Providence for all blessings, but I fear the re-election of Mr. Curtin will prove no blessing either to the State or the country at large.

ABOLITIONIST.—I am very sorry to find you sympathizing and agreeing with the copperheads, when you ought to be a good Union man, supporting the government.

DEMOCRAT.—Before defending my political opinions and conduct, I wish to inquire what you mean by that term copperhead, and to whom do you apply it.

ABOLITIONIST.—Why, by copperhead, I mean those who are opposing the government, sympathizing with and aiding indirectly, the rebels; and I apply it to all those who voted for and desired the election of that rascal Woodward.

DEMOCRAT.—As I desire to have a quiet conversation with you, I will not resort to insults to me and my Democratic neighbors in the manner I should otherwise feel like doing; but—

ABOLITIONIST.—Oh! I don't want to insult you, personally, for I know you are a good citizen, and I really love, a loyal man.

DEMOCRAT.—But why do you use that term copperhead, at all, for certainly, it has no meaning. You apply it as a term of reproach, and yet it signifies absolutely nothing.

ABOLITIONIST.—Yes, it does—it means a sneaking traitor.

DEMOCRAT.—If the men to whom you apply that term are actually traitors, why do you not call them so at once in plain English, and at the same time go to work and prove their treason in a court, that they may be properly punished?

ABOLITIONIST.—Because they have been either too cunning or too cowardly to commit any act of treason, but they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions.

DEMOCRAT.—Do they talk so? A—I do not know that they do at least but few of them.

ABOLITIONIST.—Then if they never act treasonably nor talk treasonably, or what right do you say they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions?

DEMOCRAT.—Why, they are always opposing the government, continually finding fault with what the government is doing to crush out this wholly rebellion.

Political Dialogue.

No. 1.

ABOLITIONIST.—Well, neighbor, the election is over, and I thank God Curtin is re-elected and copperheadism crushed out in Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRAT.—We should certainly thank Providence for all blessings, but I fear the re-election of Mr. Curtin will prove no blessing either to the State or the country at large.

ABOLITIONIST.—I am very sorry to find you sympathizing and agreeing with the copperheads, when you ought to be a good Union man, supporting the government.

DEMOCRAT.—Before defending my political opinions and conduct, I wish to inquire what you mean by that term copperhead, and to whom do you apply it.

ABOLITIONIST.—Why, by copperhead, I mean those who are opposing the government, sympathizing with and aiding indirectly, the rebels; and I apply it to all those who voted for and desired the election of that rascal Woodward.

DEMOCRAT.—As I desire to have a quiet conversation with you, I will not resort to insults to me and my Democratic neighbors in the manner I should otherwise feel like doing; but—

ABOLITIONIST.—Oh! I don't want to insult you, personally, for I know you are a good citizen, and I really love, a loyal man.

DEMOCRAT.—But why do you use that term copperhead, at all, for certainly, it has no meaning. You apply it as a term of reproach, and yet it signifies absolutely nothing.

ABOLITIONIST.—Yes, it does—it means a sneaking traitor.

DEMOCRAT.—If the men to whom you apply that term are actually traitors, why do you not call them so at once in plain English, and at the same time go to work and prove their treason in a court, that they may be properly punished?

ABOLITIONIST.—Because they have been either too cunning or too cowardly to commit any act of treason, but they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions.

DEMOCRAT.—Do they talk so? A—I do not know that they do at least but few of them.

ABOLITIONIST.—Then if they never act treasonably nor talk treasonably, or what right do you say they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions?

DEMOCRAT.—Why, they are always opposing the government, continually finding fault with what the government is doing to crush out this wholly rebellion.

Political Dialogue.

No. 1.

ABOLITIONIST.—Well, neighbor, the election is over, and I thank God Curtin is re-elected and copperheadism crushed out in Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRAT.—We should certainly thank Providence for all blessings, but I fear the re-election of Mr. Curtin will prove no blessing either to the State or the country at large.

ABOLITIONIST.—I am very sorry to find you sympathizing and agreeing with the copperheads, when you ought to be a good Union man, supporting the government.

DEMOCRAT.—Before defending my political opinions and conduct, I wish to inquire what you mean by that term copperhead, and to whom do you apply it.

ABOLITIONIST.—Why, by copperhead, I mean those who are opposing the government, sympathizing with and aiding indirectly, the rebels; and I apply it to all those who voted for and desired the election of that rascal Woodward.

DEMOCRAT.—As I desire to have a quiet conversation with you, I will not resort to insults to me and my Democratic neighbors in the manner I should otherwise feel like doing; but—

ABOLITIONIST.—Oh! I don't want to insult you, personally, for I know you are a good citizen, and I really love, a loyal man.

DEMOCRAT.—But why do you use that term copperhead, at all, for certainly, it has no meaning. You apply it as a term of reproach, and yet it signifies absolutely nothing.

ABOLITIONIST.—Yes, it does—it means a sneaking traitor.

DEMOCRAT.—If the men to whom you apply that term are actually traitors, why do you not call them so at once in plain English, and at the same time go to work and prove their treason in a court, that they may be properly punished?

ABOLITIONIST.—Because they have been either too cunning or too cowardly to commit any act of treason, but they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions.

DEMOCRAT.—Do they talk so? A—I do not know that they do at least but few of them.

ABOLITIONIST.—Then if they never act treasonably nor talk treasonably, or what right do you say they entertain treasonable sentiments and intentions?

DEMOCRAT.—Why, they are always opposing the government, continually finding fault with what the government is doing to crush out this wholly rebellion.

Pennsylvania Election.

Returns, 1863—Electors.

Table with columns for County, Elector, and Votes. Lists results for Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Berks, Bradford, Bucks, Butler, Cambria, Cameron, Centre, Chester, Clearfield, Columbia, Crawford, Dauphin, Delaware, Erie, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Potter, Schuylkill, Snyder, Somerset, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tazewell, Union, Venango, Warren, Washington, Westmoreland, York, Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Berks, Bradford, Bucks, Butler, Cambria, Cameron, Centre, Chester, Clearfield, Columbia, Crawford, Dauphin, Delaware, Erie, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Potter, Schuylkill, Snyder, Somerset, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tazewell, Union, Venango, Warren, Washington, Westmoreland, York.

Died.

On the 19th instant, of Cholera, Mary V. Bernhart, aged about ten and a half years. Little Mary was a child of no ordinary interest. Young as she was, she had attracted to herself many loving friends. For God had placed on that brow of childhood a sunshine that seemed itself like the promise of many coming years. But she has been taken away like the blossom by dew; as she takes away the beautiful bow from the cloud in the day of rain. Her removal from this world of suffering to give her the repose of Heaven. So be given his beloved sleep. —B.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. By order of the Orphans' Court of Centre county, the subscriber, Administrator of the Estate of Wm. A. Davidson, dec'd, will offer at public sale at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on TUESDAY, the 24th day of NOVEMBER next, at 2 o'clock, a certain tract of land situated in Boggs township, containing 20 acres more or less, bounded by the Bellefonte and Philadelphia turnpike on the North, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the East, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the South, and by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the West.

ORPHANS COURT SALE. By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Centre county, will be exposed to public sale, at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on TUESDAY, November 24, 1863, all that parcel of land or tract of land situated in Centre township, containing 20 acres more or less, bounded by the Bellefonte and Philadelphia turnpike on the North, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the East, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the South, and by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the West.

ORPHANS COURT SALE. By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Centre county, will be exposed to public sale, at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on TUESDAY, November 24, 1863, all that parcel of land or tract of land situated in Centre township, containing 20 acres more or less, bounded by the Bellefonte and Philadelphia turnpike on the North, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the East, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the South, and by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the West.

ORPHANS COURT SALE. By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Centre county, will be exposed to public sale, at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on TUESDAY, November 24, 1863, all that parcel of land or tract of land situated in Centre township, containing 20 acres more or less, bounded by the Bellefonte and Philadelphia turnpike on the North, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the East, by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the South, and by the Erie and Philadelphia turnpike on the West.

BOOT AND SHOE STORE.

PETER McMAHON, Proprietor. Would respectfully inform the citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity that he has opened up a shop at ALLEGHENY STREET.

LOWEST PRICES.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

may 1863.

BALSBURG ACADEMY.

The Winter Session of this Institution will commence on Monday, November 23, 1863, at 10 o'clock, P. M. The following described terms of tuition: Common English Studies, $1.00; Mathematics and Natural Sciences, $2.00; Latin, $3.00; Languages, $4.00; Instruction in Instrumental and Vocal Music on reasonable terms. Board and furnished rooms, per week, $2.00. DANIEL McKEE, Principal.

PINE GROVE ACADEMY AND SEMINARY.

The Winter Session of this Institution will commence on Monday, November 23, 1863, at 10 o'clock, P. M. The following described terms of tuition: Common English Studies, $1.00; Mathematics and Natural Sciences, $2.00; Latin, $3.00; Languages, $4.00; Instruction in Instrumental and Vocal Music on reasonable terms. Board and furnished rooms, per week, $2.00. DANIEL McKEE, Principal.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Of the Lodger and Day-Room of P. Benner and M. W. at Rock Hill, from 1850 to 1862. They are wanted as evidence to save a post mortem in the case of a young man, who was brought to Bellefonte about 1860, and was in the possession of some of the citizens of said borough. Any information concerning the whereabouts of said man, will be thankfully received and liberally rewarded. The information can be delivered to Wm. P. Wilson, Esq., or to Bellefonte, Oct. 14, '63. DANIEL McKEE.

ESTRAYS.

Came to the residence of the subscriber in Water township, about the last of September, a red Bull and cow, supposed to be about two months old, no marks visible, the owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take them away; otherwise they will be disposed of according to law. Flat Rock, Oct. 23, 1863. P. RICHARDS.

STRAY HOG.

Came to the residence of the subscriber, in Walker township, about the last of September, a white Hog, supposed to be about two months old, no marks visible, the owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take them away; otherwise they will be disposed of according to law. Oct. 28, 1863. HENRY SNAVELY.

ESTRAY.

Came to the residence of the subscriber in Water township, about the middle of September, a red Steer, supposed to be about 8 years old, no marks visible. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take them away; otherwise they will be disposed of according to law. Oct. 23, 1863. ROBERT HOLMES, Jr.

WANTED!

Three Teachers in Snowshoe township. None need apply who have not testimonials of good moral character and professional qualifications. Apply to JAMES FORBES, Secretary, Mechanism Pa. Oct. 23, 1863.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.