

P. GRAY MEEK, Editor

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Friday Morning, Dec. 25, 1893

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

As we intend to present the WATCHMAN to our readers on the 7th of January in an entire new dress, we are compelled to give them but a half sheet this week...

We suppose our young friends will have a "gay and festive" time, to-night at the children party, at Mr. Resman's Hotel in Centre Hall.

The pavement on some parts of the town are covered with a perfect gift of ice, making it both difficult and dangerous for pedestrians to get along.

We have received our old friend Peterson, for January. How the ladies can get along without it we do not know...

We had the pleasure of taking by the mail on Monday last our young friend Capt. Bruce Barger of the Army of the Potomac.

The Assistant Provost Marshal and his men Friday seem to be driving a flourishing business these days. On Tuesday last they left this place for Williamsport...

For once, we take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement, that of Howe & Storen's "Family Dye Colors."

An esteemed friend and fellow "conspirator" Col. Euben Keller of Centre Hill will please accept our thanks and consider us under many obligations...

We are in receipt of the first number of the new magazine, published by Deacon & Peterson Philadelphia, entitled the "Ladies' Friend."

An establishment long needed in this section of the state has just been opened on Howard Street, a short distance from the Presbyterian church...

At the request of several friends we publish the following speech of Judge A. V. Larimer, formerly of Pleasant Gap, this county, made at OMAHA, NEBRASKA...

On Saturday night last as Mr. John Leidy of Salona, was passing through the 'narrows' in the mountains near Mill Hill, he was attacked by a man who demanded "his money or his life."

The President offers the assistance of the army of the United States to enable one-fourth of the voters of any rebellious State to govern the other nine-tenths...

We notice in the local columns of the Press last week a communication pitching in to Mr. Alexander for charging a certain Mr. Hull $10 for making out and presenting at Williamsport exemption papers for his son...

CONTRIBUTION TO THE LADIES AID SOCIETY. The ladies of the Soldiers Aid society having forwarded a box of trunks, jackets, shoes, etc., to the Women's Branch of the U. S. Sanitary Commission...
