TERMS—$2 per year when paid in advance $2,50 when not paid in advance, and $3,00 when not paid before the expiration of the year.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Andrew.—The answer you sent to the last question of John Quincy Adams, was "Yes, sir," as the last of earth I am coming."

Andrew Jackson was born on the 15th of March, 1767, in Waxsaw, South Carolina. His family, who came from Ireland about two years previously, had settled. He died on June 8, 1845, in the 78th year of his age.

Abolitionist.—In reply to B. in article 3d the Constitution says in Section III., "The Vice President of the United States shall be president of the Senate, but shall have no vote unless they be equally divided."

Information.—Mrs. Wood died on the 21st of July, 1854, in England. She had retired from the stage and had taught music for some time at Leeds. At Drury Lane and Covent Garden she first won fame as a vocalist as Miss Betton. Her contralto embraced the whole range of English opera, and in the zenith of her fame she married Lord William Lenox, but was afterwards divorced, the union not proving a happy one.

Brownell.—Great Britain has a revenue of $321,000,000 per year, a standing army of 125,000 men, and a navy of 148 ships afloat.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Our friend M'Quistion has a new sleigh, well finished which he offers for sale cheap.

Getting Ready.—There are five companies now making preparations to search for oil along the Bald Eagle Valley.

A Musical Convention began in Aaronsburg on Tuesday last and will close to-morrow (Saturday) evening with a grand Concert.

Where to Go.—If you want to buy goods cheap when you come to Bellefonte, call on some of the merchants that advertise in the Watchman.

Small Pox.—It is reported that the small pox is raging terribly at Unionville. We do not know whether it is correct or not.

Lucky.—We hear it rumored that several more of our citizens have struck "ile," to the tune of about fifty thousand dollars. We hope the reports are true, and that they will be liberal enough to give the printers a small share of it.

Fire.—A barn belonging to Mr. Washington Campbell, of Harris Township, together with a large amount of grain, hay and farming implements, &c., was entirely destroyed by fire on Saturday morning last. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Centre County's quota of the "300,000 more" victims just called for by Lincoln will be about five hundred according to former apportionments. There is over five hundred individuals in this county—fools and fanatics that voted for Lincoln in order to have the negro freed, that need to be drafted. May every mothers son of them be drawn.

Be Prepared.—Our devil says he will be about, bright and early on Monday morning, January 2d with a neat and eloquent New Years Address, and wishes those to whom he has furnished the Watchman during the year that is past, to be prepared with the "stamps" to take one, two or a half dozen of them.

The Throat.—Families would do well to keep always at home a box of Brown's Bronchial Troches, a simple but most marvelously efficacious specific for affections of the throat, affording prompt relief in case of coughs, colds, bronchial troubles, etc. Singers and public speakers will find them also excellent to clear the voice and render articulation wonderfully easy.—Monthly Magazine.

A Little Advice to the Ladies.—Those of our lady friends who have dresses to make, want patterns cut, plaiting or sewing of any kind done, should call on Mrs. H. A Nolan, at her residence on Spring Street. Work left with her will be done in the best of style and at the lowest rates.

About to Organize.—As will be seen by an advertisement in an other part of the days paper, the subscribers to the Stock of the "Bald Eagle, Oil, State & Coal Co." will meet for the purpose of organizing and making preparations to commence work. We hope their will be a full turn out, and that the work will be pushed rapidly forward.

War Near Home.—A slight skirmish between a squad of soldiers and a citizen of Knox Township, Clearfield county, will fought on the night of the 18th inst. The details of the affair as near as we can learn are as follows. Captain Southworth, commanding a squad of U. S. soldiers, surrounded the house of Captain Adams, said to be a deserter. Adams or Irwin was in ful progress. After dispositing his men to command the premises, one man he advanced to the door, opened it, and with a revolver in hand walked into the room. He declared his rank as an officer in the army, and requested all to keep their seats, adding that he would shoot down the first who resisted. Adams who was in the house, (a one story and a half,) got up stairs without being seen, kicked the weatherboarding off the gable end, looked out, and seen a soldier standing prepared to intercept him, took a loaded gun, which was at hand, and shot at the soldier, killing him instantly. He then went to the opposite gable end kicked the boards loose, got out upon a shed; descended thence to the ground, ran a short distance, when a volley was fired at him, and he was mortally wounded, dying a short time afterwards. Such is the report, and whether it is correct or not, we cannot say.

Lutheran Conference.—According to previous appointment the Northern Conference of the Central Synod of Pennsylvania met in the Lutheran and Reformed Church of this place, on Thursday evening, the 15th instant. The President being absent, the Conference was opened with [illegible] Rev. Sell, the Secretary, [illegible] Rev. Sell read the third chapter of Matthew, and delivered an interesting discourse from the words, "But seek ye first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all things shall be added unto you," from which words he discoursed in a very able and edifying manner.

Friday, at 10 o'clock A. M., Rev. W. E. Parr preached in the German language from Job, the twenty first chapter and eighth verse:

FIRST SESSION, 2 P. M.

Opened with Prayer by the President, D. Sell. Roll called, and absentees marked, of which the following members were present: Clergy—D. Sell, L. K. Sechrist, W. S. Porr, D. W. Kinsel, J. C. Burkholder, J. M. Emerson, W. H. Schoch, E. Studebaker; Delegates—John Hess, John Weaver, Wm. Satherick, John Hartline, H. Y. Stitzer, E. Bumberger; Absentees—J. G. Anspach, J. M. Anspach, B. Groth and T. Gheen. The Constitution was then read, after which J. M. Emerson and J. C. Burkholder became members by subscribing to the same. This being the time for the election of officers, the President appointed Revs. Kinsel and Schoch as Tellers. The election resulted in the choice of L. K. Sechrist for President; W. H. Schoch, Secretary; and W. S. Porr, Treasurer. The officers elected having taken their seats, the minutes of the former session were read and adopted. Rev. Porr then stated the reason for his being absent, and was on motion excused. A letter from Rev. Gheen stating the cause of his absence was then read, and Rev. Sell stated the reason of Rev. Grothe absence, both of whom were on motion excused.

The reports of the state of religion being called for, the ministers present proceeded to give an account of the spiritual condition of their respective congregation. From these reports we learn the sad truth, that many of our congregation are not advancing in Christian holiness as rapidly as they should, whilst in every congregation there are those to be found who are full of the love of God, and who do all in their power to promote the interests of their Master's Kingdom, there are also such, that are cold and indifferent, and who are, in truth, unworth the name of a Christian.

What is needed in our congregation is a mighty outpouring of the spirit of God. May God revive us as individuals, and as a church.

Sugar Valley and Pine Grove Charges are reported vacant, the latter has the prospect of soon being supplied.

On motion Conference adjourned to Saturday morning at 9 o'clock A. M., closing with prayer by J. M. Emerson.

Preaching in the evening by J. C. Burkholder from 1st John, 4th Chapter and 10th verse, a discourse full of zeal and Christian warmth, Saturday 9 o'clock A. M. After spending half an hour in devotional exercises, Conference who opened with prayer by J. C. Burkholder. Minutes of former session war read, correct,ed and adopted.

On motion it was resolved that a committee be appointed to revise the Constitution Rev. Sell and Porr were accordingly appointed by the President. On motion E. Studebaker and his delegate were received as members of Conference. John Weaver was then on motion excused for further attending the same. The following preamble and resolutions were received, and considered items by items, and after a lengthy and interesting discussion adopted, as a whole.

Whereas, Strenious efforts are being made in certain quarters to poison and prejudice the minds of the people against protracted meetings, and revivals of religion. And

Whereas, Rules of instructions have been volunteered to pastors how to operate against them. Therefore

Resolved, 1st. That while we as a Conference are decidedly opposed to all disorder, confusion and fanaticism, we nevertheless declare it as our conscientious conviction, that revivals are founded on the Bible, and have been blessed, to the conviction and conversion of many souls, and contributed much to the liberality and prosperity of the church, therefore

Resolved, 2d. That we will labor and pray more earnestly and zealously for the promotion of genuine revivals of religion and vital piety in our church, therefore

Resolved, 3d. That we will oppose with all our influence and power every effort to introduce a formal, lifeless or ceremonial religion into the church, therefore

Resolved, 4th. That we regard every opposition to revivals of Religion as unscriptural and unchristian and calculated to cripple the efforts of the church and lead her back to her former state of lifeless formality and semi-Papistical standpoint.

At the request of the Secretary, Rev. Kinsel was appointed to prepare an abstract of the minutes of Conference for publication in the Observer. On motion the President was requested to return the thanks of Conference to the people of Bellefonte and vicinity for the hospitality and kindness shown to the members during their stay in their midst.

Lock Haven was selected as the next place of meeting. Adjourned with prayer by the President.

Services preparatory to Communion were had in the afternoon by D. Sell and L. K. Sechrist.

Divine services in the evening, by Rev. Emerson, preaching from the 19th chapter of Mathew, and 27th verse, who elucidated the words of the text in his usual winning style, and was listened to with marked attention, impressing all with the saying "that it was good to be there."

The Communion services on Sabbath morning were conducted by J. L. Kinsel in English and by L. K. Sechrist in German, from the very appropriate words of the Psalmist, viz.: "Among the Gods there is none like unto thee O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works."

After services a collection was taken up for mission which amounted to $15 88. At 2 P. M. Several addresses were delivered to the Sabbath school. In the evening Rev. E. Studebaker preached in the Lutheran Church, having a full house, and D. W. Kinsel at the same hour preached in the Methodist Episcopal church. By the Secretary. W. H. SCHOCH.

SPARKLING CATAWBA WINES.

Equal in quality and Cheaper in Price than the Brandies and Wines of the Old World.

For Summer Complaint, Cholera Infantum, Bowel Complaint, Cramp, Colic and Diarrhœa.

A cure sure is guaranteed, or the money will be refunded.

In support of the above statements, are presented the Certificates of Dr. Jas. R. Chilton, Chemist, New York; Dr. Hiram Cox, Chemical Inspector, Ohio; Dr. James R. Nichols, Chemist, Boston; Dr. M. E. Jones Chemical Inspector, Circleville, Ohio; Prof. C. T. Jackson, Chemist, Boston; Dr. Chas. Upham Shepard, Charleston, S. C. and J. V. Z. Blaney, and G. A. Mariner Consulting Chemist, Chicago, all of whom have analyzed the Catawba Brandy, and commend it in the highest terms for medicinal use.

Analysis of the Massachusetts State Assayer, 1858.

When evaporated through clean linen it left no odior offensive matter. In every respect it is a pure spirituous liquor. The oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike fusil or grain oil. Its odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids it produces ethers of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of factitous spirits, sold under this name both at home and abroad.

Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

Assayer to State Mass., 16 Boylston St

By the same, in 1844:

I have analyzed "L. LYONS' PURE CATAWBA BRANDY," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afforded the same results with regard to purity; a slightly increased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with its former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy.

Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D. State Assayer.

THE REV. JACOB SECHLER,

Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:

Hanover, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859.

Dear Sir:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public.—Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have also been benefitted by it.

JACOB SECHLER.

FROM JESSE SMITH, ESQ.,

President of the Morris County Bank, Morristown, New Jersey.

Having used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for about fifteen years, and having realized its beneficial results in my family, it affords me great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a valuable remedy in cases of weak lungs, colds, coughs, &c., and as ready which I consider to be entirely innocent, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate in health.

FROM HON. JOHN E. SMITH,

A distinguished lawyer in Westminster, Md.:

I have on several occasions used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for severe colds, and always with decided benefit. I know of no preparation that is more efficacious or more deserving of general use.

The Balsam has also been used with excellent effect by J. B. Elliott, Merchant, Hall's Cross Roads, Md.
