The times they may, are mighty hard, And men can't find a dollar To spend on panits or cont or rest.

Republicane blame Democrats, For all this mighty bother, And Democrats Republicans— So each one blame the other.

Some swear that Lincoln's just the mas While others say he's trying hard To send us to the Devil.

And so it goes—and politics, Makes fast friends fight each other, And kindles bitter feelings, which .

They try in vain to smother. Now, this is all a silly thing.
And comes of human blindness,
For all men should be brothers, and
Should live in peace and kindness.

U vou're a " Pub" and I'm a " Dem," That need not cause a trouble, for make us call each other names,

Nor heat each other double.

For where's the use in you and I,
To go to pullin' triggers,
Just for a nasty greasy lot
Of wooly-pated niggers.

Just none at all—and so say I;
We've made a mighty blunder,
For politics is just the thing
To send us all to thunder.

So let us stop it-and we'll try To pull once more together,
And buy from Sternberg all our clothes
For this cold winter weather. He's got a large and handsome stock, Just brought here from the city, And that is what I wanted to say,
