The state of

THE STATE OF THE S

Griginal Boetry.

PRIDE

So, fellows! why thus pass use hy With proud and stately tread ! Are we not brothers, one and all, Post marching to the dead?

While Providence, in wieden, gave You riches without stint. Did He design your heart to be A beart os lierd as fint?

Should be a foul disgrees— That you, from such, should turn away With seom upon your face?

Dece not our conqueror, stern old Time, Mis diptives, faied, lead?

And is there not, 'gon you and I,

One seamon doom decreed?

Grim Basth's our exceptioner And when within his power, Will all the wealth you worskip, now Avail you in that hour? '?'

And when, on Mother Barth's domain. You've had your Httle day, Will leathsome worms, less marry, hold Their banquet on your elay?

"Tis base servility; The pride of good and honest worth Is true mobility. CLAY Him, Jan. 4th, 1884,

For the Watches A PRAYER FOR HATTIE.

BY JOH W. PURET.

On her, O God! look down With Thine All-pitying Eye; On her, a holy Crown of glory, from the sky, Bestow!! and let her shine Among thy Juwata rare, A star of love divine.

With blessed angels there! To her pure heart let sin And sorrow, be unknewn; Oh, may the good within,

Mark her as of Thine own !

While angels guard her bed. Sweet be our Hattie's rest; And gently, o'er her head, May visions of the blest Float softly 'round and 'round, 'Till life itself shall seem Mig of Joyone sound, And sorrow, but a dream

A Pleasant Story.

CARRYING A NOTE.

OR How Frank Winters got his Wife.

BY BRILIE BRACE.

"Why, what now, Fred? You look as if you had swallowed a fish bone, or something else full as bad."

Don't ask me Frank,—I'm ruined com woman in the case?"

"A woman! exclaimed Edgar Haseltine, hastly. "A perfect Hebe.
"If that is the case," replied Frank Winters, turning and looking out of the window there is no help for you-you're a doome man.' - doomed man! Would I were Come, some, Ned, dont't be sa foelish. What troubles you?'

Why, Frank, you see Maggie Grafton has always shown adecided preference for me, until lately. I have proposed, and expected, of course to be accepted; and, instead she has rejected me, and adds, that she es ems me as a friend, and nothing more.'

In love, sh? But you are a foolish ,fellow to be carried away with saything as fickle as princiline. Nine cases, out of ten, they will get you into troughe, and leave you with a heart in the best possible State for

Do you speak from experience? inquired Regar Hazaltine.

Don my faith, I do, and now (if you never breathe it to a living soul—nor a deed one either) I'll tell you how I know.

Trust me for that, Frank. We have been friends too long to let anything come between us now. "Well you see, when I went to Australia, I sell desperately in love with a pretty girl, as I thought, and she succeeded in making me beliefe she loved me in return—which did

I was blinded sendent 14. I was a fool-

A was himsel- company by I was a notyes, a foold?

Well go an, Frank; shart be so long telling a short story.

You see, I gave my populy over into her igare, with the assurance from her shart we were to be married the following week. Another thing, Not-never trust a women with youn money, for in less than treaty-four hours after, she and her hubbard (the old man was her husband) little parts nakowe and I was without a red cent in the world.
Ah ha:

th, ha. "Why did you not try to recover 10.7".

Why did you not try to recover 10.7".

What, let my some did know how foolish (was. Not 11 I left, as still as possible, in the first steamer bound foughts port. In thought then, I would now, have anything to do with winder, but, equipmed it, & follow easy: Supp 17?

your money.

'Ay—a bigger one for trusting her with my heart, for Ned; if a woman won't make head out of it, they went out of anything—that's all.'

that's all.'

'So you have loved since?'

'I don't know as you could exactly call it.
love. I was considerably taken in a few 'months ago down Senth, by a pretty fleef, I met, and before I was aware of it, I call her I loved her, when two bullets came in whisking about my head.' (there is the scar of one of them); for she had a husband, who hanneled to he in heaving distance. And happened to be in hearing distance. And so I left that there place as quietly as possible and now I vow I'll never love another wo-

Say that after seeing Maggie Grafton Frank. Supposing you carry a note to her for me !'

I have seen her, Med—I'll own she is a beauty. I'm willing to do anything for you Ned, but there is a girl in the case, and I alnost know I will have something awful hap-pen to me. Write the note, I'll venture to take it, but I don't think you are very brave. Let me see. We are nearly of a height—Fould be easily histaken for you. height—Fould be easily mistaken for you. So I'll don your clothes, hat and cane, and see what luck; and mind you, if I woo and win, you are not to complain, but bear it like a brave man, as you are.'

Here the speaker laughed heartily.

'If you can get her father's too, you iean to say ?" Thank you, Ned; I forgot it takes three in this case to make a bargain.

That evening Frank Winters started for the residence of Mr. Grafton. At the gate he met Miss Grafton, supposing it was her friend-Ned Haseltine-accessed him with a please of good evening, and Frank taking the advantage of her mistake, sencluded the best thing for him to do was to pass as his

I hardly expected to see you again,' she said timidly, while Frank Winters thought her voice music the birds could not

"Why did you not expect to see me again ? inquired Frank.

I will be candid with you, Ned (Frank smiled secretly at the idea of a woman's being candid,) but you must not be offen-ded!" Have no fears of that dies Granon, for already understand that your affections are bestowed upon another.

They are. Ned, as a friend I love and respect you—nothing more.

Who is the happy man that has your

'Who is the happy man that has your heart's deep love!'
'Frank Winters.
'This is decidedly pleasant thought the deceiver—a young lady, with a large fortune telling me boldly, plainly, that I have her thoughts. She had a mighty sweet voice, and it don't sound very disagreeable.'
'You will still be my friend?' she continued.

'Hem! hem!-yes oh yes! Frank I knov loves you'in return!'

'Are you positive!'
'Quite positive.'
'Did he ever tell you so!'

'Did he ever tell you so.'

'He will tell you so to night, for Miss Grafton, I am Frank Winters.'

Maggie gave a slight scream, of course, which was soon silehood, as Frank related his errand, and said many other things which I am not going to tell purposely to let people know that a 'woman can keep a secret.' I will tell, however, that a few hours after a couple ward agen resty a Rev.

Cancational.

POTTER TOWNSHIP DISTRICT INSTITUTE. FAIRVIEW SCHOOL-HOUSE Mr. Editor :-- Having been informed that there was an Institute to be held at the shove named place, commencing on Friday evening, January 15th, and to be continued on Saturday, and being myself an advocate of Institutes, if properly conducted, or anything else which is calculated to enhan the interests of education; I, therefore, con-cinded that I would attend it, which it did; You were a big fool for trusting her with and being one among the first, I had every opportunity of hearing and seeing all that was going on. I would here give those who were not in attendance, a short account of it in the form of a letter. The House was dalled to order by the President. Prayer by one of the citizens. The roll being called, the teachers present responded with spioy sentiments, after which one of the teachers delivered an able and interesting lecture; which was listened to with marked attention. Subject-" Motives to Intellectual Culture." The discussion of the following topics was then engaged in by the teachers 'Are the Outline Maps a Benefit in the School-room?" and "Should Scholars bel up. Advanced for the Sake of Encouragement? After these subjects had been ably debated, the Institute adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock A. M. But now came the time. The citisens all wantige teachers to entertain, one > entertain all. Oh, how I wished to be a teacher! But -Morning Session .- House called to order. Prayer by one of the teachers. Among the proceedings of the foreneon session, most worthy of our notice, were two class-drills n Written Arithmetic -one, in Interest, conducted by a lady : the other, in Proportion. by a gentleman. He, in drilling his class, used a work called the "Western Calculaman (we say it to his credit) even offered to ance. A teacher, in commenting on this motion, before the vote was taken, said that he believed the way to make an Institute interesting, was to have a large number of citizens in attendance; which we believe to be true.

To sum up: this was one of the best Infaces. be true.

stitutes I have attended in three years, the fac teachers all being alive to their performan-

Miscellaneous.

OUR NEIGHBOR'S SINS.

Some persons are talking of procuring from the Boston public institutions three or four of the children whose backs are said to be fearfully marked with the scars of whippings cruelly administered there, and also pings cruelly administered there, and also thickness of the wall, had devoured everything combustible by ten o'clock; and then, and other instru-Some persons are talking of procuring Receret.' I will tell, however, that a few hours after, a couple were seen.near a Reverend's dwelling, and a little note lay on Ned Hazeltine's table, which read something like this:

'Dear Ned:—I am much obliged for the ween of the will not some of the purpose of exhibiting the country, to any the action of the country, to avouse the attention of the will call at Mr. Grafton's I will present you to Mrs. Frank Winters—much to the Grafton of the country, to avouse the attention of the country as a standard of the country and the importance of a reform. We heartily ton family's astonishment, as well as your of individual instances of oraclity are never to be commended. If used to excite section.

Prank.

Of course, Ned Hazeltine, received this of automotive, as they remerally are they are door, multitudes with their lower parts entered there, and also their instructions then instruction there, and also their instructions then instruction and then of the will, had devoured everything combustible by ten o'clock; and then, ments of the wall, had devoured everything combustible by ten o'clock; and then, desprise of exhibitions to look for their lost ones. Oh, what a sight the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the country, to every a described errows of calcined, distorting the min New York and other parts of the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the country, to every a fone, and then of to look for their lost ones. Oh, what a sight the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the country, to every the action of the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the call the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the country, to every the fair of the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the call the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the call the fair, placid moon looked down upon in the fair, placid moon looked own.

Frank.

Of course, Ned Haseltine received this rews as any young man welld who had not courage enough to deliver his own notes, but as he is married now—to Mary Finch—I hardly think but that he has forgotten the time he was so instanted with Maggie—Winters now. And I shall say nothing more about it, for fear Mrs. Ned Haseltine to enting the country of entire wold probably be ne difficulty in finding instances in New York of severe and cruel punishment administered time high not continue to hink Mrs. Frank Winters the dearest little soul in the world.

In the City of Patterson, N. J. there are a large number of children, who have been made orphans by the war. The ladies connected with the Catholle Church got up a chir in the principal hall of the city of parading around the ountry the sins of the sections that that in which we live we be soon and cannot be purposed first and to provide for thesis ohlidren in the principal hall of the city for thesis ohlidren in the overal hall soon have all the people attending to they ware into engaged first. Throoln's assession, and then of the heap that had choked up the dear and then of the heap that had choked up the dear and then of the heap that had choked up the dear and then of the heap that had choked up the dear and then of the heap that had choked up the dear and then of the heap that had choked up the dear that in which they are they are deserted as a number of the section of State in which they occur are never properly chargeable with they occur are never properly chargeable with they were hand in death, was horrible. It was the silence of the serious screams of the silence of the serious end of the section of State in which they occur are never properly chargeable with they were habed in death, was horrible. It was the silence of the serious are never properly chargeable with their hopople of the with their hopople of the world with the continue to hink Mrs.

The literature of the heap that done do the serious screams in the people of the were hand they will Brief to to be day-ling count become processing to the support of the country of

One of the most herrible calamities that has ever fallen upon any people occurred in the city of Santiage, the capital of the Republic of Chill, an the night of the Sth of December last. The Church of the Jesuita, in which was being celebrated the Immaculité Conception of the Ybrgin, was destroyed by fipe, and with it were bested and engineration of the Surgin, and children, numbering, sanon than the flawer of the heavity and fishion of the capital. The Mercurio Del Vapir, of the 17th, gives the following account of the satisfations:

On the commamoration of the limmaculate Cenception, the last of the festivities of the month of May, the most popular and frequented of all our solumnities, thousands of the two destroyed to the last of the perferisance which was to collabe all that had proceeded. At aix in the evening the specifical stops and part of the open price Botter und proceeded. At aix in the evening the specifical contenter could be made room for. A few minutes before seven, and when the religious perfermance was about to commence, they were still lights in the minutes before seven, and when the reli-gious performance was about to commence, they were still lighting the least lights in the chancel, when the portable gas in the half moon of canvas and wood that formed the pedestal of a colossal finage of the Virgin Mary, began to burn one of the extremities of that appearatus. Some one runhed on the riging flams and succeeded in swothering it ne and succeeded in smothering it rising fla rising flame and succeeded in smothering it, but by a fittal rebound, the gas, compressed by the effort, bust out with redoubled vigor at the other extremity of the flase half moon. Immediately a ferce flame rushed up. The persons who thronged the chancel flew towards the sacristy, crying "water," whilst the women, who filled the nave, arose in tumultuous confusion, screaming for halp.

nave, arose in tunuituous confusion, screaning for help.

The fire spread with wonderful rapidity, to the revelor of wood and hangings, and thence, attracted by the cuirrent of air that always circulates between the upper boarding and the roof, rolled through the thurch. In a few moments all overhead was a mass of fiames. In the meantime, the men had succeeded in eccepting; for in this church the sefes were scharated by an iron grains. the sexes were separated by an iron grating and the women had fled as far as the middle of the church in a state of the most terri-ble confusion. But the headlong hurry, the fainting, the obstruction of the bell-shaped dresses, and the frantic esgerness to gain the street, formed an impenetrable barriar before the two doors, which, by a culpable used a work called the "Western Calculator," supposed by some of the teachers to have been used by Neah in making calculations for the building of the Ark.

The afternoon session was almost entirely spent in discussing various topics. The question, "To What Extent should a Teacher of Associate with His Pupils?" was the subject of a lengthy and spirited debate, as well as all the other topics discussed.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to the citizens of Feirview for their kind hospitality in entertaining the teachers.—
And also a vote of thanks to the citizens of Fairview and vicinity for their good attendance. A teacher, in commenting on this motion, before the vote was taken, said that loss. Hardly had the noble men who had devo teachers all heing alive to their performances. Great credit is due to the teachers in attendance, and to the profession in general.

A SPECIATOR.

A SPECIATOR.

A SPECIATOR.

Cultohed the victim about to be saved, and in some cases dragged those who came to help them into the figry vortex. It was al-most impossible to axiricate even one from that heap of despairing weiches and undo that ghastly knot. But the fire-accomplish-ed that which baffled man, and the peasage into the doomed church was not deared un-til that impenetrable phalanx of precious, beautiful life, was a handful of cinders.

THE AWFUL DISASTEN IN CHILI.

One of the most herrible collemnia that has ever fallon upon any people occurred in the city of Santiage, the chystal of the Sch and the consequence of the Jenuta, a which was being collebrated the Immaculate Conception of the Yingh, was destroyed by up, and with it were deward one of the provided one of the war being collebrated the immaculate Conception of the Yingh, was destroyed by up, and with it were deward one and of the war being collebrated one two thesiand worses, and children. unrecognized corpose were, on the 9th and 10th, carried to the country. The beauty and the wealthy and the proud Spanish aris 10th, carried to the bemetery. The beauty and the wealthy and the proud Spanish arise to torsey sil had their representatives in that awful cortage.

A reaction has taken place here against the glergy. Public opinion demanded at once the conversion of the church site into a public section. This has been and in rise build spaned by the clergy and their form a claim for the modest little sum of public section.

A decree has been issued ordering the entire demolition of the resistance of the Church of the Compania, in which the accident congurate.

ourred.

Felect Poetry.

The following poem from the pen of our publish from an old copy of the Jersey Shore ublican, an ably edited paper, published in oming county, some years ago, for whose sing become incorporated with the West Branch msport. This poem is of the heat that "Jon" has are

THERE IS NO GOD! BY JOB W. FURST.

"The fool bath said in his heart, There is ad.".... Rible.

Within his heart the fool bath said, "Behold, there is no God!"
And lo! aghast creation stands,
Shock'd at the impious word!

Go. oringing wretch, blaspheme no more of else may o'er theo roll

A cruphing weight of God-like wrath,
To blast thy very soul.

Think ye high Heaven will thus brook Thy insults and thy meers? Ah, no! thy soul will one day be O'erwhelmed with guilty fears.

And then unto the rooks that tower, High o'er the raging sea, Affrighted at His mighty power, In horror thou shalt fee, IS THERE NO GOD?

The forest, with its leafy boughs, Points upward to His throne, And with a silent tongue avows, The work is all His own!

The brooklet, as it murmure by, Repeats his wondrous name; The stars that twinkle in the sky,

The birds that sing in sweetest lays, Or eard mong the trees, Send up to Heaven a hymn of praise On every passing breese.

The sun that from his "blating throne," Flings down his,golden ray, Moves, (glad the Aimighty's power to own Obedient to his sway.

The moon's screne and gentle light Speaks of our Payans a large; And whispers to the weary soul Of you bright Heaven above.

Old ocean, too, whose billowy waves Like tallest mountains tower, But speaks the awful majesty Of GREAT JEHOVAN'S power.

And yet will man—vain man, proved Th' Almighty's vangeance dire, Te sink his soul down to the depths Of hell's gooweed fire! O, simple fool 1 a cup of woe
Is filling up for thee,
Which thou shalt drain unto the drage

In long Eternity! And when to hell thy soul be cast, To feel the burning rod, With horrid, groaning anguish, thou Wilt shrigk.—"THERR IS A GOD!"

Some Difference. The Salem Advocate gives the following incident showing the dif-

Abolition estimation: . "Last week we had occasion to mention that at a meeting in the Methodist church in that place, a collection was taken up for the runkway negroes by an agent of the "Freedman's society," amounting to twenty-one dellars and a half.

A'few evenings afterwards, a collection for the benefit of soldlers' families and destitute white people, was taken up at one of the churches in town and we are told the mag-

Much in Vittle.

Three years ago not a pound of salt was made in Saginaw Valley, Mich. There has been exported from the valley during 1865 not less than 8,000,000 barrels.

A BANKEUPT LAW. - The Washingto Chronicis, John W. Fornsy's paper, says Congress, will undobtedly pass a general Bankrupt law during this session.

The Halifax citizens say that a demand will be made upon the English author ities by the Confederates for the surren

The man who magined himself wise, because he detected some typographical errors in a newspaper, has been trying to get a perpendicular view of the rainbow...

"Ma, get down on your hands "Why, what shall I do that for, pet."
"Cause I want to draw an elephant."

An Irishman complained to his physician that he had stuffed him so much, with drugs that he was sick a long time after he got well.

An exchange exults obseringly over the vast increase in the number of marriages ince the outbreak of the war—no allusion is made to funerals.

Congress is trying to legislate against the importation of gold if it will wait another year, no legislation will be necessary, as there will be none left to send away.

A cotamporary says that "marriages have increased five per cent, under Mr. Lincoln's Administration." So have funerals increased five thousand per cent, under his — Pouring cold water on the face and head destroys the effect of narcotle potenns. A girl poisoned with laudanum in England, was saved in this way after all other remo-

- To get rid of corns, rub them with toastud cheese, and let your feet hang out of bed for a night or two, that the mice may nibble them. If the mice de their duty the remedy will be sufficient.

A convention of Bloomer damsels is said to have resolved that they will wear short dresses on nothing. What an awful thing it would be if they shouldn't wear short dresses.

Sth New York artillery regiment, while shating near Fort MeHenry, Baltimore, on Tuesday morning, broke through the ice, and was drowned.

grass, he must be a load of hay. "I suppose I am," said he, "from the way you asses nibble at me."

in a country churchyard we find this pitanh: "Here lies the body of Robinson and Ruth, his wife;" and under-neath, the text-"Their warfare is accom-plished."

Som Difference.—The Salem Advocate gives the fellowing insident showing the difference between white men and negroes, in Abolition estimation:

Abolition estimation: Indiana.

The Bangor Democrat says: "John Morgan has escaped; but it is some comfort to know that new we shall not have to take Neal Dow in exchange for him. It is less versations to lope a thing than to be cheated out of it." --- Forney says, "the wretches who peace ought to be crucified." That wo

PLAIN QUESTIONS FOR HO

Have you ever known a Democratic letter a violation of the Constitution Have you ever known a stain his ministed who Believes it?—There is said to ident to suspend the writ of Labous countries and to be an old maid in New Orleans with such! Have you ever known a Conscription law a sharp face, that she used it to pare apples. To be passed under a Democratic Administration.

Have you ever known a Confinent to be passed under a Dimografic tration !

tration?

Have you ever known a Remountle Administration to form a new Stripe in violation of the plain provisions of the Constitu-

Have you ever there is the control to present, when a citizen could be functioned in a thingeon without the authority of Law? Have you ever known a Democratic Administration to compel the people of a State or the District of Columbia 20 sell their property whether willing or and?

Have you ever known may Administrate. tion except Abraham's, to areats a National debt of $3,000,000,000 in the short period debt of 35,000,uny,vox

of three years?
Have you ever known a citizen to be cent
into banishment and axile under Dedicorutrule?
Have you ever known a time amiler Dan-may you eye known a time smarr near-ourtic rule, when the greatest orimes sad-outrages have been committed by our rulers under a plea of "military papeasity" er "reasons of State?" Have you, before this, known a time when the military was made superior to the civil the military was made superior to the civil-power?

Have you ever known a Demogratic Ad-ministration to tax the people of the whole country to buy negroes of the border States? Have you ever known a Demogratic Ad-ministration to tax the peoples issuing the expenses of stelling and educating the lan-grous of the Southern States?

Hade you are a known a Demogratic Ad-

Hade you ever known a Democratic Administration to ignere the rights of the States ? Have you ever known an Administration in opposition to the Democracy, to leave the affairs of the country in as flourishing e-condition as it found them?

EXECUTION OF A CONFEDERATE

SPY. A correspondent writing from Pulseld, Tennr, gives a graphic description of the trial and execution of a young, talented, and breve Tenm, gives a graphic description of the trial and execution of a young, talented, and have Confederate app, by the mame of Sam'l Davis. When he was taken there was found viole the persons a pass signed by General Thurston. Bragg, stating that the bearur was a missaber of Captain Coleman's scouts, and not to be interrupted so there documents giving "alpabile information relative to the number, strength and position of the Federal army in and around the nost were a laber disservated. and around the post, were also discevered upon him.

He was tried by Milliary Commission.

He desied, on trial, that he was a spy, but pleed guilty to carrying mells to persons in arms against the Government of the United States. The Commission, after due didther arms against the Government of the United States. The Commission, after due deliberation, are respectively as the pronounced him guilty, and sendated the was quite a young man about medium haiffur rather slightly made, active, impelative that he was quite a young man about medium haiffur rather slightly made, active, impelative that intelligent. While sitting upon the closely intelligent. While sitting upon the closely in the property of the scalled, with death; or before his eyes, he was professed a full unit, free pardon, if he wend only give information of his Captain's whether the property is the control of th officer who made it:

"Would you belray a friend? I had gold or die a thousand times."
Only a memoral before he assemble, the soafold, he remarked to Gaptain Armstrong who stood near him as his executioner, and laughing as he speke:

Well, Captain, you'll have to fifth shore battles alone, hereafter for I'll goes he need at your way."

With a quick first proud step; he messeld—de the stairway to the platform—and there ed the stairway to the platform, and there he actually stooped, as if to place his head within the noose, supposing he whis legs" in a twinkling.

THE LOYAL TREET OF LOUVELAND. The offerts making by the radicals to obtain the loyal tenth of Louisland-to vectors which Mr. Lincoln's ideas of a republicity firm of government, has disclosed the fact that the negro is to be made the control ting denoming the composition. It appears that the many months of convenient grains is and since the problemstion, the pre-resident in oraginaring a convention, though the envision of the control of the control of the convenient of one-patch is my complete. Two whole parishes were represented in the convenient by the adminishment of the proceedings. THE LOYAL TREET SOUTHARD

coolings. anounces of the space of the prince the following from the space of the prince inge of a religious body and in the Chinage Tribune. PROGRESSIVE ORBITANTE - Vention