A [illegible] HALL.

The times, they are mighty hard,
To all this mighty bother,
And Democrats Republicans—
Fly each one blame the other.

Republicans blame Democrats,
For all this mighty evil,
While others say he's trying hard
To send us to the Devil.

And so it goes, and politics,
Makes fast friends fight each other,
And kindles bitter feelings, which
They try in vain to smother.

Now, this is all a silly thing,
And comes of human blindness,
For all men should be brothers, and
Should live in peace and kindness.

If you're a "Pub" and I'm a "Dem,"
That need not cause a trouble,
Nor make us call each other names,
Nor beat each other double.

For where's the use in you and I,
To go to pullin' triggers,
Just for a nasty greasy lot
Of wooly-pated niggers.

Just none at all—and so say I,
We've made a mighty blunder,
For politics is just the thing
To send us all to thunder.

So let us stop it—and we'll try
To pull once more together,
And buy from Sternberg all our clothes
For this cold winter weather.

He's got a large and handsome stock,
Just brought here from the city,
And that is what I wanted to say,
When I commenced my ditty.

So roll in folks—Sternberg's a man
(The honest truth revealing,)
Who only tries to make his "pile,"
By fair and upright dealing.

A Sternberg & Co., Reynolds' Arcade, next door above the "Conrad House," have just received a splendid lot of fall and winter clothing which they offer for sale at astonishingly low prices.

From the Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparations, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long debility.—The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of this kind can be readily cured by Hooflands German Bitters. We had no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

The proprietors are daily receiving thankful letters from sufferers in the army and Hospitals who have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, sent to them by their friends.
