THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

PANSIE.—The Poem you enquire for is Lever's "Charles O'Malley."

SAM.—State your question plainly, and we will try to answer it.

ZEPH.—We confess our inability to answer your question; you had better write to the Press Office.

A. Z.—Mr. Lincoln is the author of the great maxim, "It is easier to pay a large ransom than a larger sum."

ALECK.—Sir Walter Scott, the great Poet and Novelist, died in 1832. We cannot say which of his Novels is the best; it depends on the readers' taste. Kenilworth, Ivanhoe and Guy Mannering stand highest. In our opinion, Ivanhoe is the best of the three.

MAC.—The Peninsular Campaign fought three of the most desperate battles of the "Seven Days," almost without support from any other portion of the army. The slaughter of the Confederate forces at Mechanicsville, where the seven days campaign opened, was terrible. They were repulsed and kept at bay by Gen. M'Call, for ten hours. At Fraizier's Farm, where Gen. M'Call was captured, occurred perhaps the most desperate hand-to-hand fight the world ever witnessed; the Reserves under M'Call, Reynolds, Meade and others, fought with unparalled bravery throughout the whole campaign, and lost nearly half their numbers. Your question in regard to Gen. Hooker is best answered by his career, as Commander of the Army of the Potomac. We believe him to be an unprincipled demagogue, and that he knows nothing beyond No. 1.

LARGE TIMBER.—A stick of red oak timber was cut recently, by Joseph L. Neal, on the land of Mr. Heilder in Howard Township, which measured 47 feet in length, and squared 36 inches; containing 350 cubic feet. We doubt whether such another monster oak is to be found in the State.

NEW.—From Dick & Fitzgerald, No. 18 Ann Street New York, we have a copy of the "Perfect Gentleman," a work of great merit, and one which all may read with profit. It is an American work, and greatly superior to the silly French works in circulation. Send $1,25 and receive a copy by mail.

NEW.—Enlistments are going on rapidly in the County, and by paying heavy bounties, it is probable that our quota will be filled without a draft. The different districts are offering from two to three hundred dollars bounty, which, together with that offered by the government, is quite an inducement. It will be seen by the revised enrollment bill, published in to-day's paper, that each election district is to have credit for the men furnished, who are to be deducted from the number to be drafted.

BATTLE-FIELDS OF THE SOUTH.—We have received a copy of a work with the above title which ought to be in the hands of all who wish to see both sides of the great Civil War. It is written by an English combatant, a lieutenant of artillery on the Confederate staff, in a racy, easy style, and is particularly interesting from the glimpses it gives of Southern camp life, and the well drawn portraits of all the prominent Confederate officers.

All the battle-fields of the war, from Bull Run to Fredericksburg, are graphically described. Sent by mail, for $2,50; published by John Bradburn, No. 49 Walker St. N.Y.

NEW.—We notice, in one of our exchanges, the announcement of the death of Kate B. Chase, a distinguished attorney of the Luzerne County Bar. His name is well known in Democratic circles throughout the State, as that of an earnest, fearless advocate of their principles; though for some years his feeble health has kept him from public positions which his intellectual attainments so well qualified him to fill. In the Autumn of 1862 he was arrested, without cause, by order of the Washington despotism; and though his character was triumpantly vindicated, by the testimony of his opponents in politics, the excitement occasioned an attack of hemorrhage of the lungs, to which he was subject, and probably hastened his death. He leaves a family and large circle of friends, with whom we sincerely sympathize in their great loss.

NEW.—The Musical Convention, under the management of Mr. Burlew and the Messrs. Whiteman of Lock Haven, has been in operation since Tuesday morning last, and proved a decided success. One has no idea of the latent music which is in a community, and which these gentlemen develop in the rarest manner, in a few hours of instruction. They bring forth the real beauties of the science in a style unequalled. It is no humbug; Conventions have been held by them in various parts of this and adjoining counties, and where they are best known they have the largest audiences. It is worth ten times the price of admission to hear the music which these gentlemen alone make, accompanied by their splendid instrument. We advise all who have not seen and heard, to attend the Concert at the Methodist Church this evening, and by the payment of 25 cents, enjoy such an entertainment as has seldom been afforded the people of Bellefonte.

NEW.—The quiet of Sth Town was seriously disturbed on Tuesday evening last, by the demonstrations of about seventy intoxicated soldiers, taking their farewell of the town in a grand spree. Some four or five of them made an unprovoked attack upon Jesse Frederick, one of our most peaceable citizens, offensive citizens, and beat him in a most cowardly and shameful manner, at Gutelius's Hotel. The rest of the war then changed to the Conrad House, and for some time the battle raged with great fury. Blows were given and returned in every direction; but it appears the host who sustained the attack got much the worst of it in the end, and after it was over, the town was unusually quiet. The veteran soldiers, since their return, have one and all conducted themselves in a gentlemanly and exemplary manner. The instigators of the disgraceful row of Tuesday, were some half a dozen blackguards from the country.

DR. TOBIAS'
VENETIAN HORSE LINIMENT.

FIFTY BOTTLES at Fifty Cents, for the cure of lameness, scratches, wind galls, sprains, bruises, colic, sore throat, nail in the foot, etc. It is warranted cheaper and better than any other. It is used by all the great horsemen on Long Island constantly. "It will not cure ring bone nor spavin, as there is no liniment in existence that will. What it is stated to cure it positively does. No owner of horses will be without it after trying one bottle. One dose revives and often saves the life of an over-heated or driven horse. For colic and belly-ache it has never failed. Just as often as the sun rises, just so sure is the valuable Liniment to be the Horse Embrocation of the day. Sold by all druggists. Office, 56 Cortland Street, New York.

WANTED!
STAVES, SHINGLES, POPLAR, LOG-GER, ETC.

The undersigned is about extending his lumber business to fill a needed gap in the trade of Philadelphia, by making a specialty of the hoop-stock trade, and now desires to make arrangements to secure supplies. The city coopers, shippers, &c., owing to the impossibility of obtaining them in Philadelphia, now depend largely on other markets for their Staves, &c.—With proper encouragement by the manufacturers, the undersigned hopes to stop this diversion of trade by keeping on hand a large stock, in every variety of quality and size. By giving this branch of trade particular attention, he hopes to make more early returns to consignments, and establish for the manufacturers a more valuable communication with purchasers than is possible by those who trade mainly in more heavy lumbers.

Manufacturers and others who can furnish (particularly continuous supplies) either by contract, purchase, or on commission, Staves, Heading, Hoop-poles, &c., should address

W. A. LEVERING,
Callowhill St. Wharf,
Philadelphia.

Large supplies always wanted of Locust Timber, Oak-Knees, and frequently long Oak Plank, Oak and Yellow-Pine Timber. Also, now opening a trade in and wanting supplies of Shingles, Walnut, Cherry, Poplar and Ash Lumber, &c.

MARRIAGE GUIDE.
YOUNG'S GREAT PHYSIOLOGICAL WORK.

Or every one his own Doctor—being a private Instructor for married persons or those about to marry, both male and female. In everything comprising the physiology and relations of our sexual system, and the production or prevention of offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain but chaste language for the general reader, and is illustrated with upwards of one hundred engravings. All young married people or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be looked up and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents. Address Dr. WM. YOUNG, No 416 Spruce St. above 4th, Phila. The New York Times, says:

"This is a volume of extraordinary interest, being nothing less than the Rebel official statements of battles, for the account of which we have heretofore had to rely upon the reports of our own officers and descriptions of newspaper correspondents.

"The whole collection will be found exceedingly valuable as a compendious volume of our own reports on the conduct of the war; and Mr. Richardson deserved great credit for getting it out in this very convenient and handsome shape."

The above Works, bound handsomely in half Morocco, gilt edges, uniform, will be supplied at $12 per set.

A Virginian.

One Vol. 12mo., 324 pp. $1,25. Authentic Portraits of Jackson and his companions, Ewell, on Steel.

STONEWALL JACKSON has made an impression for the public not to devour with avidity an authentic life. Four compilations may be gotten up by authors without access to authentic documents, but this is a life written by a Confederate officer, (Hon. John M. Daniels,) who knew him well, served under him in his brilliant career, was admitted by Mrs. Jackson, and had access to all his papers. It gives minutely all the details of his campaigns, abounding with thrilling incidents and interesting narratives, and is written with great ability, forming a volume of intense and absorbing interest, unequalled by any other publication of the kind.

It contains the only authentic portrait of Jackson, taken from life, shortly before the battle of Chancellorsville, for Mrs. Jackson.

PORTRAIT OF STONEWALL JACKSON, WITH AN AUTOGRAPH,

It is copied from a Photograph taken just before the battle of Chancellorsville, for Mrs. Jackson, and is the only authentic portrait of the hero that has been done in the finest style of the art.
