TONE THE RESERVE all me Le Wall Mark of Harmon bla of fore were transferi as footprayer Il dia vons: wore thirthin institut action in the air.

In wall of arrest post-sering which his wall of arrest post-sering which will be triangled by a specific to him have ching.

bave conducted it; but nappily to me nation since we can have peace on no lighter terms.

As is is cortain that there are here a drawn in rainbow colors by the magic touch of youth—is innocently dreaming only purity and truth;

Innocently dreaming only purity and truth and t of delight
They were drawn in rainbow colors by the magic touch of youth—
I was innocently dreaming only purity and truth; Nover thinking of the angulah the foresken heart must know, Knowing nothing of the sorrows the betrayer's hand can sow.
Such reflections bring me sorrow, but all in vain To school my hear? so hatred, that these memories may die; For they breathe upon my spirit, they burn within my brait They whisper me of pleasures I shall never see again; They torture me while waking, and they haunt me when I sleep.
And across my brightest pleasures their lengthuned shadows creep.

When the future comes upon me, still my heart

PRODUCTION

As the or wifting Parts of the control of the control

e Alemania Alia

WASE RIGHTS AND TORKAL UNION."

Vol. 9

The wife of the property

And when it comes, the war must end—and disastrously and disgracefully, to those who have conducted it; but happily to the nation beings about the beneficial result. Reck-less and shalloy ment will rave at the wary mention of the word repudiation. But their profanity does not mend the matter—does not close the door of even their stolld ideal-lect against the conviction that it is inevita-ble. The sum is a sumple one. The inter-est on the present dobt is $1,400,000,000, feurteen hundred millions of dollars, every trus:

BELLEFONTE, PA., ERIDAY, MARCH 18, 1864.

1st issue, 400 millions of francs.
2nd issue, 120 millions; discount 10 per cent,

Srd issue, 2,700 millions; discount 80 pe

4th issue, 5,000 millions; discount 55 per milions of france, the discount. was 78 per cent. And finally, in 1765, only five years after the first issue, when the whole amount was twenty thousand millions of france, the discount was 99 per cent.

Soon after this the Government paper fell fell to zero, and was abandoned as valueless.

The experience of Russia with Government paper. if less disastrous, is none the less instructive in teaching the great lesson that it is not within the power of any Govern-ment to make it its mere paper issue of pro-mise to pay pass as money for any length of feurieen hundred millions of dollars, every ten yours. The annual export agricultural productions of the North, for the ten years ending 1863, amount to only $65,817,879. Hereafter the surplus wealth of the North, will fall, for a great many years, far below the above figures, because a million of inen who have been producers of wealth, have been drawn off into the army, where they not only ceased to be producers but have will ever be.

the will learn the fearful angulah of an unrequised to special states and gold, just as similar foolish people they have repented of their transgressions and become subdued they have repented of their transgressions and become converted to the transgressions. There is no seems to the principal, where the stones of their country. In some cases the result of the payment of the interest is beyond the possibility of the past will come before him, as a spectre from the tonsh.

When his heart is full of sadness and his soul is full of gloom,

Then a retribution certain will surround his full of ground his properties. The same that the stones of merchafts were broken open, but of the people? Is there any estates and their goods sold at limited prices, by committees appointed by the people. As committees appointed by the people. Repudiation, therefore, is not a question of the people of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham and their goods sold at limited prices, by committees appointed by the people. Therefore, is not a question of the people of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham the same become subdued they have repented of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham the people of the people of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham the people of the people of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham the people of the people of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham the people of the people of their transgressions. Therefore, is not a people of their transgressions and become converted to the true Abraham the people of the people of their transgressions. Therefore, is not a people of their country. In some cases, the people of the pe on the deeds of the petrayer are, frommed upon the least of the interest is beyond the possel. In limited prices of the thought the possel of and their goods sold at limited prices of the thought the possel of th vault of the grave yard—so the star of peace shines above the dark gulf of bankrup ey.—

A PROCLAMATION OF AMNESTY TO MY "ERRING SISTERS."

The following, from the Bangor (Maine) Democrat, is a good "take off." It displays full as much sense, and a great deal more wit, than Lincoln's Proclamation of "amnesty." and really echoes Lincolnism in much better manner than Lincoln can do it himself:

Whereas, A dozen of my wayward "Sis-Whereas, A dozen of my wayward "Sisters" did, on a certain day, clope from my boarding-house, with a worthy scamp named Southren Confederacy, (so-called) without cause or protection, having set up houses keeping for themselves in a ficketty shanty, situated south of the old homestend; and, Whereas, This shanty was built on my land, which I inherited from my old Puritan Father, and have suffered much in this war, but the blacks have suffered far more." blacks have suffered far more."

Governor Aften says that the world will nover know the sufferings of the people...
The farm-houses have been stripped, barns destroyed, desolation is everywhere in the trail of the invaders. In the cities it is worse. Butler came to New Orleans and instituted a saturnalis of thieves. He came there a harkers a way a willion. When the future comes upon me, still my heart will ever grope in the dillever grope in the will ever grope in the will ever grope in the will ever grope in the dillever grope in the dillever grope in the will ever be of buried loope;

My soul will still remiember, though all other powers should fall,

My soul will still remiember, though all other powers should fall,

My see the hight was round mo, or I heard love the difference in the start of the interest on the war debt. This is, if all the farmers, producers, and laborers, and laborers, and laborers, will ever be.

When the future comes upon me, still my heart will ever grope in the distore, in the distore, in the strong of the path we are traveling now. As the distore, in the strong of the path we are traveling now. As the distore, in the strong of the force of overything went upon the oredit of the Government of the process. When the shades of life are darkest those days will ever be.

When the future comes upon me, still my heart will ever grope in the distored the grove menner, where they upon the oredit of the Government of the force menney, based and upon the oredit of the Government of the force menney, based upon the oredit of the Government of the force menney, where they upon the oredit of the Government of the force of the force on the war debt. This is, if all the surplus productions of the Continental Congress increased its paper is of the grove and count of the come of the process to the money. We have only to cast which I inherited from my old Puritan our cyse backwards 80 years sto get a vision of the came that the came the came the came the came the came that the came the came the came that the came the came that the came the came the came that the came the came the came that the came the came that and he died from the treatment." He Mio open the lomb of General Albert Sidney Johnson, and robbed the grave of that gal-lant soldier." In Baton Rouge the enemy

For the Wate YE MAGDALENES! BY PETER PEEL.

No. 11.

It will be remembered that out of the one hundred and fifty Massachusetts spinsters, age to South Carolina to educate the niggers, sixty four of them, in less than one year have been compelled to abandon the big niggers; and opes up nurseries for their own little ones.

Four and sixty Boating Gals, Cream of ye Yankee nation, Descended straight from Plymouth Stock. Yopattern of creations

They volunteered their services, All on a holy mission, . To educate ye niggers And remodel their condition. They all went down to Hilton Head,

To open schools and moeting house For Nig's and doodle-dandies They labored hard both day and night,

With Books, and cakes and candies,

By sunlight and by Flam-boau, They wrestled with ye spirit-And they wrestled too with Sambo They followed up this work of love

With puritanic vigor, Till each one, on hor own account, Brought forth a little nigger.

And now no doubt ve Bosting Gals, Think this a fine vb

Of filling up ye country, With a "yaller" population:

And soon we'll hear New England shout And Abolition snigger About this, truly Yankee way To clevate ve nigger. Bajanrosta, March 14th, '64.

THIS, THAT AND THE OTHER.

The town elections which have just taken place in New York, shows decided deme cratic gains. Artemus Ward thinks it a big thing not to have a wife—no gentle heart to got up in the morning to build the are. An editorial Jenkins says "fire. Lincoln is always well dressed," So will her husband be pretty well dressed est next fall.

The Sulian of Turkey is only thir-ty-four years of age, and his hair is gray.— But then he has to many wives, poor man. eration the question, "Is wrong to cheat a lady?" The result is expected to be 'no, but lady !" The res ---- A married monster said that he late ly dreamed that he had an angel by his side, but upon walking up found that is was only his wife.

EY IN TENNESSEE.

HOW QUARTERMARTERS, MAKE, MON

A Knozville comment of the Charles A Knowville consequent of the Administration, give the following allebry of Quartermanters, operations in Tennessee. We pressure they set in the amo way in all Southern States, These the process of 'expulsion' is in operation, li BAYS!

"Another large shipment of falloo and butternut, marked O. S. A.; was instally said terday. One of the cappe is a blackburg woman by birth and clupating, but having matriced a dashing Southernor; made her bours Tennosco and her not in the Confederacy. Another is a Miss Scott. There is, withat, something to admire in the way these Southern women stek to their fast day liese Southern women stick to their fast fa ding chivalfy. And there is sentething fin-finitely detestable in the way some of , our sub-officials are enriching themselves on ill-sub-officials are efficient the second of the politic spoils.

The "spoils is process has been reduced to a large game of spoulation. Long before it is dreamed by the uninitiated that Mrs. A. or Mrs. B. is to be sent beyond out lines, the gallant Quartermaster, who has charge of transportation in the department, is a constant visitor at said lady's manusionality and the services and his orthogonality and the services are services and his orthogonality and the services and his orthogonality and the services are services and his orthogonality and services are services services are services are services and services are services are His ambulance is at her service, and his or-der procures her abundance of commissary, visitids. Pror victim, did, she but know it, these are among the first imbleations of there-disloyally. A week or two after these pre-liminaries the order is assed for her expiri-

Two days are perhaps given her in which Two days are perhaps given her in which to dispose of her coally furnitude. Citizacus call to purchase, but are informed flast the goods are sengaged to date the theorem of the to me. He knew goods with the two days and the that I would be sent away, and made arrangements to buy all my things. If he with sell you any, all right.

The truth is, the goods were purchased with fawnings and favore, and the Quartermusters now sells them to athors at whethin tant prices, or ships them hope to his own masters now sells them to athemast extention tant prices, or ships them home to his own parlors on government expanors. "Ah, but I made a good thing of it this morning." and an Assistant Quariermaster to a friend the other day. "Yes, but how are you going to get your things North!" "Oh, as to that, you know we Quariermasters have special advantages." And he did make "a good thing of it," not only in that case, but in a half a dozen others that I could mon-

I have no objection to make to The ex-pulsion of these disloyal and rebel sympadescriptions. They, no doabt, richly descriptions. They, no doabt, richly descriptions and remaining officials to fit their own drifty pockets at the expense of the governments reputation. It is unflicks and enough to admit that the necessities of our cause require that women and children be sent out of our lines, without having the additional humillation of seeing these essities turned to the gratification of person al greed, and make the valuele of all manner of chicanery. To say they are robels and their property is rebel property, it is no externation whatever. Union men fare just as rebels in this, if fewer speoulations are made at their law; pense, it is only because they have less property to be plundered. Where the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered. together.

> AN ESSAY ON A MULE. BY JOSH BILLINGS.

The mule is had bees and har jacrass, and then comes to a full stop, nature diskovering her mistake. The way mureakordin to thir lieft than cany other kreetur except a crawar. The kant hear enny quicker nor further The kant hear enny diddres for further than the hoss, their cars are eigenough for snow shoes. You can trust them with anny one whose life aint worth any more than the mule's. The only wa to keep them in a paster, is to turn them inter a medder jinessing and let them jump out. The are reddy, for; use just as soon as the will dut u abuse. The hain got only more friends than a Chartan street Jews, and will live on the results. tem street Jews, and will live on such above the ry brush, with an ockasional chase at kamer thistles. The are a modern invendant; I dont think the Bible dulades to them at full. The sell for more munny than entry other demestic snimals. You can tell their inge by looking into their mouth, annoy, more than yu kould a. Mexican Attheoffs. The never had no disease that a club wont heal. If the weer die, this must come, rité (40 liferagain, for i neves heary accour, rité (40 liferagain, for i neves theary accour to kick sumbode, i never owned one, nor never hear to quirin it.

The only reason becase the are phashums is because they are askamed or the series in have seen chicated mules in a sirkur the kould kick and bite trements. I would not