PLANS OF BATTLES.

This volume brings the History of the War, from a Southern view, down to the close of the late invasion, in July, of Ponnsylvania.

Written with clearness, independence and ability, and as the only connected account of all the civil, military and naval operations in the South, it is of great importance and intrest. It gives a thrilling narrative of campaigns, which were filled with interesting incidents and brilliant action.

The first edition of 5,000 copies has been entucy, taken up in advance. Therefore the publisher would request the trade to order early.

STOTEWALL JACKSON has made too profound Stowawall. Jacksov has made too profound an impression for the public not to devour with avidity an authentic life. Poor compilations may be getten up by authors without access to authentic documents but this is a life written by a Confederate officer, (Hon. John. M. Daniels.) who know him well, served under him in his brillant career, was assetted by Mrs. Jackson, and had access to all his papers. It gives minutely all the details of his campaigns, alled with throlling invidents and interesting narratives, and is written with great ability, forming a volume of intense and absorbing interest, unequalited by any other yet offered to the public.

Lt. Contains the only suthentic Portrait of Jackson, taken from the, whertly before the battle of Chancellers lile, for Mrs. Jackson.

PORTRAIT OF STONWALL JACKSON, WITH AN AUTOGRAPH, Engraved on steel, by one of the best artists in the country.

MISCELUANEOUS. STERNBERG HALL.

BY PURP SUREDIS, ESQ.-The times, they say, are mighty hard, And men can't find a dollar To spend on pante or coat or vest, Or even on a collar.

Republicans blame Democrats, For all this mighty bother, And Democrats Republicans— So each one blame the other.

Some swear that Lincoln's just the man To cove this mighty evil,
White others say he's trying hard
To send us to the Devil.

And so it goes—and politics, Makes fast friends fight each other, And kindles bitter feelings, which They try in vain to smother.

Now, this is all a silly thing, And comes of human blindness, For all men should be brothers, and — Should live in peace and kindness.

If you're a "Pub" and the a "Dem,"
That need not cause a trouble,
Nor make us call each other names,
Nor beat each other double.

For where's the use in you and I,
To go to pullin' triggers,
Just for a nasty greasy lot
Of wooly-pated niggers. Just none at all—and so say I.
We've made a mighty blunder,
For politics is just the thing
To send us all to thunder.

So let us stop it—and we'll try
To pull once more together,
And buy from Sternberg all our clothes
For this cold winter weather.

He's got a large and handsome stock, Just brought here from the city, And that is what I wanted to say, When I commenced my ditty.

So roll in folks—Sternberg's a man (The honest truth revealing.) Who only trees to make his "pile," By fair and upright dealing.

A. Sternburg & co., opposite the Iron- Front, next door to Mrs. Graffine's, have just re-ceived a splendid lot of fall and whiter clothing which they offer for sale at astonishingly low Oct. 16. '63—tf. A. STERNBERG, & CO.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long debility.—
The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by 'evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining.
