Some swear that Lincoln's just the man To cure this mighty evil While others say he's trying hard To send us to the Devil.

And so it goes—and politics,

I so this more readily in regard to Hoofand's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C.-M. Jæckson, of 'this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcuholic mixture. I sem Indebted to my friend Robert Shoomaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudire by proper tests, and for oncouragement to try them when suffering from great and long debility.—The use of three bottles of those Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not fait for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them
