THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

DEMOCRAT.—We can give you no better definition of the term "copperhead," than that going the round of the papers "A blackguards name for a Democrat."

JOHN.—We have no desire to enter into any such an argument, and even if we did, we would choose some opponent better booked up than you seem to be.

OHIO.—No sir. This County is Democratic and intends to be so, we have too many honest, upright voters within the borders of "old Centre," to permit the followers of puritan New England to get the upper hand again.

☞ Hon. W. H. Miller, will please accept our thanks for a copy of the speech of the Hon. D. W. Voorhees of Indiana, and also for valuable public papers.

☞ Wm. Gaines, the negro who was convicted of murder at Lock Haven has, we understand, been sentenced to be hung. The day has not been fixed.

☞ On Monday night last some scamp or scamps entered the saloon of Mr. Henry Curtin and carried off quite a quantity of liquor and a large demijohn.

☞ If our readers desire, these warm evenings, to refresh themselves with a dish of splendid Ice Cream, they should go to Mrs. Bayard's by the rail road depot; better cream than she sells cannot be made. We speak but what we know, for we have tried it.

☞ A man named Jacob Lowmiller, residing in Woodward township, Lycoming county, recently shot his sister twice in the head with a gun, killing her instantly. The parties were both unmarried and lived together. The murderer decamped, and no trace of him has yet been discovered.

COUGHS, BRONCHITIS. The entire freedom from all deleterious ingredients under "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Coughs and Voice Lozenges, a safe remedy for the most delicate female, or youngest child, has caused them to be held in the highest esteem by Clergymen, Singers and Public Speakers generally.

☞ On Tuesday morning last, quite an excitement was occasioned on Bishop st. by the arrival of a new comer into this world, which was brought from Benner twp. and presented to Mr. Harvey McClure overseer of the poor of this borough. It raised quite a stir among the Miscegenationists, who declared that Bellefonte should not be responsible for its keeping, until they found out that the little one was of proper color, to warrant it against the effects of the sun, when they graciously gave in, and took the young "cuffee" to their bosoms, with as much paternal affection, as if it was a blood relation.

☞ One day last week we noticed a party of young men, side by side passing up the hill at the upper end of Allegheny street, when they reached the alley back of "Our House," they pulled off their coats and "pitched in" to each other in dead, down, earnest," after pelting away until both were exhausted, they gathered up their "duds" and marched down the hill, seemingly satisfied with the encounter. It was decidedly the "coolest" settlement of the kind we have ever witnessed.

☞ On Sunday last some boys who were old enough to have known better, took a hand car that was standing on the track and started to ride down the Snow Shoe Rail Road, they had not proceeded far however, when the clothes of one of them, Fletcher Johnston, caught in the machinery and he was thrown to the ground, with his arm broken above the elbow, it was set by Drs. Dobbins and Dorworth, and is now doing well. It should be a lesson to them for some time. They should learn to leave things with which they have no business alone—to have some regard for the Sabbath and for their parents, and accidents of the kind will not happen.

THE NEGRO'S PLACE IN NATURE.—We have received a copy of a phamphlet with the above title, containing a lecture delivered in England by Dr. James Hunt, before the London Anthropological Society. Dr. Hunt is one of the most eminent naturalists of England, and in his lecture takes the position that the negro race is adapted by nature to a position of subordination. He overthrows the arguments of the Abolitionists in a masterly manner. So much importance was attached to this Lecture in England, that Professor Huxley, of the Royal College, essayed to give an answer to it on the part of the Abolitionists, but he rather succeeded in confirming than destroying Dr. Hunt's arguments. This Lecture has been re-printed in this country by Van Evrie, Horton, & Co., No. 162 Nassau street, New York, and will be sent, postpaid, for 15 cents. It is an admirable little tract, and very opportune as a reply to the arguments of Abolitionists and Miscegenationists. Every Democrat should have one. Send for it.

☞ A meeting of the tenants of Benner twp. was held at Rock School House on the evening of the 30th ult. at which the following resolutions were adopted and signed:

Resolved.—That we do object to paying any taxes on Real Estate caused by the war.

Resolved.—That we will throw up the farms now in our occupancy if said taxes are not paid by the owners of the property.

THE GREAT QUESTION.—The ancients, and indeed many moderns, held the opinion that in some parts of the world there existed certain springs, of water, having the marvelous property of rejuvenation. All have read the adventures of Ponce de Leon in Florida, nearly three hundred years ago in search of these waters. The nearest approach to this discovery is the great Caucasian secret for beautifying the complexion, removing all diseases of the skin, and giving a healthful and youthful appearance. See advertisement in another column.

☞ Our friends throughout the country, we know are waiting anxiously to hear how many of the brave boys that went forth from our county have fallen in the terrible battles of the last few days, as yet we can give them but little information. We have been able to obtain the names of but few of the unfortunates. Lieut. Jas. B. Cook, son of Capt. Cook, the efficient and obliging Post Master at this place, was wounded so badly in the leg that amputation had to be performed. Capt. Campbell, of Ferguson twp. Capt. W. Kepheart, of Rock Forge, Capt. Goodfellow, of Boggs twp., and Lieut. G. B. Campbell, of Unionville, are reported among the killed. The following list of wounded has been gathered from the papers, and letters, to this place.

☞ The following letter, with the request to publish it has been sent to us, by Dr Fisher of Boalsburg. It was written by Maj. B. F. Fisher chief of the Signal corps, and conveyed the sorrowful intelligence, of the death of his brother Leiut. John H. Fisher of the 138th. Penna. Regt. Leiut. Fisher was the son of Rev. P. S. Fisher formerly of Boalsburg, and was well known to many of our readers, who will mourn the loss of their brave and youthful companion.

MY DEAR PARENTS:

Another desperate struggle for the preservation of American Constitutional liberty raged during the last two days. It was indeed fought as if each one recognized the immense importance of this battle. Upon it we can say the fate of a Government, honored in all lands for its institutions, depended. No one seemed to think any sacrifice too great. Life dear and noble was offered upon the altar of liberty. Many will be called upon to mourn the loss of near and dear friends. But all can feel that the cause for which this sacrifice was made, was worthy of it, and how with humble submission and prayerful hearts to the bereavement brought about in God's Providence.

Let all take courage and gather strength from the source that never fails to yield when properly drawn from. To God and His promises let all look—You too, my dear Parents have had a heavy tax laid upon you by an allwise Providence. But what He does is well done, and as christains we will recognize this act and not murmer. My dear brother John Harry, and your dear son fell yesterday morning, while gallantly leading the advance skirmishers in a charge upon the enemies lines. His noble bearing and undaunted courage in the face of danger won the confidence of his superiors, and the love of those whom he commanded. A regiment mourns his death with us my dear Parents. Aye, every Patriot's heart and friend of his country will yield their sympathy. We mourn him not as lost. He has only preceded us to join that little circle already gathered from our hearth. We will therefore look forward with hope to a future and happy meeting where trouble ceases.

There is some comfort in knowing he died without suffering. The ball penetrated his heart, and his death was instantaneous. Now, my dear Parents, you have administered comfort too frequently to allow this to overcome you. We will gather the nearer around you and try to supply the place of the lost one. God bless you, my dear Parents, and give you strength in this trial.

Accept love, Your devoted Son,

FRANK.
